N. A. A. C. P. Board Holds Meeting

The Omaha Branches Executive Board of the N. A. A. C. P., met at the Community Center, Aug. 6th, 1935. Dr. Wesley Jones presiding.

The legal redress committee, the entertainment committee, and the membership committee, rendered reports. Details of these will appear in the next issue.

The Board has authorized a concentrated annual Benefit and membership Drive to extend over a period of a month, culminating in a dance to be held the first week in October. Details of the affair will be released for publication by the Committee. Chairman, Mr. Arthur B. McCaw.

Omaha Youth Joins Noble Sissle Band

Jimmie Jones of Omaha has signed a long term contract to play bass viol and trombone with the famous Noble Sissle and his Orchestra.

For the past three years Jimmie has been playing with Charles Creath's Orchestra. One that is well known up and down the Mississippi playing between St. Louis and New Orleans.

A booking agent saw Jimmie at his work, and was impressed by his technique, sending his name to Noble resulted in a contract. Jimmie will arrive here Sunday morning to spend a few days with his family before he goes to New York to join the orchestra.

Sam Shepard of St. Louis Wins Central States Golf Meet

Two Man Team from Minneapolis Makes Best Showing; Six Cities Represented

Samuel Shepard, Asst. Supervisor of Physical Education of the St. Louis Public Schools and president of Paramount Golf club won first place in the annual Central States Golf Tournament at St. Louis, August 10 and 11 over the hazardous Forest Park Links, with a score of 86-83—169. Atty. Charles Howard of Des Moines, 1934 champion was runner-up. J. R. Murray of Minneapolis was the winner in the second flight and his lone team mate, J. H. Williams also of Minneapolis was the top player in the third flight. Second places in the 2nd and 3rd flights were won by Herbert Love, St. Louis and Eugene Woods, St. Louis.

Twenty-eight players from Kansas City, St. Louis & Des Moines, Omaha, Minneapolis, Wishita and Topeka competed. Seven trophies were given, five being won by St. Louis and two by Minneapolis. The trophy awards were made by Dr. D. M. Miller of Kansas City, president of the Ass'n, Charles Howard and Sam Shepard.

The visiting players, confronted by 9 lake holes, three dog-legs and a lightning fast fairway, found the layout unusually difficult none of them being able to escape a hole in 9 at some time or another.

Watson and Davis failed to win runner-up positions in the 2nd and 3rd flights by a single stroke each.

The qualifying round began at 11:45 Saturday afternoon with each player being introduced to the audience as he teed off. A gallery of about three hundred watched the proceedings. Each foursome was accompanied by a lady scorekeeper. The players were entertained at several social functions and visited many of the city show places.

Popular Young Couple Weds

Mr. Cornelius Young of Portland, Ore., Weds Miss Lucille Patterson of Omaha, Nebr.

By FRED DIXON

Miss Patterson, niece of Mrs. Minnie Taylor, 2117 N. 28th St., and Mr. C. C. Young of Portland, Ore., were married by Rev. Cury, pastor of Zion church on August 15th at 7 o'clock in one of the loveliest weddings Omaha society has witnessed. The wedding, witnessed by about 300 people was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The bride was dressed in a lovely white satin wedding gown. The bridegroom was attired in a full dress suit. The best man and maid of honor Mr. Julius McPherson and Miss Charline Lewis were both stunningly dressed. The matron of honor, Mrs. Olive Jackson-Davis wore a lovely peach colored gown. The bridesmaids were: Mrs. Virginia Dixon, Mrs. Eva Mae Dixon, Miss Christine Dixon, Miss Dorothy Scott, Miss Charline Lewis and Mrs. Inez M. McKinley were all very lovely gowned and would be an asset to any wedding, both for beauty and the lovely gowns.

