

L. E. C.—Can you tell me will I get rid of my pain I got under my heart? Ans.—Your doctor will tell you as I am telling you now—IT'S YOUR NERVES, NOT YOUR HEART. What you need is a good vacation, for it's about time you took a long needed rest and let some other member of the family shoulder a little more of the burden.

N. E. B.—For the past two weeks or more I been dreaming about her every night. Will we ever live in peace? Ans.—Your wife is not anxious to return to you—she has lived with you long enough to know that she can not find happiness with you. It is my belief that the right woman has not yet entered your life. Your TRUE MATE will come into your life NEXT YEAR I believe.

WORRIED.—Will I receive the letter I expect? Ans.—You will receive a letter from this person but take my advice and DON'T PUT TOO MUCH STOCK IN WHAT HE HAS TO SAY. It is better that you don't go too far with this person—you might live to regret it.

M. A. G.—How can my husband earn a living in an easier way? Ans.—For the time being I would suggest that your husband be thankful for the work he has. I think it wise for him to continue on in his present vocation for I predict him securing a job in this field that will be much easier on him and pay well too. This will come about through a move you are planning to make shortly.

J. H.—Should I go up to this boy's room with him? Ans.—NO—DON'T DO IT. This man is much older than you are and his intentions are anything but honorable. If you value Your HEALTH you will keep away from this guy.

F. C. H.—Could you please tell me where the father of my child is? Ans.—EAR, EAR, AWAY. Doing the right thing just wasn't part of his makeup. He felt as though you ROPED HIM IN and so he decided to blow town. You will receive news from him this fall. At present, I believe him to be in WASHINGTON, D. C.

A. C.—Will I be successful in what I am thinking about? Ans.—It will be to your advantage

Tax Clerk Held on Serious Charge

Boston, Mass., Aug. 21, (ANP)—Charged with forgery and alleged larceny of $6,692.10 from the tax department at the city hall, Jacob A. Powell, 204 Townsend street, Roxbury, was arraigned in Suffolk Superior court on Thursday. He was suspended as collector clerk during February when shortages appeared, pending an investigation. He was arrested and held in $5,000 bail on the larceny charge and $500 on personal recognizance on the forgery. The alleged thefts are supposed to have been committed over a period of years. Although $10,000 was set as bond by Judge Vincent Brogna, Atty. William H. Lewis managed to have it reduced to $5,000.

Refuse to Prosecute Woman Slasher

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 21, (ANP)—Men can't talk about the women in the family of Mrs. Pearl West and get away with it. Oscar Singleton and Ray Lowe learned this much last week when, during a drinking bout on Central avenue, the conversation drifted to Roberta Brown, niece of Mrs. West. A fight ensued during which Mrs. West sustained a blackened eye and bruises about the face. She seized a butcher knife and slashed both the men. Radio police arrested the woman on assault charge, but when the injured men refused to prosecute, she was released.

to go ahead with these plans. While I do not believe you will reap a fortune from this investment—I do believe the transaction will prove a very profitable one for you.

D. K.—Why is my father acting so queer lately? Ans.—He has lost his job with the Company he's worked for so long—and hasn't the courage to tell your mother. Luckily, he is working for another Company in the same business a few days a week now.

E. M. L.—Dear Abbe, if I do what he wants me to do will we get along much better? Ans.—Only for a little while—then he will begin to mistreat you. If he wants you as bad as all that—tell him to call in a PREACHER. Your sweetheart is just the kind of a fellow who loves them and leaves them.

J. M. W.—Will I get the money that I am trying to get? Ans.—Not the way you are trying to get it. Astrology teaches us that people born on your Birthdate are undergoing a very unfavorable influence at present. A change for the better will materialize after the first of November.

H. F. G.—Will I be successful in Dancing or being a Doctor? Ans.—You are better suited to the Medical Profession than you are to the Dancing Profession. Judging from your Birthdate alone—I suggest that you become a Dentist. My Crystal reveals you engaged in this form of work in later life.

H. L. S.—Why is it that I don't have no luck with none of the girls I meet? Ans.—You expect too much. A girl isn't going to "EAT YOU UP" just because you show her a good time once in awhile. The trouble with you is that you drop them like a hot potato if they don't see things your way after the first or second date. YOU MUST HAVE PATIENCE MY BOY.

MONROVIA, CALIFORNIA

By O. W. Cooper Many are sorry to see Rev. Reed leave the pulpit of the 2nd Baptist church and very glad to see him and his family remain as neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Hamilton will soon be living at 510 Maple, which will be an added pleasure for Monrovia.

