Catholics Ask Pope for His Position on Mussolini's Attacks on Ethiopia

New York, (CNA)—Deep concern was expressed here by Catholic circles over the continued silence of Pope Pius XI towards Mussolini's plan for the enslavement of Christian Ethiopia.

"Catholics, other denominations, urged condemnation fascist Italy invasion Christian Ethiopia, await reply", was the text of the cable sent to the Vatican head by the Provisional Committee for the Defense of Ethiopia and the American League Against War and Fascism.

Commenting on the tense situation in Ethiopia, Dr. Hudson Oliver, prominent physician and executive committee member of the Catholic Interracial Association, flayed Mussolini's foreign policy as "taking advantage of a weaker nation".

"I will join with any group protesting this imperialist war", he remarked.

Police Attack Anti-Mussolini Picket Line

Detroit, Mich., (CNA)—Recklessly wielding clubs and blackjacks, the police tore into the picket line protesting Mussolini's robber war against Ethiopia in front of the Italian Consulate and dispersed the demonstrators.

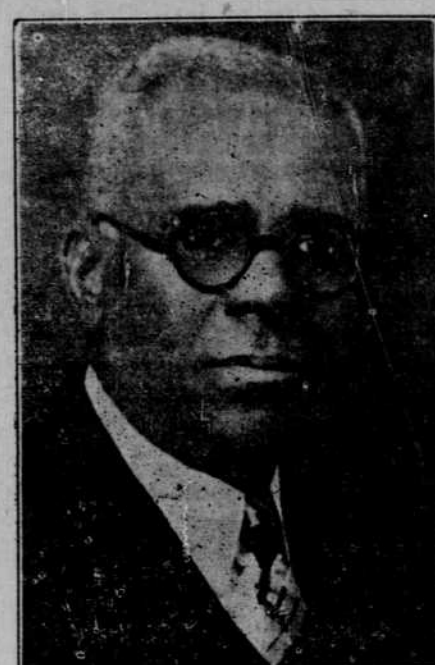

For over an hour, Negro and white paraded in front of the consulate with placards which read: "Hands off Ethiopia." "Long Live the Italian Anti-Fascist Fighters". Many passers-by voiced their sympathy with the picketers and protested vehemently when the police charged the line. A delegation headed by Edward Williams was refused admission into the Italian Consul's office to lodge their protest. The demonstration was called by the Provisional Committee for the Defense of Ethiopia.

Maryland Student Heads Anti-War Group

Baltimore, Md., (CNA)—Donald Murray, young student who has just defeated the attempt of the University of Maryland to bar him because he is Negro, has been elected chairman of the arrangements committee of the Baltimore Conference Against War and Fascism.

Popular Mortician on Tour

J. D. Lewis, proprietor of the J. D. Lewis Mortuary, left a few days ago, accompanied by his mother and sister on a tour of the North West. They will spend a few days in Seattle, Washington and will motor down the coast, stopping at Portland, Oregon, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Calif. They are expected to return home in the early part of August.

PREXY PRESIDENT J. B. WATSON

Head of Agricultural, Mechanical and Normal college, located at Pine Bluff, Ark. Mr. Watson, who has been a widely known figure in America before assuming the presidency of Arkansas State, is developing a splendid institution. The institution is in a sense new. Every building on the grounds has been erected during the past six years.

Ministers Alliance Endorses Scottsboro Herdon Defense

Buffalo, N. Y., (CNA)—The Ministers Alliance of Buffalo and vicinity representing a score of Negro churches, at its special meeting endorsed the defense struggles for the Scottsboro and Herndon.

In answer to an appeal from the local Herndon, Scottsboro defense committee, the assembled ministers voted for a resolution of protest to be sent to the Supreme Court and Governor Talmadge of Georgia. The resolution asked that the frame-up charge against Herndon be dropped and that he be unconditionally released.

Petition lists were eagerly taken by the ministers who promised to solicit signatures of the members of their congregations to add their bit to the campaign for 2,000,000 signatures.