The ushers were: Mr. William Conwell, Mr. Henry Levels, Mr. William Davis, Mr. William Thomas, Mr. Jasper Dixon, Mr. Fredric Dixon, were all well groomed, wearing dark coats, white flannels, white shirts, black bow ties and white shoes. Mr. Remus Gaines gave the bride away. Kenneth Rogers was the ring bearer. The lovely flower girls were Miss Jean Beck and Miss Ruby Brock.

A reception attended by about 200 persons was thoroughly enjoyed and was a lovely affair. The attendants enjoyed an after party at Mr. R. Gaines home. The bride and groom plan to make their home in Portland, Ore.

A gay swimming party met at Riverview Park, Thursday afternoon, August 15, for a few hours of splashing and laughter. The party consisted of Miss Annabelle Thomas, 3022 Corby, Kathleen Macey, 2710 Corby, Mr. Charles Stewart and J. C. Smith of South Omaha.

Companions, or maybe I should say Pals, that are seen quite frequently on short walks together are Miss Myrtle Thomas and little Estrella Horton, who thinks she is quite a young lady, and dislikes very much for Miss Thomas to dictate to her, yet they are the best of friends ever.

You Can Help

Unfortunate citizens are made to feel not as charges, but as a part of our community, a city within itself. You will find on a visit to the Transient Center at 22nd and Hickory, as clean as a pullman sheet, not an insect of any description to be found in the entire group of buildings. You find every kind of useful entertainment, you find a dental clinic, hospital, emergency surgical room, bakery shop, laundry, shoe shop, and a place to make the clothing that the men wear.

There are many different recreation parlors for the guests of this happy institution. Yes we say guests for the patrons of this institution are treated the same as any guest in a Hotel. There is an atmosphere of satisfaction throughout this institution, with the exception of an expression of the desire on the face of the men, a willingness to accept any kind of job.

We had the honor of meeting the heads of all the different departments. We found them all kind in their attitude towards this unemployed transient family. We find Mr. Moody very busy in an office trying to place men in the employment of private industries.

Omaha citizens can lessen the burden of this Government by requesting a classified list of the unemployed and willing to work men at this place by calling JA-9918 and asking for Mr. Moody's office.

If you have not visited the Transient Center, as all are welcome to do so, at 22nd and Hickory, you owe yourself this treat.

Mrs. Edna Iris of Los Angeles, Calif., sister of Mr. Ed Wallace, 1712 N. 27th Street is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace. Mrs. Iris will remain here for ten days, leaving she will tour the South by the way of Chicago, and will go south as far as Arkansas. This is Mrs. Iris' first visit in this section of the Country and Mr. Wallace is losing no time in showing his sister the sights.

Mrs. Laffall of Marshall, Texas, is spending her vacation with her two sons and daughter-in-laws, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Laffall of 2874 Binney Street and Mr. Cornet Laffall. Mrs. Frazier is a house guest of the Laffalls also, she is their aunt, and Mrs. K. Ector, a cousin of Dallas, Texas, all were guest of a formal tea given in their honor.

TOOK OFF 17 LBS. OF UGLY FAT
HEEDED DOCTOR'S ADVICE
Mrs. Robert Hickey, Roseville, Calif., writes: "My doctor prescribed Kruschen Salts for me—he said they wouldn't hurt me in the least. I've lost 17 lbs. in 6 weeks. Kruschen is worth its weight in gold."
Mrs. Hickey paid no attention to gossipers who said there was no safe way to reduce. She wisely followed her doctor's advice. Why don't YOU?
Get a jar of Kruschen to-day (tastes like water and costs but a trifle). Simply take half teaspoonful in cup of hot water every morning. All fugates.

Investigate The Death Of Aged Man

Tarboro, N. C., Aug. 15—(ANP)—Police are investigating the death of Robert Williams, 70-year-old man who was found dead at the edge of a tobacco field near here Thursday morning. While there were no evidences of foul play, the police thought it best to investigate the case as he was seen on the local streets here apparently intoxicated late Wednesday night.
