Mrs. Joseph D. Lewis, took the Chicago guests, Misses Smith and Matthews for a drive through the city and ending at the ice cream parlor, for refreshments. It was greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Geo. L. Anderson, proprietor of the Let George Do It Company, just returned from Lumpkin, Georgia, where he spent several weeks, at the bedside of his mother and visited with his sister. Mr. Anderson said that people in his home town seem to be getting along fairly well for all have their farming spots to raise the necessary foods for existence. His mother was very much improved when he left.

A Cruel Heart, Indeed

We happened to pass 27th and Blondo street, and we discovered about eight sprays of thin vapors of cool water flowing and about 35 or 40 citizens of the neighborhood between the ages of 5 and 25, participating therein. It was in the heat of the afternoon, about 2:30 p. m., and I had just read a letter from Africa, written by Dr. McMillan. He said that it is now 120 degrees in the shade. That made the whole day seem hotter to me, and when I saw this cool spray of water so many seemed to be enjoying it, I wondered what humanitarian had thought of the children and the youth suffering during these hot days. I felt like joining the party, but I had just received a telephone call that Art and Ione were at dagger points over who was who, in a neighborhood attempt rape exposure, and seemingly I was the center of their conversation for not giving credit where credit was due. On my journey, a few days after I passed 28th and Miami, and I had the same happy experience of seeing a happy group of children having the time of their lives, under the spray of a cool water vapor. The next day I had an occasion to go up Miami, to carry a message to Mrs. Boone, that her son-in-law, Dr. McMillan will arrive in America, from his five-year stay in Africa, July 23. On my return from Mrs. Boone, I saw many sad faces in groups, standing around, seemingly wondering who had become of their cooling vapor sprays of water. I became interested in the grief-stricken youth and I began to make inquiries, as to why the spray was not in operation. Now here is where a cruel heart indeed had performed to the regret of a group of suffering children. I was informed that some of the neighbors had called the park Department and requested that the spray be removed from in front of their homes or in fact off of Miami street. If our Savior asked who is your neighbor, in this case, he would say: "Not the lady who called the Park Department." He might give the credit to our Park Commissioner Frank Frost, for trying to make this hot weather a little more bearable by making up a few water sprayers and spreading them around in our city for the kiddies. But if everybody is going to request him to keep it away from in front of their property, kind-hearted Park Commissioner Frank Frost will be lost as to what steps to take. We have just had a phone call from the Park Department as to where was a good spot to place a couple of good new water sprays just finished at the shop. Now Mr. Omahans, if you love children, and can appreciate what the little fellows are going through in this hot weather, and you do not possess a cruel heart, call the Park Department and tell them, they are welcome to place one of the sprayers in front of your home for the kiddies and find someone who will see that they do not run rampant over peoples gardens, and flowers, just call Atlantic 8812, and ask for Park Department, and say that you are welcome to place a sprayer in front of my home, that is if you love children and may the Lord help you, if you don't.

Community Worker
Not To Lose Her Job

Mrs. Ida Rowland, who has been employed at the Community Center League, and who is a student at the University of Omaha, is not to lose her job, so Attorney W. B. Bryant reports to the Omaha Guide Office. Some uncalled for rumor, spread around the Community Center that she was to be discharged July 15. Mrs. Rowland, who is an hour student at the University of Omaha, became very much alarmed, because she was in hopes of holding her job so that she would be able to continue her studies at Omaha U this fall. After several inquiries by her many friend, to the Urban League secretary, Attorney W. B. Bryant was informed that there was absolutely no foundation to the rumor. If it were not for Miss Rowland's illness, she would be working today. So states W. B. Bryant.

Demand Increased Relief Jobs in New York City

New York, N. Y., (CNA)—Representatives of more than 40 independent and American Federation of Labor locals, organized into the Negro Workers Council of Harlem and of the Urban League, met here today, at St. James Church, to express deep concern over the discrimination practiced by General Hugh S. Johnson, Workers Relief Administrator of New York.

Warns of Past. "If we don't find a way out, we'll be eating the bread of charity and all of these PWA jobs will be denied to our group, just as has happened in the past," warned Lester Granger, secretary of Workers Bureau of the National Urban League.

Other speakers were: Tim Holmes, secretary of the Council; Manning Johnson, its president. Rev. Imes, pastor of St. James Church. Immediate Action. Immediate, emergency action to protect rights of unemployed Negroes for jobs was taken. A committee of four was elected to draft a statement which would be taken to General Johnson with the demands of thousands of trade unionists represented in the Council, for full equality of opportunity in relief jobs.

Warren Withholds Money Sent to Jailed Unemployed Leader

Los Angeles, Calif., (CNA)—James G. McShann, leader of the unemployed who was jailed in 1934 for demanding better food from relief authorities, has been deprived of money and packages by Captain Shand, white, warden of Lincoln Heights Prison, it was learned this week. The money and packages were sent by the International Labor Defense Prisoners Relief Department.

Explosion Takes Lives of Two Natives

Johannesburg, S. Africa, (CNA by mail)—An explosion at a shaft of the Sub Nigel Mine took the lives of two Native workers and seriously injured a European and two more Natives. Negligence of the British mine owners in providing safety appliances was blamed as the cause of the explosion.

HINT SCANDAL AT WESTERN UNIVERSITY

This came about because of the fact that African Methodists all over the country protested against the State retaining Bishop Vernon as Superintendent of the State Industrial Department of the University after his suspension.

Governor Landon of Kansas, and an aspirant for the Republican Presidential nomination, despite the charges of immoral conduct brought against Bishop Vernon and the protest of the A. M. E. Church, has refused absolutely to move him; and according to the leaders of the church, the State has assumed complete control over the school.

In view of the new charges being framed to make his suspension permanent or unrock Bishop Vernon at the General Conference in New York City in May 1936, this writer drove to Topeka and interviewed the Governor in his office, since he has been so prominently mentioned for the Presidency of the United States, and asked him if he intended to re-appoint Bishop Vernon for another year over the bitter protest of the Christian leaders of all denominations all over the country.

The Governor explained that Chester Franklin, Editor of the Kansas City Call, visited his office about six weeks ago and asked him to please re-appoint Bishop Vernon as Superintendent; that he is the only man fitted for the position, and that because Mr. Franklin owns the leading colored paper in the mid-west, he did re-appoint the Bishop.

Rumor in the Christian circles have it that Bishop Vernon is alleged to have contributed large sums to The Call.

Again, the Baptist Ministers charge that when they snubbed Bishop Vernon a few weeks ago, the story was given to Mr. Franklin to run. This he refused to do, saying it was not news, yet the Associated Negro Press accepted the same story and it was published by nearly every colored paper in the United States.

When interviewed in his office in the Industrial Department of Western University about his attitude toward the hold grand mess, Bishop Vernon said he was caught unaware at the last General Conference; that he had been framed. However, he did not care what folks say or the newspapers publish about him.

When informed of the new charges to unrock him, he said they caught him napping before, but at the next General Conference he intends to catch some of them napping with a few charges.

If Bishop Vernon is re-instated over the charges to be made against him, some of the leaders of the Fifth Episcopal District threaten to withdraw from the A. M. E. connection. Throughout the District this sentiment seems to prevail.
