Suez Canal Zone Jumpy Over Italo-Ethiopian Tangle

Port Said, Egypt, Nov. 16. (ANP Special Correspondence)—Movements of Italian troops toward the Ethiopian area, and return of hospital ships from there, has left this entire section jumpy.

The hospital ship, California, arrived here recently from Eritrea with 680 aboard, the largest batch so far of invalids and wounded. Only Italian officers were allowed aboard. As the California came in, a troop ship outward bound, so crowded the soldiers almost hid the rigging, passed. Usually when ships bearing Italian soldiers pass they hail each other tempestuously. These boats exchanged no greetings whatever.

Panic Atmosphere. Because of the large numbers of soldiers passing through, strained practice almost caused a panic. This was intensified by the subsequent booming of guns seaward and subsided only when the ships returned at nightfall.

There are all sorts of impossible rumors which excite the Arab and Italian population. Canal police have a delicate task in preventing riots and maintaining peace among them. An important football final match between an Egyptian and an Italian team was advisedly postponed.

Adowa Road Not Good. Despite Italian claims of putting in modern transportation methods through all the territory now occupied, it has been learned here that the new road from Asmara is at times impassable. It is wide enough for only one car traffic, and if an auto breaks down and its immediate repair is impossible it is thrown over the sides. Both sides of the road are understood on reliable authority to be strewn with care jettisoned in this manner, and there has been a terrible waste of cargoes.

Military supplies in the Italian base of Eritrea are sufficient for three months. The only shortage is of gasoline for planes; and Italians are making attempts to remedy this situation.

Mitchell's Activities In Virgin Islands

St. Thomas, V. I., Nov. 16.—(By Adolph Gereau for ANP)—Congressman Arthur W. Mitchell, democrat of Illinois, the first Negro member of Congress to visit the Virgin Islands arrived here recently as the guest of Governor Lawrence Cramer. He lives at the Governor's palace and has established offices there.

In an interview with ANP the Congressman made it clear that he had already promised to supply the Journal and Guide of Norfolk exclusively with information relative to his activities here, but he said, "I must state in all frankness that this is a wonderful place, and more of my people should come here, they should become acquainted with this place, the people are so clean, hospitable and law-abiding, and living here is much cheaper than it is in the United States. When I return home I will tell my constituents that they ought to come here."

The Congressman is here primarily on a vacation but he will also do considerable work while here. He prides the fact that he is the first Member of Congress to come to the islands entirely at his own expense to get a first hand knowledge of what the United States is doing here. He said that he considered it his duty to visit the islands. "Ten years ago," said he, I was appointed a member of a committee, along with other prominent members of my Fraternity, to visit the islands for the purpose of reporting on conditions. Then the awful depression set in and we had to abandon our plans, but from that time I decided that some day I would come. Now, I am aware that considerable legislation for the islands will be proposed at the next session of Congress and when such legislation is presented in the House of Representatives I want to be in a position where I can say to my colleagues I have been to the Islands and I am familiar with their needs. In this way I can better advise as to what should be done for them."

South Africans Boycott Ships

Capetown, South Africa, Nov. 16.—Commercial and passenger shipping on Italian Boats has slumped considerably here as a result of the boycott in protest against Mussolini's invasion of Ethiopia.

The Italian liner Duilo left port this week with only 28 passengers and 200 tons of cargo. The Timavo, outbound with munitions destined for the Italian troops in Eritrea, had no passengers and a cargo of only 340 tons.

Prior to coming here Congressman Mitchell told friends in the U. S. A. that he would name the U. S. Judge for the Virgin Island. A white man, Albert Levitt, was appointed, however, and arrived here almost as soon as Mr. Mitchell.

Congressman Mitchell praised highly the attentions shown him by Governor Cramer. A member of the Staff has been placed at his disposal to take him around. The Congressman has made arrangements to spend most of his time fishing. He rented a small yacht and bought considerable fishing tackle. He also plans to confer with islanders so as to get a picture of just what they want the United States to do for them. He finds that things are going on very well here and the people seem happy.

Bail Tavern Keeper Who Shot Picket

Chicago, Nov. 16. (ANP.—) Charged with shooting Lorenze Marble, 22-year-old youth picketing the Michigan tavern, for refusal to hire union help, George Harris was set free on bond Monday after spending six days in jail. Police refused to book Harris immediately after the assault because they did not know how badly wounded the youth was.

J. Levitt Kelly, president of the local waiters' union, stated the Michigan tavern does not employ union help and when efforts to have Harris take on a union waitress and bartender failed, it was decided to picket the place. Marble was shot a few hours after picketing began. Harris told police he fired because he heard pickets were coming over to break up his business place. The lad was wounded in the right thigh.