Mr. J. J. Jenkins, Mr. T. Goodwin, Mr. R. L. Yancey, Mr. E. J. Lane and Mr. G. Abernathy's appeared in the local paper last week.

There are two very important camp meetings going on here and in Duarte. You will enjoy them very much as there are very wonderful speakers at both places.

Mr. Deolm is doing nicely in the same place in his same near perfect way.

Mother Polk of Duarte is getting along as nicely as many that are much younger.

Mother Isaac and Mother Wright are just O. K. We are so glad to see them so well.

We cannot forget Mother Bonner and how glad we are that she keeps so well.

The New Era Baptist Association of Nebraska will meet in its First Quarterly Executive Board meeting program on August 27th and 28th. At the Pilgrim Baptist church, 25th and Hamilton. Rev. J. F. Thomas, Pastor.

Rev. F. S. Goodlett, Moderator. Rev. J. A. Harris, Cor. Sec'y.

Rev. R. W. Johnson, pastor.

Mrs. G. Peoples, reporter.

Sunday School opened at 1:30 by the superintendent. A nice attendance was present and a wonderful lesson was enjoyed by those present. The morning service was conducted by the pastor. Apostles, 13th chapter, 19th verse. Sunday night Exodus, 16th chapter, 12th verse. Text, "Stop your mourning." Everyone enjoyed the service. Visitors always welcome.

Salem Baptist Church

22nd and Seward Sunday marked a festival day for good old Salem. For surpassing all services of the day, was the Sunday evening B. Y. P. U. open air service held at Elmwood park. The president Mr. William Cooper was in charge of the meeting. I am certain from his first experience that such a meeting will be held annually hereafter. Approximately forty persons attended, and after the regular lesson period a very short program rendered in the form of a beautiful selection by the entire members present accompanied by an organ. There were three visitors present and quite a number of on-lookers. The general attitude of the B. Y. P. U. workers present was wonderful. The whole program was splendidly carried out, even to the serving of ice cream directly after services. The small children were given a ball and succeeded in amusing themselves to the utmost.

Each and ever officer of the B. Y. P. U. adjourned by saying "If such a service has helped you, tell others and it will help you still more."

Modern Flagellants

By R. A. Adams For the Literary Service Bureau

The 13th century gave to the world a set of religious bigots known as "flagellants". They were a set of fanatics or extremists who were characterized by austere mien; they publicly scourged themselves, hence the name. This was done as evidence of self-denial and for spiritual growth and development. This fanaticism ran its course and the votaries became extinct. But the spirit is still alive.

We have modern flagellants, but under different names; and they are as blatant, as unreasonable and intolerant as their foolish predecessors of the 13th century. Consider the means of enlightenment now afforded, the fanatics of today are less excusable than those of the 13th century.

Because of inconsistencies in their lives many believe these modern flagellants to be hypocrites. They go to almost any limit to win converts to their cults, but, as a general thing, both individually and collectively they fail to practice what they preach. So, whether hypocrites or misguided fanatics, they do harm to the cause of Christianity. They are a discredit to the cause! and despite their zeal and their blatancy, they make but little helpful contribution to human progress. The prediction is that these modern flagellants will become extinct as did their predecessors of the 13th century.

I Have Not Lived In Vain

By R. A. Adams For the Literary Service Bureau

I have not done just what I should, Perhaps not all I really could, But, whate'er ma ythe Fates ordain,

I know I have not lived in vain. In service to my fellowman, I've fallen short of cherished plan,

But I've been blossoming more than bane, And know I have not lived in vain. With shame unmeasured, I confess, I've not been clear of selfishness, Yet, though the thought engenders pain,

I'm sure I have not lived in vain. This is my consolation, then; Though never knowing where, nor when

The end may come, I still maintain I have not lived my life in vain.

SHARPS AND FLATS

AMONG THE MUSICIANS

Melvin Small has returned after havin spent a wonderful vacation with his relatives and friends.

Jimmie Johnson stopped a few days in his little ole home town enroute to join Nble Sissle in New York. For the past two years Jimmie has been playing with a St. Louis Band on an excursion boat from St. Louis to New Orleans. What a break for him and he is quite deserving. It seems that our trombone players are the favorite ones to make the grade with the 'big sho' bands.

Remember 'Long Boy' Green from Omaha who was such a sensation in New York some few years back. Then Elmer Crumbley left the ole home town to join Jimmie Lunceford and now Jimmie Johnson joins Noble Sissle. We really do have some musicians to be proud of.

