

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
Director, Physical and Health Education

The Scout's Trip

Preparations were being made for the annual hiking and camping trip of the Boy Scout troop. Food was the chief topic of discussion. Some boys were worried about the amount they would have to carry, but the others had different ideas.

"We don't need to carry much," they said. "There are farms near camp and along the road we're taking."

"That's right, fresh vegetables and milk. Nothing better than that. The farmers have butter too, and we can get bread at the village store."

"What about the milk," asked one boy. "Will it be safe?" "Sure it will," replied one who seemed to be posted. "Some of the farmers pasteurize their milk at the farm and the other farms are approved by the state inspectors."

"Wait until you see those dairy barns," added another, "they're as clean as a kitchen. And you won't find any diseased cows either. The state is very strict. You'll drink milk all right, a quart every day. That's what I'm going to do."

"Peas and string beans will be ready, and young carrots, lettuce, and tomatoes. Boy! I can taste them now. Berries for dessert. Some eggs from the farmers and some bacon and meat from the store. We're all set. Let's go!"

In his next article Dr. Ireland will discuss the problems of touring, especially when children are along.

MILADY SEPIA

BY SCORIA C. EVERLEY

Milady is glad to do ye old bathing suit for more reasons than one. She certainly has what it takes to make the beach scene worthwhile. Besides she half-suspected 'Old Sol' would be none too kind to the peroxidized locks of the new girl and she was more than right. The object of their affections seems a bit disillusioned but Milady is far from sorry!

act that led to his capture. Three weeks ago, in a fit of anger Gaines threw his common-law wife out of the fourth story window but she was not seriously injured. He was arrested but the woman refused to press charges against him but before deciding not to do so she revealed that he was wanted in North Carolina. Subsequent investigation substantiated her story and officers are here now awaiting for Gaines to recover sufficiently for him to travel.

Three Women Hurt When Cars Collide

Three persons were injured in an auto collision at Twenty-fourth and Spencer streets about 9 o'clock Wednesday night. They are Dora Davis, 2504 Blondo street, Bernice Douglas, same address, and George McLaugh, 1211 Pierce street.

All were riding in a car driven by John McLaugh, 2734 Blondo street. The other auto was driven by Street-Turner, 2514 Corby street, George McLaugh and Bernice Douglas were taken to Lord Lister hospital.

Negro Physician Addresses Medics

Atlantic City, N. J., June 29, (By Mary J. Washington for (ANP))—The joint convention of the American Medical Association and the Canadian Medical Association which ended here Friday, not only brought together the largest number of physicians ever to assemble in America but made history, in that, for the first time, a Negro physician appeared before that august body delivering an address on a subject about which little has been hitherto known.

The physician was Dr. Kenneth I. Melville, Jamaica born and hailing from Canada, where he is assistant professor of pharmacology at the University of McGill. Dr. Melville has held this position for two years. Prior to joining the staff of Canada's premier institution he did research work in France and Germany. The subject of his address, which was illustrated with lantern slides was "The Comparative Effects of Pressor and Oxytocic Activity." Dr. Melville was most cordially received.

A number of outstanding Negroes attended the convention, among them being Dr. T. T. Tilden, Director of Diagnostic Service, Tuskegee Veterans Hospital; Dr. Mac Carroll, Dept. of Health, Newark, N. J.; Dr. Roscoe Giles, Staff Surgeon, Provident Hospital, Chicago; Dr. Harry Poindexter, Prof. of Bacteriology, Howard University. Dr. Henry Turner, Hartford, Conn.; Dr. Howard McNeil, Pontiac, Mich.; and several physicians from Philadelphia and other neighboring cities.

Principal Dismissed

Orlando, Fla., June 29, (By Helen Webb for ANP)—Prof. A. J. Polk, principal of the Jones high school here, was dismissed by the board of education over the protest of thousands of Negro citizens here last week because, according to reports, he was too forward and made the school advance too rapidly to suit the powers that be.

Mr. Polk is president of the Florida Colored Teachers Association and led in the fight before the legislature last winter for a higher wage for colored teachers.

Prisoner Prefers Death to Prison

Troy, N. Y., June 29—(ANP)—Declaring that "I'm not going back alive," Louis Gaines, an escaped convict while awaiting the arrival of officers to return him to North Carolina, attempted to commit suicide here Monday morning by taking poison. He was discovered by a jail warden and rushed to the prison hospital where his condition was described as serious.

Gaines was convicted in 1930 on charges of attempting to assault a white woman in Guilford county, N. C., and sentenced to 10 years in prison. After serving a year he escaped from the criminal division of the Negro asylum at Goldsboro where he was confined and made his way to this city.

He assumed an alias and later a common law wife. It was the latter

Summer Theatre Opens for Season June 17

Atlanta, Ga., June 12, Special—With a full time company of fifteen persons who will devote their summer to the rehearsal and presentation of plays, the Atlanta University Summer Theatre opened its second season Monday, June 17, with Martinez Sierra's comedy, "The Romantic Young Lady." During the five weeks' season five productions will be staged with a new play each week, and performances each Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening.

The 1935 season will utilize the services of a number of players who were in last year's successful company. Among those who are returning are Miss Billie Geter, of Jacksonville, Florida, Miss Florence Warwick, of Birmingham, Alabama, John M. Ross, of New Haven, Connecticut, Miss Eldza Monsanto, of St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, and Edward Allen Jones, of Atlanta.

