

W. R. C.—I am somewhat puzzled as to how my girl friend acts, and I would like for you to give me some light on the subject.

Ans: Your girl friend does not trust you—Everytime you take her out to a movie or any place she feels that she needs a chaperon. You can have a lot more fun if you'll get a girl friend that doesn't have to TAKE HER LITTLE SISTER WITH HER everywhere she goes.

C. L. R.—I would like for you to tell me what to do, and whether or not I will get what was left me?

Ans:—Yes, you'll get the property that was left you but you'll have to go through a LAW SUIT in order to secure it. I advise you not to tell your friend about what has happened—If she had been much of a friend to you she would never have told you to "L".

D. R.—I have been very much in love with a man and want to know if I will ever be with him again?

Ans:—You haven't seen this man for a long time and he has almost put you out of his mind completely—His interest is centered around HIS WIFE and he is no longer in love with you. Forget him—You'll never be together as you desire.

R. M.—I am writing to you regarding my work, and I would like for you to give me some information about it. Should I keep what I have?

Ans:—By all means, KEEP YOUR JOB—Your chances are very slim for getting the work you had last year. It is my opinion that you would be very dissatisfied if you made that change.

G. O.—Do you see any success for me in the future?

Ans:—Not as a BOXER, for even though you are interested in this sport, you will profit very little financially from it—However, you'll do well with the job in the place you have in mind.

M. L. P.—Will I get hold of a sufficient sum of money within the next two or three weeks?

Ans:—Not without MAKING A LOAN—I advise you not to take the trip home to see your folks until you can save enough money for your expenses there and back. It will be more difficult than you realize to PAY BACK A LOAN.

L. D. R.—I have in mind to make a change and I am wondering if I am too old or not?

Ans: THIRTY-FIVE years of age is not a bit too old to break up house-keeping and move to another city—You'll thoroughly enjoy living in WASHINGTON, D. C.

L. A. D.—Do you think what I have on my mind will do me any good?

Ans:—A trip will be most enjoyable for you, but it will be of very little help toward curing your sickness—a good medical Doctor will help you more than a change of climate.

B. T.—Please tell me if my husband still loves me or not and if we will ever go back together again or not?

Ans:—Your husband loves you very much but he has never had much use for his in-laws. I am happy to predict that you and your husband will make a start all over again shortly after the fall months—I advise you to get a place of your own AFTER THIS RECONCILIATION.

C. T.—Will my friend ever come back? I am sorry now for the way I treated her.

Ans:—You certainly gave your girl friend the shock of her life—After living with you for three years, she had no idea you would deceive her so. She appears to have moved to another city and has no desire to come back—it will be hard for her to forgive you for DELIBERATELY TAKING HER SWEETHEART AWAY FROM HER.

N. T.—I was offered a position and would like to know if I should accept it? It doesn't seem to be exactly right?

Ans:—You are exactly right about this position for it was not offered to you in GOOD FAITH—I advise you to stay from those two men for they aren't up to any good at all.

S. Caolina Pastor Tells Roosevelt About Conditions

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 12, (ANP)—Conditions have improved but there is yet need for more work, the Rev. Alphonso S. Powe, pastor of the Ladsen Presbyterian church, told President Franklin D. Roosevelt in reply to the President's letter to the clergy of the country. The letter was as follows:

"It is indisputable that conditions have greatly improved in this vicinity during your administration. Yet there is much more that needs to be done and I am confident that you will exert every effort to do in the next four years which it seems you are destined to serve.

"At present in this community there is much delay in getting projects approved under the works program.

"Authority in putting people to work is greatly divided. The unemployed are sent from place to place seeking work. There are few projects on which unskilled workers are employed.

"Individuals who are given work are given little or no security in their positions. There is great suffering among people who live in lower economic levels who are not eligible for the relief rolls. Wages as paid by local industries are not sufficient for clothes and food and shelter. Thousands of school children are without school books. No provision is being made for them. Domestic servants and tenant farmers still belong to the forgotten man's strata. This group in many instances is being greatly exploited.

"These conditions may never be ameliorated, but I believe profoundly that a closely supervised bureau system designed to carry out the social security program and to administer relief operated directly from the White House would speed up social stability in small communities and the nation as a whole.

Lobby Against Jim Crow At Labor Convention

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 12, (ANP)—With the establishment of local headquarters at the Arctic Avenue Y. M. C. A., the National Urban League began its organized lobbying against jim crow union practices at the national convention of the American Federation of Labor this week. The effort is to get teeth put into federation resolutions regarding discriminatory practices by unions against Negroes.

Heading the league's headquarters is Lester B. Granger, secretary of the worker's bureau. Executive secretaries of several eastern branches of the organization are present, including James H. Hubert of New York City; Robert J. Elzy, of Brooklyn; Harold A. Lett, of Newark; Edward S. Lewis, of Baltimore, and Donald Wyatt, Philadelphia. These men are personally contacting officers of international and national unions in an attempt to get their support on the matter.

Scottsboro Decision Echoes In Mississippi

Clarkdale, Miss., Oct. 12, (ANP)—Counsel for the defense filed a motion here Tuesday to quash the indictment of Ferde Pearson and Roosevelt Moon for the murder of a white man, on the grounds that there were no Negroes on the jury which brought in the indictment therefore they had been deprived of "due process of law."

