BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. F. S. Goodlet, Moderator of the New Era Baptist State Association of Nebraska and who has served as supply Minister of the Bethel Baptist church for the past 22 months, offered his resignation at a regular church meeting, Monday, Dec. 2, 1935. His services terminate January 5, 1936.

Rev. Goodlett served the church creditably and he is loved by the entire membership. His resignation came as a shock to many of the members. Rev. Goodlett is prominently a religious man. Religious not in the sense of theology, but religious in that truer, nobler sense of guiding his life by the deep principles of truth, courtesy, temperance, hope, love. His Christian integrity, and influence, the molding factors in his personal life and character should be commended by the citizens of Omaha and the ministry. We regret his going and we want him to know that he shall always have our greatest respect and regards.

Brewery Doing Huge Business On New 'Winterbru' Beer

Omaha, Nebr.—That the public demands a different kind of beer for cold weather than in summer has been definitely established by the sales records of Storz Winterbru Beer, a product of the Storz Brewing Company, Omaha, Nebr.

The product was introduced in October to fill the need for 1 mil dasting beer yet one that had extra high strength.

According to chemists and executives of the Storz Company, Winterbru beer is higher in alcoholic content than most ales—yet it has none of the strong, bitter ale taste.

Because of his stronger content, Winterbru beer has a warming effect—similar to that of a fine old wine, it is declared.

The Storz Company, a strong believer in the power of newspaper advertising, is using this medium extensively to introduce its Winterbru beer.

PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH

Pilgrim seems to be on the upward march again. Sunday school was well attended, morning services also. We were blessed with a lovely solo by Sister Ed. Fletcher. Rev. G. E. Stevenson, pastor of Calvary Baptist church of Coffeerville, Kansas, brought us a great message. You who were not present missed a blessing. It seems as if the heavens opened and God poured his blessing out on us.

Don't forget prayer services Wednesday evening.
