HEALTH, BEAUTY AND CHARM

Keep Young and Beautiful—If You Want to Be Loved

Going to a party? Of course you are. Every one is, now that Christmas is so near upon us. So, of course, the arrangement of 'Milady's Coiffure' must be given the proper consideration.

Some points to be remembered. A short bob, perhaps swirled to one side with a slight impression of a shadow wave on the heavy side of the hair.

The hair must be lifted high off the neck and may be worn with or without the coronet braid.

The more unusual the parting the more chic the hair dress.

Curls! Curls! Curls! To right of us, curls to the left of us, masses of ringlet curls extending over the forehead.

Ornaments of brilliant r'ne stone, a real gardenia, a black velvet bow, a halo of maroon poppies. All of these hair styles and others will add to 'milady's' crowning glory. Christine Althouse Beauty Salon

MERRY CHRISTMAS

And best wishes for the New Year to my 1200 loyal Friends and Well Wishers who voluntarily signed petitions to Governor Cochran for my reappointment.

It was this expression of your confidence in me that enabled the Governor to make up his mind the appointment of one of your group to a position merited by your loyalty to him.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday School opened at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Irene Oliver, superintendent. All classes were represented with a large number. Morning services were spiritual and timely.

The rally, Dec. 22nd, which was sponsored by the assistant pastor, Rev. E. E. Wilhite, for the Pastor's Aid, was a decided success. Thirteen Ministers were present with their captains. Mrs. E. E. Wilhite and her minister, Rev. Thornton, received the five dollar prize. Mrs. Lillian Hawthorn is president.

The B. Y. P. U. opened with Mr. E. Collier on time. Several visitors were present. Miss Bessie Lee Taylor had charge of the program.

Rev. E. E. Wilhite, assistant pastor, preached at the evening service. Subject: "The Devil and Tom Walker." Another rally sponsored by the Rev. E. E. Wilhite for the "Pick Up Club" last Sunday afternoon "An Angel Rally." This was a wonderful rally financially. Mrs. Mamie McIntosh is president.

Mrs. George Mitchell, 2508 Parker street, entertained several guests at her home Christmas day in honor of her husband's birthday.

Many lovely and useful presents were received by Mr. Mitchell.

The Mitchells are planning to spend the New Year day with Mrs. Mitchell's brother in Des Moines, Iowa.

The musical tea given by the Sunday Night Musical Club was a unique affair. Approximately 350 people attended.

Mrs. Irene Morton was mistress of ceremony. Selections were rendered by the mixed chorus, and all ladies chorus, a duet by Mrs. Irene Morton and Mrs. Venus Starnes, a solo by William Davis.

The president of the club, Mrs. Delores Blackwell, was introduced by the mistress of ceremony, and she in turn introduced the other officers.

Rev. J. S. Williams is the director of this fine group of talented people, and Mr. Preston is assistant director.

The 'Y' building was beautifully decorated in the season's colors. The table was adorned with all the dainties and delicacies appropriate for an affair of this kind.

Mrs. J. L. Steele of Kansas City, Mo., is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. Carey, 2302 N. 27th street for the holidays. Mrs. Steele has been a friend of the family for years.

Among the many home-comers arriving for the holiday season were: Miss Albertine Jhonson, in Dallas, Texas. Miss Anderson is a student at Bishop college.

Miss Lela Johnson, of Lincoln, Nebraska, was the guest of Miss Nadyne Clark over Xmas. Miss Johnson is very prominent in church affairs of that city. She is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. J. R. Lillard, of Kansas City, and a student at the Nebraska University, spent the week end with Mr. John C. Williams, and Mr. Carlton Goodlett, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Goodlett, 2803 Binney.
