

"Wipe The Slate Clean"

Before the days of tablets, loose-leaf and composition books and fillers, we used slates for arithmetic, spelling, writing; and other subjects were taught by use of slates. In those days, when the slate was full and what had been written had accomplished its purpose, we "wiped the slate clean" and got it ready for other "examples" or whatever the work would be.

In that old custom there is a lesson for New Year's consideration. Thru the year others have trespassed against us, and we have trespassed against God. We are wont to rearspect and feel penitent for all of our transgressions. Confessing, we ask forgiveness that God might wipe His record clean of our sins and our transgressions.

Yes, it is true that others have trespassed against us. Perhaps great injuries have been done to us. Some were the result of hasty actions, unfounded conclusions, and some were deliberately done. No good can come from harboring resentment of these malevolent trespasses against us. The close of the old year, and the beginning of the new year, is a good time to consider these things, forgive our debtors, wipe the slate of memory clean, and Ray L. Williams, Attorney In the County court of Douglas County, Nebraska. In the matter of the estate of Norita Love Robinson, deceased. All persons interested in said matter are hereby notified that on the 12th day of December, 1935, Ray L. Williams filed a petition in said County Court, praying that his final administration account filed herein be settled and allowed, and that he be discharged from his trust as administrator and that a hearing will be had on said petition before said Court on the 11th day of January, 1936, and that if you fail to appear before said Court on the said 11th day of January, 1936, at 9 o'clock A. M., and contest said petition, the Court may grant the prayer of said petition, enter a decree of heirship, and make such other and further orders, allowances and decrees, as to this Court may seem proper, to the end that all matters pertaining to said estate may be finally settled and determined.

Bryce Crawford, County Judge 12-21, 28-35-1-4-36