Did you know that Frank Perkins fired Bernice Bassett his entertainer, he did and she left for her home town that same evening. Too bad she couldn't have been more like Anna Mae Windburn. Miss Windburn is quite versatile. She not only proved herself to be a clever entertainer, but a very charmin ghostess, when she entertained her friends on her birthday at Jessie's Tavern.

Our good friend Fletcher came around to the center the other day to do a little rehearsing. Although his studies occupy most of his time, he's still a musician at heart.

Wonder where the Cats will do their riffin now since they can no longer riff at Jessie's. We sure miss the peppy little band that used to swing out over there.

Cramer Confirmer as Virgin Islands Gov.

Washington, Aug. 21, (ANP)—Lawrence W. Cramer, lieutenant-governor, was confirmed as last week to succeed Paul D. Pearson without a roll call.

Some senators wanted to object, but did not try to block confirmation.

Senator Millard Tydings, Maryland, whose subcommittee investigations of Virgin Islands conditions, resulted in the ousting of Pearson, stated that three-fourths of the members of the committee had wished for a return of naval control until the Island's organic law could be re-organized.

President Roosevelt is said to have preferred a man who had some knowledge of the conditions in the Islands.

No appointment of a judge to succeed T. Webber Wilson has yet been made. It is reported that Atty. Homer Cummings is favorable to the appointment of a colored lawyer. Two men, both residents of Chicago, have been favorably mentioned.

Shoots Thief; Held for Murder

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 21, (ANP)—William Burton, 75-year-old gardner, living on the outskirts of the city, was held for murder in connection with the death of Henry Turner, whom he shot and killed in his truck garden Wednesday morning.

Following the shooting Burton surrendered to the local police and told them that he had killed a man in his garden. He declared that he had been missing corn and other vegetables from his garden for several weeks and Wednesday morning he went to his garden armed. He discovered Henry Turner picking his corn and when the thief tried to escape he shot him. The bullet struck Turner in the back of the head causing instant death.

Dr. Abram Harris
Rated One Of Nation's Best Economists

New York, Aug. 15—(ANP)—What it takes to win a coveted Guggenheim Fellowship is revealed in OPPORTUNITY this month in an ably written article captioned "The Guggenheim Fellowship" by Earl Brown.

The questions which the Fellowship Committee considers are: What Have You Done? What Do You Propose to Do? The same tests are applied to both colored and white applicants for fellowships and the executive secretary of the Guggenheim Foundation, Henry Allen Moe, declares that the record of Negroes who have received the awards compares favorably with that of the whites. Detailing the method by which a person's qualifications are judged, Mr. Brown says of Abram Harris, Grant Still and Langston Hughes who received fellowships in 1935:

"Some idea about the fairness and the negation of race and color in the selection of Guggenheim candidates may be obtained thru an explanation of Dr. Abram Harris' appointment. The committee on the selection of candidates forwarded the books and treatises written by Dr. Harris to the leading economists in Europe and the United States. In no instance was Dr. Harris referred to as a Negro. After most detailed and critical studies of his works, the world's fust renowned economists agreed that Professor Abram Harris was one of the foremost young economists in the United States.

"I n the cases of Messrs. William Grantstill and Langston Hughes, as well as in all other instances where Negroes have been awarded fellowships by the Foundation, their work, and their possibilities have been the only criteria for selection. Because of the renown in the arts and sciences of some of the colored candidates the Foundation's Committee on Selection knew beforehand that they were Negroes, but this fact neither helped nor hindered the aspirants. In all cases, the few Negroes who have won the Guggenheim awards have been judged on identically the same basis as their comparatively few white colleagues."

Receives Master's Degree at Nineteen

Langston, Okla., Aug. 21, (ANP)—Joffre Carranza McLaurin, 19 years old, has just received his master's degree in business administration from the University of Kansas at Lawrence.

McLaurin is the son of Prof. and Mrs. D. W. McLaurin of this town. Mr. McLaurin, the father, formerly taught at Langston university.

Young McLaurin finished grammar school at the age of eight; high school at 12, received his bachelor degree from Langston at 16, earned a bachelor of science degree in successive years at Langston and Southwestern college and finally went to the University of Kansas.

He will enter the University of Chicago or Harvard to work for his doctorate.

McLaurin has a 16-year-old sister who is a senior at Southwestern college and a brother, 17, who is a junior in the same institution.

750 New Hospital Beds For Veterans

Washington, Aug. 21, (ANP)—Out of a total of $8,000 additional hospital and domiciliary accommodations to be provided for United States veterans, under the terms of the deficiency appropriation bill, 744 beds are set aside for Negro veterans.

