J. C.—Should I take my used to be boy friend back?
Ans: Your old boy friend hasn't learned his lesson yet, for the mean way he treated you, and no matter how much he begs you, you should hold out a little longer before taking him back—You shouldn't take as much as you do off the men, and you could hold a boy friend easier.

J. A.—Will I be able to enter college the second semester?
Ans: Yes—You'll be financially able to enter college at the time you have in mind—However, you'll be more satisfied if you wait until the FIRST TERM of the next school year.

R. M. S.—I am wondering if singing will mean anything to me in the future? What do you think about it?
Ans: You did unusually well singing "Blue Moon" and was congratulated on your voice enough to make anyone quite proud of themselves. It is my impression that in the future, singing will be the means of your livelihood, and you'll always be just as fond of it as you are now.

M. R. B.—I would like to know which of the two gentlemen really love me?
Ans: You have a very important decision to make and I advise you not to act too hastily. A. B. has promised to marry you for a long time, but he seems to be acting a little different about the matter lately—I believe your best bet to be J. B.

K. P.—Will you please tell me why my friend is so cross with me?
Ans: Your girl friend knows live in is the place for you, for it

Soviet Union Urges
Oil Embargo
Against Italy

(By Special Correspondent)
Geneva, Dec. 21.—The Soviet Union "called the bluff" of the European powers in the League of Nations last week.
Maxim Litvinoff, brilliant Soviet diplomat, informed the League of Nations last Monday, that the Soviet Union was ready to stop shipments of oil, coal, iron and steel to Italy if other nations would do likewise. This position was supported by Rumania, another member of the League.

WPA Musicians Win Demands

New York, Dec. 21, (CNA)—The major demands of the Musicians' Union for prevailing wages, no admission charges to WPA concerts, darkened halls, and no commercial broadcasting were agreed to by a worried administration when the threatened strike of 700 WPA musicians, Negro and white, promised to tie up all WPA music activities and indirectly involve 18,000 members of Local 802 of the American Federation of Musicians.
After January 15th, stated Chalmers Clifton, regional director for New York of the Federal Music Project, the government agrees to negotiate an agreement on a five-service per week basis, instead of the eight-service announcement which brought on the strike. Until January 15th, the union agrees to the six-service program. The $24 the men receive will, with five-service plan, approximate prevailing union wages.

Picketing Brings Owner To Terms

New York, Dec. 21.—A 100 per cent wage increase and the right for Negroes to work behind the bar at the Bella Restaurant, 329 Lenox Avenue, was won with the powerful backing of the Harlem International Labor Defense and other organizations.
Mr. Stewart, a restaurant employee, went out on strike, demanding his salary be raised from $10 to $20 a week. After seven hours on continuous picketing by members of the I. L. D. and Mr. Stewart, the proprietor capitulated.

Awards Made
In Rosenwald
Story Contest

Twelve Winners Announced in Classes of Agriculture, Industry, and Personal Service—Eight More to Come.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 21.—The Commission on Interracial Cooperation today announced 12 of the 20 awards in the Rosenwald contest for the best stories of the economic efforts of Negroes. The winners announced, four each in the classes of agriculture, industry, and personal service, are as follows:

- Agriculture: R. L. Philyaw, farmer, Evergreen, Ala.; Bilbo Willis, 4-H club boy, Wiggins, Miss.; B. L. Colbert, truck grower, Minden, La.; W. M. Ware, farmer, Queen City, Texas.
- Industry: B. W. Whiting, engineer, Raleigh, N. C.; Samson Wowing, Tangipahoa, La.; James A. Parsons, Jr., metallurgical engineer, Dayton, Ohio; J. C. Stubbs, sign painter, Detroit, Michigan.
- Personal Service: Joe S. McLane, hotel man, Jacksonville, Fla.; Miss Lula Rogers, domestic, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Miss Josephine Britt, maid, Wellington, Kansas; D. M. Marshall, student, Prairie View, Texas.

The four awards in each class range from $25 to $100 each. Checks are being mailed to the winners this week. The stories in the classes of business and the professions are still in the hands of the judges, but the eight awards in these classes are expected in a few days.
Many excellent stories were submitted in the several classes and the judges had great difficulty in choosing between them. What final disposition will be made of the stories has not yet been decided.
