SHARPS AND FLATS

AMONG THE MUSICIANS

We had heard so much about the "mellow" new uniforms the Synco Hi-Hatters had tucked away, that we were really anxious to see them, and we must say we weren't a bit disappointed when they finally brought them forth. Very nice boys; up-to-date, too. Appearance is half the battle, don't you think so?

Speaking uniformly, Walter and his band, wore some very classy uniforms when they played here Monday night. They have a nice smooth band, not many feature men, but every section was really together. In addition to having a nice band, Walter Barnes also has other entertainment, a quartette and three dancers, two of whom staged a slow motion dance which was the cleverest bit of any entertainment brought here by a band recently. Of course we are not overlooking Walter Barnes himself, with his pep and personality.

If any of the Cats would like to test their ability as a musician, just come around to the Center and try to play "Masaniello," with the boys some afternoon.

CHATTERBOX

Geet but it's great to go riding around in the rain,—isn't it J. C. Frank, and Zeph?—Preshia's bridesmaids seemed to enjoy kissing the groom,—the inmates of the two beer parlors, between Lake and Erskine, seem to be sorta kinda submerging into a partnership,—Gertie's got a new boy friend, its name is Tom Collins,—Say boys, that Hester Brown is a honey, but its no use, they tell me she's engaged,—Cry baby! Cry baby! Wipe your weeping eyes baby!

What's the matter L. I., was your love dragging at C. J.'s party?—Say James Hall, you can't take E. B.'s girl to the Tech-Central game Saturday, he may not like it,—Well Trill, ol girl, ol girl, now that he's back, what do you intend to do about it,—wait for a miracle to happen,—sure great to see Connie up and out again, but Connie, did you ever get those flowers,—you know, poison ivy,—that a beautiful ring Dorothy, you almost fooled us,—and he came back from Chi married, that's too bad V. R.,—Say, G. R. why don't you give J. C. H. a break? You know he's crazy about you—Ernie Campbell was out to the dance for the first time in scores and blows.

COUNCIL BLUFFS IOWA NEWS

The junior branch of the Missionary Society of Bethel A. M. E. church, enjoyed a wiener roast Saturday in Cochran park.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cage, together with the Misses Geraldine and Wilma Herndon, attended a banquet on Sunday afternoon, given in honor of Miss Annie Oliver by the Sunday School of the Freestone Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hawkins, Jr., are the proud parents of a baby girl.

Inclement weather failed to keep many of the Twentieth Century Club members and friends from attending the tea given by them at the home of Mrs. E. Wilson on Sunday afternoon.

The new pool hall, recently opened on Broadway, seems to be drawing the boys. It not only affords a place for the pool sharks to work off surplus energy, but a grand place to congregate.

Well, rally 'round, Uncle Toms! It will soon be election day. Step right up and let the new office seekers inject a fresh supply of promises into your heads. But, seriously, vote these fellows in, and when they fail to 'do their stuff' haul them out.

Mr. Arthur Grady has returned to his home from a local hospital where he was confined by illness. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Lester Blackburn is still in the city. He was called here to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Madison.

Mrs. Harris, Rev. and Mrs. Dan Thomas, Mr. Oliver and daughter, Annie, of Omaha, were visitors in the Matthew Johnson home on Sunday.

News from the fishermen is that the fish have become quite daring and are doing no little biting of late.

Mrs. Lulu Gilbert returned from Des Moines last week where she has been taking care of a sick niece.

Harlem Joins Boycott

has further crystallized sentiment in Harlem in favor of the locked out staff, according to the Guild unit.

Harlem Leaders Help Employees
Among the prominent Harlem leaders, who are supporting the demands of the employees are, Rev. Adam C. Powell, Jr., pastor of First page xx xxxxx Abyssinian Baptist Church; Rev. Shelton Hale Bishop, Rector of St. Philip's P. E. Church; Frank Crosswaith, of the Negro Labor Committee, James W. Ford of the Communist Party, Lester Granger of the New York Urban League; M. Mireky (white) of the Negro Labor Committee, and many others.

Heywood Brown, famous columnist and president of the American Newspaper Guild, has on several occasions marched in the picket line in front of the 'Amsterdam News' offices. He spoke Wednesday night at an open air meeting in Harlem at the corner of 134th and Seventh Avenue. In a broadcast over station WEVD, Brown explained the issues of the strike and called upon the entire labor movement of New York to support the fired employees.