To supplement these Miss Anne M. Cooke, of Spelman College, who is directing the theatre, has recruited a number of student actors who have won their spurs in campus theatricals. These newcomers to the summer theatre will be Fannie Louis Allen, of Atlanta, Ednah Bethea, of Southern Pines, North Carolina, Harriet Mayle, of Bridgeton, New Jersey, and Mary Louis Smith, of Dallas, Texas, all students or graduates of Spelman College.

John H. Young, of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, Martin E. Graham, of Jacksonville, Florida, Huerta Neals, Jacksonville, Florida, Charles T. Perkins, New Orleans, Louisiana and George Smith of Savannah, all of whom are students or former students at Morehouse College and B. B. Banks, of Atlanta University and formerly of North Carolina A. and T. College who is acting as business manager of the theatre, are also members of the company. Several others will be east for occasional roles in the summer repertory.

The five plays of the season and the dates of each have been announced as follows: "The Romantic Young Lady" by Martinez Sierra, June 17, 19, and 21. "The Rivals" by Richard Brinsley Sheridan, June 24, 26, and 28; "A Bill of Plays of Negro Life, July 1, 3, 5; "The Return of Peter Grimm," by David Belasco, July 8, 10, and 12; "Bird in Hand" by John Drinkwater, July 15, 17, and 19.

Florence Warwick Spellman to Study at Bennington School

Atlanta, Georgia, June 27,—Special: In recognition of her marked abilities as an interpretive dancer and pantomimist, Florence Mae Warwick of Birmingham, Alabama, who was graduated from Spelman College this month, has been granted a scholarship for study at the Bennington School of the Dance to be held at Bennington College, Bennington Vermont, from July 7 to August 17. Announcement of the appointment was made on the eve of Miss Warwick's appearance in the first play of the Atlanta University Summer Theatre season, "The Romantic Young Lady," in which she will play the principal character role. It will be her only performance this year with the local summer theatre.

During her four years at Spelman College, Miss Warwick made an enviable record as an interpretive dancer and actress. She appeared in the choreographic interpretations of the Negro spirituals which were a part of the pageant commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of Spelman College. For her work in creating and training the participants in the dances in the campus production of "Antigone" and her work in the one-act tragedy of Japanese life, "The String of the Samisen" by Rita Wellman, she was given in 1934 the Jerome award for creative achievement. In the summer of 1934 she appeared with the Atlanta University Summer Theatre in productions of "Sun-up," Lulu Vollmer's play of the Carolina mountain folk, and Bernard Shaw's comedy "Candida."

At Bennington, Miss Warwick will take part in what is considered the most notable school of the dance in America. Courses will be given in the technical methods of Martha Graham, Doris Humphrey, Charles Weidman and the Wigman School, which will be represented by Tina Flade. Each of these dancers will be present to conduct an intensive two weeks course. The experience and comparison of these various methods, which are considered as the chief influence in the development of the modern dance in this country, comprise the central purpose of this school.

Recreation Institutes For Play Leaders

Five Centers Selected

New York, June 27—The National Recreation Association, in the continuance of its field service to communities throughout America, has announced the completion of special arrangements in its educational program covering five institutes of one week each in as many regional centers; the purpose being to make available to recreation workers in the sections selected an opportunity to receive leadership training in activities incidental to that field.

The five cities selected for the institutes are: Nashville Tennessee, June 24, 29; Birmingham Alabama, July 1 to 6th; New Orleans, Louisiana, July 8 to 13th; Greensboro, North Carolina, July 15 to 20th; Richmond, Virginia, July 22 to 27th. No tuition is charged but the students must apply for registration, and if accepted, a registration fee of a dollar will be accepted to assist in the cost of material to be distributed and printed matter used in connection with the course.

The institution invites workers in recreation among colored groups, including a person engaged in emergency education and recreation relief projects or leaders of agencies offering programs and facilities for recreation and informal education on a community wide, unrestricted basis. The institutes are intended primarily for emergency workers without previous training; workers responsible for programs administered by recreation departments in connection with municipal or school systems; volunteers with special interest in club or group activities, now giving effective service in education-recreation activities.

Extension workers or relief leaders now serving or to be assigned to rural education-recreation programs.

The staff for these institutes will be composed primarily of members of the field and teaching staff of the National Recreation Association and of professional recreation and educational leaders locally.

The chief topics and activities to be covered will be led by: Theory, Organization and Administration of Recreation, Ernest T. Attwell; Drama Activities, Charles F. Wells; Social Recreation and Women's and Girl's activities, Ethel Bowers; Community Music activities, George L. Johnson.

In connection with the plans for these recreation institutes, E. T. Attwell of the National Recreation Association stated: "We experimented in the one week play institute last winter and found popular interest in them. This group of five, in different sections of the country, will give opportunity to persons employed in work relief recreation projects to receive some training which may make their work more effective in the communities where they carry on and also prepare prospective workers to visualize the scope of the leisure time field. State Administrators of relief indicate a willingness to arrange to make attendance possible to those who request the privilege."

The announcement carrying full details is available at the headquarters of the National Recreation Association, 315 Fourth Avenue, New York, or by the local city recreation departments in the places in which the institutes will be held.