Of this number, 350 are at the Veterans hospital at Tuskegee, 230 at Columbia, South Carolina and 164 at Roanoke, Va. The total cost of the increased facilities for white and colored veterans will be covered by an appropriation of $20,000,000.

ALTA VESTA
A GIRL'S PROBLEMS

By Videtta Ish (For the Literary Service Bureau)

Alta Vesta to Her Father—No. 16

Dear Father: Thanks for the money to buy my new things for Easter. Aunt Cornea says it is all that I need now. I am anxious to have the explanation of the Easter spirit. This is something big and high for me, but I know it must be important as you always know what is right and good.

I've been thinking of what you say about other people. It seems a little funny that we must do without things to help other people, but I guess that is something important too. O yes, I forgot to tell you that one of those little bad girls had a birthday and I sent her a birthday card and some candy. Was that wrong? I hope not. I did not know it in time to ask you, so if it was not right, forgive me this time. Don't forget that I want to know about the Easter spirit. Love a plenty from me.

Alta Vesta.

WOODSON CENTER NEWS
Vacation School

Woodson Center held its Ninth Annual Vacation School, July 8 to August 2. 75 children, fourteen years old and under, attended the classes which met from 9 a. m. till noon five days a week. There were 23 different classes in the school.

Three of the Recreation Workers assisted with the classes of the school: Mr. H. McCaw, Miss E. Franklin and Miss C. Mullen. We are grateful to our four volunteers of the neighborhood Mrs. E. Foxall, Mrs. A. Morrow and Miss S. Murdock, who had charge of the Sewing classes; and Mrs. R. Brown, who had charge of Jr. Boy's Art Craft, and members of our regular staff also assisted with the school.

Much variety was shown in the handwork this year, including that of lamp shade decorating, china painting and original poster making; emphasis being placed on quality rather than quantity of work.

The school's attendance was much smaller than in former years and the children on the whole much younger which fact afforded opportunity for more careful supervision, neatness of work, and variety of program.

Thirty-five children of the school, 13 and under, took part in the Operetta "Boy Blue" which was staged in the Settlement's Auditorium as a climax to the four week's work of the school. The children displayed talent in their singing, speaking and dancing parts.

A large number of parents and patrons of the Center turned out for the Operetta, and the exhibit of handiwork which was held at the Center at 4 p. m. that afternoon and also following the Operetta.

Another feature of this year's Vacation school was the "Special Days" in various city parks each Friday. These park days were planned in an effort to give our children the opportunity of supervised play at least once a week; on playgrounds with equipment. There are no such grounds available in our neighborhood.

Children who could afford the carfare paid part of the transportation costs. A special gift of $5.00 from Mrs. Richardson, provided an extra treat of ice cream for the children at the school picnic and for the party honoring those taking part in the Operetta.

The Operetta was directed by Rev. J. S. Williams, and Miss A. Foxall, pianist.

Volunteers in the Vacation School were: Mrs. E. Foxall, Mrs. A. Morrow, Mrs. R. Brown, and Miss S. Murdock.

Chas. Moore Clicks At Two Studios

Hollywood, Calif., Aug. 21—(ANP)—Nearly twenty years before motion picture cameras in Hollywood have taught Charles Moore many lessons, landed in many bits in films.

Moore recently completed fine roles in "King Solomon of Broadway" for Universal studios and "O'Shaghaunssy's Boy", starring Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper for Metro Goldwyn studios.

WEEKLY SHORT SERMON

By Dr. A. G. Bearer Jehosaphat—Divine Judgment For the Literary Service Bureau

Text: I will gather all nations and will bring them down into the valle yof Jehosaphat.—Joel 3.2.

The location of the valley of Jehosaphat is uncertain, but it means judgment. In this case it is divine judgment for it is Jehovah who declares He will call the nations there, to judge them. So, Jehovah will judge all nations.

1. National Attitudes. Jehovah was to judge the people, the nations of the earth in regard to their attitude toward the people of Israel.—So God will judge the nations in reference to their attitudes. The drink problem, degradation of womanhood, great moral issues and racial relations are included and involved.

2. National Behaviors. Among the nations which dominates right, Hitler and Mussolini are illustrations of tyrannical dominance. These nations even undertake to make the church of God subservient to the unrighteous state regime. They may "get by", for a while, but God will call them into judgment.

3. The Personal Aspect. Nations are made up of individuals. So there is individual responsibility as well as collective responsibility. Before arriving at the "judgment seat" Divine Judgment deals with every individual through his conscience. Yes, every nation and every individual will be called into the valley of Jehosaphat—it is inevitable and inescapable.