Pearson and Moon are charged with the murder of a white merchant. At the first hearing they were indicted charged with first degree murder. Defense attorneys in the motion filed claim that the list of jurors submitted by the board of supervisors for consideration included no Negroes and that the list had been prepared with a distinct intention of omitting the names of Negroes.

Much interest is being manifested in the case, this being the first time that the decision of the Supreme Court in the Scottsboro case has been brought up in this county. The records reveal there are more than 100 qualified Negro electors in Coahoma.

Girl and Boy Hear Voice of Love—Parents Pride Objects—Love, Good Character, Good Job Good Enough—Take Each Other "For Better, For Worse"

Maxie Miller: I am in love with a girl of a good family. My family is as good as hers but we are poor and her father has a nice home and considerable money. I have good health and good character. But her folks want her to marry some big bug. She is willing to marry me and I have a good job and can take good care of her. I am 25 and the girl is 23. Now Miss Miller, will you tell us just what we ought to do? I think we will take your advice.—Dan Webster.

Dan Webster: You make a good case and I am on your side. You and the girl are old enough to know your own mind. If you have good character and a good job, and you love each other, there is no reason why you should not take each other "for better, for worse". If it is just a matter of pride, then the voice of love should be heard—and heeded. Take her Dan, and here's wishing you health, prosperity and abundant happiness.—Maxie Miller.

Spaulding Tells Harlemites To Get Together

New York City, Oct. 12, (ANP)—"Negro citizens in Harlem have a wonderful opportunity for developing their economic freedom, providing they table all of their differences, get their heads together and go to work" said C. C. Spaulding, president of the North Carolina Mutual Insurance Company, in a statement here last week.

Mr. Spaulding has spent several weeks here studying conditions and was giving his hearers the benefit of the "way an outsider sees things in Harlem." These views included "that too many are living the wrong kind of life; that there are too many pettinesses which tend to retard progress, and that too many permitted a color complex to cripple united action."

"We have got to cooperate with

CHICKENS MOST ECONOMIC

T. Carey, of Carey's Naborhood Grocery says that he is selling more chickens than he has ever sold in the history of his business. He gives two reasons: First, the price of meat has reached such a stupendously high level until it cannot be advantageously purchased by the economical housewife; she therefore has resorted to poultry which can be obtained for around 20c lb.; second the quality of Poultry this year is running better than any previous year.

Youth Sentenced For "Ethiopian Italian Racket"

New York City, Oct. 12—ANP—Lawrence Bridges and James Harvey, who were arrested in July for operating a shake-down game, were sentenced to indefinite terms in the City Reformatory here Wednesday by Judge Otto A. Rosalsky.

Using the—at that time—"impending conflict" between Italy and Ethiopia, the youths devised a shakedown game with Italian business men in Harlem as the victims. Armed with the facts in the trouble between Italy and Ethiopia, they would call upon an Italian merchant and tell him that if he did not pay them off they would incense Negroes against him to such an extent that he would be driven out of business.

Ice men were the chief victims and before they were arrested ten had paid off to keep from being driven out of business and his patronage turned over to a Negro competitor. Police testifying at the trial Wednesday said that in Bridges' room was found a note book with the proposed victims listed and facts as to their attitude toward Negroes and the Ethiopian situation.

While shaking down Nick Magistrate, the tenth ice man, they were placed under arrest and have been locked up since then. In the meantime, police were busy working on the case to unearth other victims as Magistrate indicated that he would not prosecute the offenders. All he wanted was to be let alone and permitted to sell ice in Harlem. James Rieco, however, was a bit different and when asked if he would prosecute the youths he readily agreed and declared further that in addition to threatening to drive him out of business the youths had stated that they were going to set fire to his house.

40 Hour Week May Get Jobs For 25,000 Postal Workers

Washington, Oct. 12—ANP—A total of 25,000 additional postal workers may be added to the U. S. Payrolls with the enactment of the 40 hour week on Oct. 1, a survey of the field shows.

Previously postal employees labored 44 hours weekly. The new schedule means a reduction of one eleventh from the old order. It has, in effect, taken away one out of every 11 employees previously working. With approximately 275,000 in the nation, the theoretical reduction is 25,000 which means that number would have to be hired to keep normal conditions. Whether or not the estimated 20,000 substitute workers will be given full time employment is not known.

However, colored stand to gain either way if more workers are added. They will also benefit by the cutting of hours giving all workers an extra four hours week for personal business.

Proverbs and Parables

By A. B. Mann
(For the Literary Service Bureau)

See and Don't See
Reduced to its final analysis this means attend to your own business and let other people's business alone. Again, it is an admonition to refrain from criticism of other people's faults or exposure of their weaknesses. Acting on this advice would obviate much of confusion and of hard feelings and would contribute to the amity of the world. But it should not be interpreted to encourage shutting one's eyes to things which are wrong and against which protest should be made.

The case has been watched with interest and declared to have been one of many rackets with the Ethiopian-Italian situation as the background.
