

The Way Out

NEWS FROM TOKIO By Loren Miller

(Special to Crusader News Agency)

It's an ill wind that blows nobody good and the Italo-Ethiopian trouble has proved a boon to the Japanese militarists.

Dispatches from Tokio bring the news that the Japanese man, Mitsui, has refused to fulfill an Italian order for 100,000 pairs of shoes.

I cannot question the submission of the order nor the refusal to fill it. Any sensible merchant Japanese or American, must be a little skittish about dealing with Mussolini in view of the well known financial weakness of the country.

Nice Friendly People

Just why the myth persists that the Japanese overlords are friends of dark people, I am not prepared to say.

It is quite true that Japan has no African colonies, a lapse to be explained only by the fact that Nippon came on the scene too late to get in on the plundering of the dark continent.

Crafty Game.

The Japanese militarists have everything to gain by playing for public sympathy and gesturing toward Ethiopia.

City College Students Fight Discrimination

New York, (CNA)—The tradition which has barred Negroes from clerical or educational positions in the ivy-covered towers of City College was challenged this week by a militant undergraduate body, the Summer Forum.

The campus, which embraces students of varying shades of political and social opinion, has determined to conduct a relentless campaign for the immediate appointment of eligible Negro candidates to the College faculty and office staff.

Ministers Endorse Fight.

A provisional Committee Against Practices has been initiated by the Forum to involve the broadest strata of sympathizers into active participation in the campaign.

At two other municipal-owned colleges, Hunter and Brooklyn similar anti-jimerow movements have been launched by the National Student League Chapters.

The City College group urges Negroes desiring faculty positions to apply immediately for appointment. Persons holding a Bachelor's degree may apply for tutor's position.

Jim-Crow Practices.

Authoritative spokesmen state that a Negro has never worked in the Recorder's office, has never been permitted to register students and has never been hired for clerical work in the Mursar's office in the Curator's department.

During the summer time, varsity men are given jobs as ushers at the concerts held in the college stadium. When Negroes apply, they are bluntly informed of the Jim-Crow policy.

The recent harrowing experience of Welford Wilson, track team star, at the Penn relays, brought the problem of discrimination to the fore.

Resolutions of protest against the anti-Negro policy of the college administration and application for instructor and clerical positions should be mailed to The Provisional Committee Against Discriminatory Practices.

Delegation Demands State Department Act On Behalf of Ethiopia

Washington, D. C., (CNA)—A delegation of New York professionals and workers, headed by Mary Johnson of the League of Struggle for Negro Rights and Allyne of the Provisional Committee for the Defense of Ethiopia, visited the Italian Embassy and the Department of State to protest against Mussolini's plan to plunder and enslave Ethiopia.

A blanket demand of "Hands Off Ethiopia" was laid before the Italian Ambassador for transmission of the arch-dictator, Benito Mussolini. Expulsion of the Italian fascist propagandists and the enforcement of the Kellogg-Briand Pact and the Johnson Act were the principal demands of the delegation from Secretary of State Hull.

The "poet" Pirandello and the Italian exchange students in the American universities would fall into the category of "fascist propagandists." These elements have intensified their vicious campaign of justification of Mussolini's robber war in Ethiopia.

Under the Kellogg-Briand pact, Italy supposedly renounced "war as an instrument of national policy" and promised to submit all her disputes with foreign countries to arbitration. The United States government, as one of the pact's signatories, can apply pressure on Mussolini to uphold his promise.

The Johnson Act bars all defaulting nations from floating loans in the United States or its possessions. Rigid enforcement would prevent Italian fascism from raising money here to carry out its war plans in East Africa.

Fight Anti-Negro School Books In Boston

Boston, Mass., (CNA)—A Campaign to eliminate anti-Negro school books from the city educational system has been initiated here by the Provisional Committee for Equal Opportunities and the Parent-Teacher Association of the South End.

A delegation will visit the Boston School Committee to demand immediate action. The fight will center around the chief offender, a novel by Rudyard Kipling, called "Captain Courageous."

The appointment of a minimum of four physicians in the city schools will be demanded by the Sub-Committee and Hospitalization. It reported at the last meeting of its parent body, Committee for Equal Opportunities, that this need is particularly felt in schools where 90% of the pupils are Negroes.