Eight Little Letters

If the late Frank Douglas could return now, he would be faced with eight little letters on each side of the door of his old stand, at 2406 Erskine street, and at the bottom of the large plate window he would see Erskine street Liquor store. Very beautifully decorated in colors for a place of this kind.

The eight little letters on each side say, ess on one side and Cleo on the other side. These two names represent a long large acquaintance on two different kinds of life endeavor.

Mr. Jess Harding, a long time dining car employee liked by all who have formed his acquaintance and his forever pleasant personality, seems to draw you near him. This is not Mr. Harding's first venture into the business world. At one time he operated a large business in the "Windy" city. In his Chicago enterprise he employed only women workers. This may be the reason that he has only men employees in his place of business. Maybe Jess learned a lesson.

Mr. Cleo Mortimer, who is the decorator and ever handy, man around the place of business known as H. and M., on 24th and Erskine, has lived in Omaha nearly all his life and chose as his vocation interior decorating. This gives Mr. Mortimer a large acquaintance with plumbers, carpenters, decorators and helpers. He has a large following of acquaintances in this circle. Mr. Mortimer has a stirring personality and is on the alert and strictly business. These two young men are destined to become a leading business organization of Omaha.

If the separate liquor license is upheld by State Supreme Court, the year favored with a very fine suitable location for the double liquor law operation. In talking with Mr. Mortimer about the double liquor law, he says that he prefers the Attorney General's opinion to be sustained by the State Supreme Court. Mr. Mortimer said that he would prefer running the two stores separate for there is a number of working people, whose day of leisure does not begin due to their employment until late in the evening, and that if the Attorney General's opinion is not sustained by State Supreme Court, the liquor licensed places of business will be forced to close at an early hour and that will cause a great deal of inconvenience, for people whose working days do not let up until 1 or 12 o'clock.

The H. and M. seems to be the popular place of recreation on 24th street of late. From 8:30 until about 2 the six employees are jumping high trying to meet the demand for service.

Busy Pastor

Rev. M. K. Curran, pastor of Zion Baptist church, can be seen every morning about 8:45 enroute to his study room, at Zion. Just as dutiful as if he had to punch a time clock. He makes four trips a day from his home to his study room. Rev. Curran is over and spoken favorably of by all who have had the pleasure of his acquaintance, since he has been in our city. Even though the weather is very warm, he has a packed auditorium every Sunday morning. It is filled to capacity.

KANSAS CITY VISITOR

Mrs. Elvora Taylor, of Kansas City, Kansas, was the house guest of Mrs. J. E. Todd, 2204 N. 19th Street. She was also a visitor of her brother, Mr. R. E. Mills, 2343 Binney. While in the city, she met many friends and associates, and Sunday, July 14, she motored down to Lincoln, to worship.

Mrs. Taylor, director of the Pleasant Green Baptist Church Choir, Rev. C. C. Harper, pastor, rendered two beautiful solos in the morning services.

Many parties and luncheons were given in her honor. One in particular was given by Mrs. J. E. Todd, 2204 N. 19th Street, was a very successful affair.

PATTERSON—YOUNG NUPTIALS
Mrs. William D. Taylor, announced the approaching marriage of her niece, Lucille Patterson to Cornelius Young, of Portland, Oregon, on the fifteenth of August, nineteen hundred and thirty-five.

Nuptial rites will be performed at Zion Baptist Church.

Miss Cora Tippins of Little Rock, Arkansas, arrived in Omaha, Saturday, July 20, 1935, to visit her cousin, Mrs. Rosa Pettigrew of 2302 N. 29th Street. After a weeks visit she will leave for Chicago and St. Louis for a short visit before returning to Little Rock.

Mrs. Lillie Turner, 2712 Decatur, who has been very ill for the last two weeks, is much better and able to sit up a few hours during the day. Dr. Wiggins is the attending physician.