Prominent in the picket lines have been T. Arnold Hill of the National Urban League, James Egert Allen of the NAACP, Zora Neale Hurston, well known writer and Angelo Herndon, brilliant unemployed leader, who was a second time condemned to death on the Georgia chain gang by the United States Supreme Court.

The editorial staff of the paper including, Thelma Berlack Booser, assistant editor, Obie McCollum, editor, and T. R. Poston, city editor were discharged last Wednesday "for talking too much about the Guild". Mrs. Booser had been on the staff for ten years; Poston, seven years; McCollum, five years.

Strikebreakers Used

Through browbeating and strikebreaking contracts, Mrs. Davis was able to organize around Romeo Daugherty, sports editor and recently promoted business manager, a scab staff. Edgar T. Rouzeau, Wesley Holder, and Marvin Eckford, all reporters, after promising to "stick with their fellow workers" are scabbing. Daugherty was promoted to business manager and Rouzeau was given a "salary raise" to prevent union organization and recognition in the shop.

The New York Newspaper Guild, of which the 'Amsterdam News' Guild unit is a member, is waging a vigorous campaign through leaflets, picketing, street meetings, resolutions, to reinstate the workers with union recognition, "increasing success" in the campaign has been reported, by T. R. Poton.

Joe Louis Supports Staff

This is the first time in the history of Negro journalism that newspaper writers have made a determined fight for union recognition and collective bargaining. Statements in support of the employees have been issued by Joe Louis, heavyweight sensation; Paul Robeson, internationally known actor and singer; and Mayor LaGuardia.
"The fight of the Amsterdam News editorial staff will continue until it is won," declared the strike committee last Saturday.

General Motors Announces New Finance Plan

New York, Oct. 21—A new kind of motor car financing plan which effects a lower cost to the purchaser and enables General Motors dealers to render the service in the simplest, most easily understood form, is being announced tomorrow by the General Motors Acceptance Corporation. The new plan will be known as the GMAC 6 Percent Plan.

"This new plan is not only the simplest and most effective of its kind," according to statements issued by the General Motors Acceptance Corporation, "but its lower cost feature will bring all units of the 1936 General Motors line within reach of new thousands of potential car owners, and should have a stimulating effect on the entire motor industry. To the best of our knowledge, the GMAC 6 Percent Plan represents by far the lowest cost national plan for the purchase of new cars in the United States today."

"In addition to this, the new car purchaser has for the first time in the history of automobile financing, a plan he can figure for himself. It completely eliminates those items known as 'carrying charges', 'service charges', etc.

"Actually the GMAC 6 Percent Plan is as simple as A, B, C. To figure out his monthly payments, a prospective new car buyer has only to take the unpaid balance due; add to this the amount of his insurance and multiply the result by 6 percent. The resultant figure is the entire cost of financing the unpaid balance and insurance for 12 months. For payment periods longer or shorter than 12 months the cost is one-half of one per cent per month. This flat percentage is not interest. It is simply a convenient multiplier by which the cost may be computed and anyone can use and understand. The Plan includes Fire, Theft and Accidental Damage Insurance written by General Exchange Insurance Corporation.

"This Plan we believe will do more to put the financing of new cars on a sound business basis than anything yet conceived, since the prospective purchaser can figure exactly what his obligation will be and his consequent ability to pay. The Corporation further points out and recommends that by making the largest down-payment possible and keeping the length of the payment period as short as possible, naturally the purchaser can effect additional economy.

"The GMAC 6 Percent Plan is of course being offered by dealers in Chevrolet cars and trucks, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Buick, LaSalle and Cadillac cars."

Names Negro As Superintendent Of Harlem Post Office

New York City, Oct. 26, (ANP)—A fight which had its inception some years ago when citizens in Harlem joined with Postal employees to have Rufus A. Atkins, appointed superintendent of College Station, which serves most of Harlem, culminated here this week with the appointment of Robert R. Lawrence to the position, with Frank V. Fisher and Blanch E. Woods named as assistant superintendents.

Years ago Mr. King was superintendent of the station and he was succeeded over the protest of citizens and employees, by John J. Riden, white. Since that time the objective was to have Atkins appointed to the position, citizens and employees expressed satisfaction at Lawrence's appointment, Atkins according to the announcement will be transferred to Station D, where he will serve as assistant cashier.

Did you know—that Broadway's Sophia Tucker's theme song, "Some of These Days," was written by a Negro lad?

On last Friday night, Rev. J. Reynolds was called as regular pastor of Beulah Baptist church.