Many families in the South (Negro) end are in dire want of milk and clothing, the Economic and Social Survey Sub-Committee stated. An effort will be made by the parents in the district, assisted by the Sub-Committee, to secure free distribution of these necessities of life from the city relief administration.

Levinsky Quit, But Only After He Had Been Beaten

Chicago, Aug. 14, (ANP)—Add to the Winter League arguments the question: "Did King Levinsky quit in his fight with Joe Louis or did he not quit?"

Shortly after the fight was over, Levinsky was asked in his dressing room if he had quit, if he had asked the referee, Norm McGarrity, to stop the combat. The King said he might have said something, but he did not say that.

Sports writers close to the corner where Levinsky sat on the ropes said they heard the King ask the referee to take Louis away.

Referee McGarrity informed members of the Boxing Commission that Levinsky had said: "Don't let him hit me no more. I am through."

The Kingfish said: "That first solid one he landed was a left hook to the head. It hurt like hell. I guess I just wasn't much good from then on. At the end there I took a left hook, then a right hand. I was dazed all right, but I didn't tell the referee to stop the fight."

However, later in the day, the Kingfish wasn't so sure what his mumbled words were. Eddie Geiger, sports editor of The American says: "I talked to him 24 hours after his knockout by Louis. I wanted to learn his version of how it happened. He told me that after the right to told me that after the right to the jaw that dropped him the first time, he remembered little. He said he doesn't remember being down the other three times, doesn't remember sitting on the ropes and that his mind is a blank so far as his conversation with the referee is concerned.

Chicago, Aug. 14, (ANP)—"I am often wrong and I have never bet a dollar on a prize fight in my life," writes Bill Corum, ace sports commentator for the Heart newspaper in the Chicago American. "But I would be willing to bet my own money that if Joe Louis had to, he could beat Braddock, Baer and Schmeling in the same night to win the heavyweight championship."

Says Louis Could Whip Baer, Braddock, Schmeling; Same Ring

Chicago, Aug. 14, (ANP)—"I am often wrong and I have never bet a dollar on a prize fight in my life," writes Bill Corum, ace sports commentator for the Heart newspaper in the Chicago American. "But I would be willing to bet my own money that if Joe Louis had to, he could beat Braddock, Baer and Schmeling in the same night to win the heavyweight championship."

Doctors Organize Medical Aid for Ethiopia

New York, (CNA)—Red Cross kits containing bandages, antiseptics and other items needed in administering first aid to wounded and stricken soldiers will be sent to the Ethiopian government by a group of prominent Harlem professional men.

Meeting at the 135th street "Y" last Thursday, a number of physicians, dentists, pharmacists and technicians laid plans for immediate effective, concrete assistance to Ethiopia. The Medical Committee for the Defense of Ethiopia was organized.

An outstanding feature of its plans in addition to the shipment of Red Cross kits will be the organization of a delegation of nurses and doctors to leave for Ethiopia to offer personal aid.

Organized medical, dental, pharmaceutical groups will be approached by the Committee with the view of obtaining their endorsement and cooperation in carrying out its objectives.

The committee consists of Dr. J. J. Jones, chairman; Dr. Arnold Donawa, secretary; Dr. P. M. H. Savory, Dr. A. H. Armstrong; Dr. Robert L. Challenor, Dr. F. T. Reid, Dr. Ellis Barrow, Dr. V. H. DuBois, Dr. Gadsby, Dr. A. B. Andre, Dr. Walter Merrick, Dr. Glendon L. Logan, and Miss L. M. Biggs, bacteriologist. Further information may be secured from its chairman at 151 West 140th street, New York City.

Lasky Still Wants Louis

Chicago, Aug. 14, (ANP)—Three heavyweights climbed into the ring last Wednesday night and challenged the winner of the Louis-Levinsky scrap to a fight. They were Art Lasky, former contender, against Baer; Ford Smith, who knocked out Lasky out West, and Johnny Risko, the Cleveland baker boy.

After the fight, Lasky was interviewed at the Morrison hotel. He was first asked if he still wanted Louis.

"Why-er, yes," he answered with some hesitation, but plenty of assurance.

He then explained that his manager was upstairs trying to arrange a fight, but that they wanted him to fight in Detroit. Lasky was conscious of the fact that a Detroit fight would class him as a second-rater.

