E. C. P.—Will it be best for me to stay here or do you advise the change I am planning on?

Ans: You have a job where you are in Pennsylvania and you are not sure of a thing to do if you should decide to move to Virginia. Stay where you are as long as the job holds out and then it will be plenty of time to think of moving to another state.

H. B. B.—Please tell me if my husband will get well?

Ans: I am sorry but I do not believe that your husband will ever be entirely well from the STROKE that he had in October, however, it seems to me that he will soon be able to get up and walk around alone. You should never let him get the least bit excited.

Q. V. A. R.—Am I deceiving myself in believing what I do?

Ans: Not altogether—for the young man that you have on your mind does CARE FOR YOU. Don't take him seriously for he is not yet able to support a wife.

H. R.—Will I come into possession of the thing that has been on my mind so long?

Ans: I cannot contact you as ever handling your DEEDS to your property again, as they have been lost. You should try to arrange to get a duplicate and do it right away.

G. A.—What will be the outcome of what I am involved in?

Ans: Your case is not as SERIOUS as you believe it to be—however, you will be forced to pay for the mistake that you have made.

W. J. F.—Will I make the team this season?

Ans: It seems to me that you will be fortunate enough to play on the BASKETBALL TEAM this coming season—although you won't play in every game. This is just the beginning of a very successful future for you in the athletic field.

A. E. T.—Will my husband and myself get the kind of job we want for the winter?

Ans: I do not contact your

"Good Will Toward Men"

By R. A. Adams

The coming of Christmas suggests many things. The purpose, the aim, the motivating principle, we call the Christmas spirit. And the cardinal feature of the Christmas spirit is good will. This was the burden of the Savior's natal song sang over the heads of the shepherds on the Judean plains two thousand years ago.

Good will means wishing, wishing, desiring good for others. Included are life, necessities, health, peace and happiness. One may not be able to supply necessities for his neighbor. He may not be able to preserve his neighbor's health or to protect his life. He may not have the privilege of making large contributions to his neighbor's happiness. But no circumstances nor contingencies can prevent him from wishing his neighbor well.

Then, at this time, during this season, it would be well to banish malevolent feelings and sentiments, put hatreds, malice and animosities forever out of our minds and hearts, revive our interest in our fellows and firmly resolve to cultivate a better spirit and man manifest a better attitude toward our neighbors. Thus we can help to promote "Peace on earth and good will toward men." And it will be found profitable to practice the Christmas spirit through the entire year.

Nashville To Get Colored Nurses' Training School

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 21, (ANP)—In response to the insistence of its Negro constituency, the General Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists last week completed purchase of the former Riverside Sanitarium, three miles out of Nashville, overlooking the Cumberland river, and adjoining properties to the extent of 45 acres for the establishment of a sanitarium and nurses' training school for colored young people.

The new institution is scheduled to open in March, 1936, but the first board has already held a meeting and Dr. H. E. Ford, X-ray specialist of the Hinsdale Sanitarium, Hinsdale, Illinois, will take over active duties in connection with the project about the first of the year.

A substantial appropriation has been made to the new sanitarium and a forty-thousand dollar building program has just been authorized.

Dr. Ford will presently begin a nation-wide promotion tour to acquaint Negroes in all parts of the country with the objectives of the new institution and to call the attention of aspiring young people to the curriculum of which the training school is offering.

The sanitarium will bear the name of its predecessor, The Riverside Sanitarium, which for years was conducted independently by A. Drullard.

Dr. Ford is quoted as saying that the institution is ideal for its purpose, as a service of love, by Mrs. purposes.

A new vaporizer for treating some ailments by inhalation is attached to a flashlight and its contents heated by the light's bulb.

Dirigible balloons will be used to carry passengers on a new line linking Moscow with Sverdlovsk, 1,000 miles away in the Ural mountains.

Carrier pigeons that carry messages at night have been developed by United States army signal corps experts in New Jersey.
