

Bud—I have studied so hard. Please tell me if I will pass the test I took?

Ans: I am happy to predict that the test you took in the GOVERNMENT SERVICE was a successful one—Your hard work and excellent grade will enable you to secure a RAILROAD POSTAL CLERK JOB. You'll secure this job during the next year.

H. B.—Which girl has the best chance with this boy?

Ans: The other girl which your boy friend has been going with is about FOUR YEARS YOUNGER than you are which makes her a little more attractive to him than you are—However, you have just as good a chance to win him as she has, for she is very JEALOUS, and that is something he doesn't like at all.

F. E. N.—Is my brother well? What is the trouble with him?

Ans: There is nothing physically wrong with your brother. He was very dissatisfied at CAMP, and left there to seek work. He felt that he would have a better chance to make a success elsewhere.

M. A. T.—Is it advisable for me to resume my former position?

Ans: Under the present circumstances, I would advise you to give it up. The offer which was put before you seems to be UNUSUALLY PROSPEROUS, and would be a wise change for you.

M. C.—Will I ever accomplish what I have in mind?

Ans: It will be a hard climb for you to get to the top in your profession without any aid—Therefore, you should hold on to this man that has been such a friend to you—He'll be the making of your SUCCESS.

M. A. C.—Should I continue keeping company with the friend I am going with?

Ans: Yes—However, I advise you to seek other company also. If you continue to stay with one person so much and not try to have other friends you can't expect to ever be very POPULAR.

A. V. Y.—Is it true that my husband doesn't love me as he once did? Is someone coming between us?

Ans: It certainly isn't true about your husband for he is still in love with you—However, since you have been ill, you have been rather neglectful and haven't taken as much interest in him and your home affairs as you should. You should IMPROVE IN YOUR WAYS a little more.

F. A. M.—Will my daughter be successful where she is?

Ans: It seems to me that your daughter will get along all right.

Pioneer Woman Dies In South Carolina

Columbia, S. C., Dec. 14, (ANP)—Stricken while attending the funeral of a former employee, Dr. Matilda Arabella Evans died here Sunday afternoon and funeral services were held from the St. Lukes Episcopal church and interment at the Palmetto cemetery Tuesday.

Dr. Evans was one of the first women to practice medicine in the state of South Carolina. Born in Aiken, she completed her early education in her home town and later went to Pennsylvania where she graduated from the school of medicine of the University of Pennsylvania, after which she returned to her native state.

She established the Lane hospital and Nurse Training school, here, which she headed until her death. Under her guidance the institution not only made rapid progress but as an outstanding feature of the program a clinic for children was started through which many children who because of lack of funds would have been denied medical treatment, was accorded both medical and surgical treatment.

Scores of both races gathered at the St. Lukes Episcopal church to pay tribute to her and followed the funeral procession to the cemetery. She was counted among South Carolina's leading citizens.

LINCOLN NEWS

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Lincoln Urban League two new members were elected to fill existing vacancies. Rev. O. J. Burckhardt, long time resident of Lincoln, one of Nebraska's outstanding citizens and chairman of the local Emergency advisory council of the Lincoln Urban League was elected to fill the place left vacant by Mrs. Mary Holmes who now resides in Washington, D. C. Clyde W. Malone was appointed in the place of Guy Wiley who has moved to Scottsbluff, Nebraska. Mr. Malone, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, school of Business administration, is a former executive of what was the largest Negro insurance enterprise, the National Benefit Insurance Company. He is a member of one of Lincoln's older families and an outstanding church worker. He was most recently connected with the Phyllis Wheatley Association in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The board took up and transacted many matters of business importance. The most important of which was the allocations of the 1936 budget funds as appropriated by the Community Chest. The date for the formal opening of the new community center was set for Friday, December 20th. The luncheon meeting was held Friday noon at the Grand hotel.

Rev. H. Spann, 516 N. 23rd St., received a message at 4 p. m. that his brother who lives in Alliance passed away this afternoon. Rev. Spann has the prayers and sympathy of his Lincoln friends.

Mr. John Irvin, one of Lincoln's enterprising citizens has been given a clerical position under the new set up. John is active in the work of the A. M. E. church.

Mr. James Dean after having had many operations and counted out so far as his friends were concerned for dead, has taken a renewed lease on life, and is again on his old job at the country club. Jimmie has won for himself the respect of the leading white citizens of Lincoln, because he has proven himself trustworthy.

Mr. Wyattte and Margarite Williams are two enterprising young people that their friends should be justly proud of because they are setting a precedence of frugality.

Rev. I. B. Smith has made a reputation for himself, and the race, as a main distributor at the capital. Rev. Smith has the combined respect of the many officials connected with the building.

Mr. Ray Holcomb, who is a collector of one of the leading banks of Lincoln, is an exceptional fine young man with a splendid wife. Ray is an example of what the proper home training is worth to a child.

Miss Charlotte Loving is making herself felt as a stenographer and typist, and is now connected with the Agriculture college in her work. She came from one of our old African Methodist families, and since her parents' death has made her home with her sister Dorothy Lewis. The Lewis family are also splendid young people. Mr. Lewis is an employee of the city and has been for several years.

Rev. Burekhardt spent last Sunday in Omaha. He filled his old pulpit at Christ Temple, he also got to visit many of his friends and spent Saturday night in South Omaha with Mr. and Mrs. George C. Redd, he was also entertained for dinner at Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones, 2612 Burdette street.

Alabama A. M. E. Zions Hold Annual Conference

By Arthur W. Womack
Greenville, Ala., Dec. 14, (ANP)—Election on the first ballot of 10 delegates to the general conference next May and a report by Mrs. A. C. Alleyne of $60,000 raised in the past four years by women for home and foreign missions featured the South Alabama conference of the A. M. E. Zion church held in Butler Chapel here from November 12 to 17 with Bishop Comeron C. Alleyne presiding and the Rev. W. E. Carson as host.

Many delegates and visitors were present, including the Rev. Miss Almend Smith, recently returned African missionary, who lectured on the work being done there. Reports from the various charges showed a marked increase over those of last year and a 300 per cent upswing during the past four years.
