MEET OTIS THOMAS

Chicago, Dec. 21.-I will always be a pleasure to talk with Otis Thomas, former Golden Gloves heavyweight champion, now following the trail blazed by Joe Louis, because one can feel a six foot, one inch 198-pounder in the physical light of a little noted Colgate University "Red brother, Otis Thomas, except when fighting, weighs around 210 pounds.

Quite naturally one is very I mean, a sensible person doesn't of the Iowa team. This is in dispolite in addressing Mr. Thomas. take undue liberties when talking to a young man built powerfully enough to go lion hunting with a broken arm and no gun even if the young man does resemble a college student. Furthermore, Mr. Thomas was showing us very impressive pictures printed in the St. Louis dailies of his five-round knockout victory over Irwin Striebel, 243-pound Italian leather slinger, on Dec. 4.

"I haven't lost any one of my four fights since turning professional last June," Mr. Thomas by Adolph Wiater."

This Wiater chap is something of a trouble maker. He was one of the few to stay the limit with Livingstone Has Joe Louis and the opponent Joe says has given him his hardest fight.
