M. L. C. D.—I am only a child but still the young must think as well as the old now days. I am wondering if my father's pension will be started before this year is out?

Ans: I am afraid that your father's pension is farther off than you think—Although it is my belief that he will secure money in form of a pension but it will be some time before this goes into effect. In the meantime, I advise your father to keep after that job at the COAL YARD.

sakes don't move in with your HUSBAND'S PEOPLE. They will run you crazy. You ought to realize by this time that you cannot get along with your husband's kin folk so don't make the mistake of trying.

W. W.—Shall I yield to the temptation?

Ans: Don't be a fool—Marriage is all right for some people but you are entirely too young to tie your self down with a wife. Wait a few years—this girl who is so anxious to marry you is simply trying to catch her a husband.

S. W.—Does the second cook at the Jefferson hotel mean me any good and does the man that is sick intend to spend much money on me when he gets well?

A. D.—Will my father be able to buy a car next year?

Ans: It would not only be unwise but a very foolish move on your part. This admirer of yours doesn't really mean it when he says he will give you things your HUSBAND CAN'T. You can bet your boots that you will have to pay and pay plenty for any money that you get out of him.

Ans: Yes he will—but let me suggest to you that you get this idea out of your head about DRIVING YOUR MOTHER back to New Jersey to live. You are much better off right where you are and so is your mother.

M. D. S.—Would it be wise for me to leave my husband who won't support me?

R. W.—Mr. Abbe': When I reach the age of eighteen years of age, do you think I can accomplish the subject I have in mind? "Do you think I will ever reach the place where I have in mind to go when I get that age?"

Ans: It would not only be unwise but a very foolish move on your part. This admirer of yours doesn't really mean it when he says he will give you things your HUSBAND CAN'T. You can bet your boots that you will have to pay and pay plenty for any money that you get out of him.

Ans: When you reach the age of eighteen years of age you won't be singing IN NIGHT CLUBS, nor will you reach the place you have in mind to go at that age—HOLLYWOOD, CALIFORNIA. My advice to you young man, is to spend more time on your studies and less time worrying about the future.

I. R. P.—I owe bills here and there and I just get so depressed at times I hardly know what to do. I worry, grieve, and even have big cries at times because I am a person that always wants to pay my honest debts. Could you advise some way out of it?

Ans: Shedding tears won't help you. You and your husband must learn to work together. You both spend a great deal of money foolishly. The year of 1936 will be very good to you providing you both "slash your present spending habits."

G. H. H.—Has my sister, the one I think went to some root worker, been trying to keep me from having admirers?

Ans: You are all wrong Goldie—Your sister has done nothing of the sort. She is simply trying to scare you because she doesn't want you to get into trouble with any man.

E. H. L.—Do you think I should move?

P. M. H.—Has my father forgotten the attitude he took not so long ago?

Ans: If you do for heaven's

Ans: He hasn't forgotten it but he has REGRETTED the attitude he took towards your MOTHER. It is only human for your father to "fly off the handle" once in awhile—he really doesn't mean the things he says.

MAXIE MILLER WRITES

(For the Literary Service Bureau)
Girl 18 Has Two Fathers and Two Mothers—Can't Live With Either Parent—Step-Father "After Her and Step-Mother Jealous—Better Get Away to School with Hope of Good Husband—Parents Ought to Do Their Duty and Prevent Wreck.

(For advice, write to Maxie Miller, care of Literary Service Bureau, 516 Minnesota Ave., Kansas City, Kan. For personal reply, send self-addressed, stamped envelope.)

Maxie Miller: I am in trouble and don't know anywhere else to come for advice. I am 18. I have two fathers and two mothers and I can't live with either one. Parents are divorced and both are married again. I can't live with my mother because I'm good looking and my step-father is always after me. My step-mother is jealous of me and my father so I can't live there. I am with my aunt. She is constantly grumbling and saying I ought to stay with my parents. Now what can I do? Will you tell me?—Mamie Jones.

Mamie Jones: Certainly you are entitled to sympathy and you do need advice. My advice is that you try to finish your education. Talk the matter over with your parents and see if they won't help you. At school you will be away from your home problems. Then you'd have a chance to get a good husband of the best type. If this cannot be done, have a heart-to-heart talk with your father and see if he will not help make provision for you to live elsewhere, and help you to secure employment.—Maxie Miller.

Alcorn Students Uprising Brief

Alcorn, Miss., Jan. 4. (ANP)—The incipient uprising among the students of Alcorn College, Mississippi's state school here, last week, is over. The speedy suspension of 22 boy students by President Bell and his faculty and the promise of a fair hearing of the student grievances resulted in the return of the student body to classes and ordinary routine. Seven or eight boys were sent home. There are 350 students in Alcorn.

The chief demands of the students, it developed when the faculty heard the grievances, were abolition of uniforms for girls and better food. The letter is common to all boarding schools but promises were made to seek improvement and permission was given the girls to dispense with uniforms from Friday to Monday.

Chicagoans Honor Frederick Douglass

Robinson, as guest speaker paid homage to the late statesman at a testimonial held by the Historical Society of the Monumental Baptist church of which Rev. James L. Horace is pastor. The picture of Douglass was unveiled by Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of The Chicago Defender and was presented to the society by former Congressman Oscar De Priest.