"We don't want Detroit," he stated. "Either New York (where Braddock whipped Lasky) or Chicago, neutral ground. I wouldn't want to fight him in Los Angeles because everything would be in my favor there, nor in Detroit where the odds would favor him."

With the Baer bout signed up, it looks like Lasky will have to wait until next spring when Joe tunes up for Braddock.

J. M. P.—I am heir to some land that was bought by my grandfather and willed to me and I want to secure the property. How can I get it?

Ans: The particular tract of land that you believed to have been willed to you belongs to an OIL COMPANY in Texas. These people purchased the land legally and there is no way for you to gain control of it. I cannot contact you as being heir to any land in Texas left you by your grandfather.

A. G.—Am I selfish.

Ans: I wouldn't say so—I think you are inclined to be a little too generous for your own good. Any young girl who shoulders the expense of her home as you do is not SELFISH. It is true however, that you are a bit selfish with your boy friend and what girl isn't when she has the pick of the CROWD.

K. D. T.—I have a son 15 years old and I think he is sweetheating with a woman, and I want you to tell me if I am thinking right.

Ans: You're all wrong—Your boy isn't the least bit interested in this old woman whom you are suspicious of. Her interest in him is a motherly one and there is nothing out of the way to cause you any trouble. He has a sweetheart though—for I vision a young lady about his own age of whom he is very fond.

O. C. T.—What shall I do when I get out?

Ans: I suggest that you LEAVE HOME. You can do much better and start with a clean slate if you are away from your own relatives and old friends. My advice is to settle in NEW JERSEY and settle down there with the RIGHT GIRL. Your mother is not anxious to have you around the house or she would never have CAUSED YOU TO GO TO JAIL IN THE FIRST PLACE.

C. G. L.—I have been reading your column each week in this paper. I am a little discouraged at times wondering if I should continue to go on to try to straighten out the things I have started.

Ans: By all means keep on with your work—don't give up now when the battle is half won. I vision you being very successful with one particular undertaking you have started—and I see this LEADING UP TO A PROPOSAL OF MATRIMONY WHICH YOU WILL ACCEPT. Your future seems very eventful in your old age.

E. B.—If you can tell me what my trouble is and how to get rid of it I will pay you what you charge.

Ans: I regret to inform you that your condition cannot be improved over night. It will be years before your present condition will be entirely overcome—for my crystal reveals a BONE SPECIALIST whom you will visit in the future telling you that TIME ALONE WILL HEAL THIS INJURY.

S. L. M. B.—Dear Abbe: I would like to know who took the Duck Eggs out of my Chicken Yard and put one Duck Egg in my hen nest?

Ans: A young girl who lives nearby. While you were attending a SUNDAY AFTERNOON BASEBALL game this Little Miss made it her business to visit you Hen House and deliberately carried the eggs off—breaking them in a field next door to where she lives.

E. D.—Please tell me if what I bought in Fort Worth Texas will do me any good later on in years?

Ans: Don't expect to get rich off these OIL CERTIFICATES for in my opinion you won't gain any money whatsoever from oil royalties.

B. A. N.—Does my husband throw his money away on these women that grin in my face and pretend they love my kid?

Ans: You are not only making your life perfectly miserable but your husband's as well with your jealous disposition. Your husband is innocent of any connections that you have tried to prove on him and the women in your community are trying to be nice to you when they chat on the street. None of them would HAVE YOUR HUSBAND if you should let him go.

W. E. T.—Will it be able to collect the bill that has been due me for some time?

Ans: You must start legal proceedings at once if you want to collect for the PALMETTO LOGS that you sold for a dance pavilion as the owner does not expect to pay the debt. You will receive a per-ton of the $46 that is due you in the early fall.

Three Boys Brave Mad Dog

Durham, N. C., Aug. 14, (ANP)—Braving the fury and fangs of a mad dog, here Tuesday afternoon, three little boys, the eldest being 13 years old lured the animal, that had bitten three persons a half mile to a spot where the son of one of the victims shot and killed him. The boys used their caps to ward off the lunge and snaps of the dog and after the shooting of the dog, exhibited their tattered and fang-torn headpieces to spectators. For their bravery one of the victims, Mrs. George Brantley gave the boys a reward of $10.

WHEN Amy looked in the mirror, she couldn't hold back the tears. What good was a beautiful skin, a stunning figure or a clever personality when her hair made her look old and faded.
