

LINCOLN NEWS

At 3:00 p. m., Sunday, Jan. 12th, the third annual series of forums, sponsored by the Lincoln Urban League began at the Community Center. The speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. LeRoy Davis. Her subject was, "The Merit System in the Government Service." Mrs. Davis is one of the most outstanding speakers of the state. There was a large crowd and all seemed to enjoy her most excellent talk. The Urban League has had many compliments paid it for the high type of characters that have been placed upon its rostrum.

The Workers Council met last Thursday evening with President Forrest Berry in the chair. The influence of this organization is beginning to be felt in this community. It is building up a fine spirit of co-operation in the community, especially among the young people. Rev. Burekhardt Chairman of the Contact Committee, made a report and followed it up with an encouraging talk regarding the need of such work. Mr. Burt Newton brought us a very rich talk on the subject of "What Is the Means of Stopping the Unemployed?" This discussion was rich in thought and logic. Burt is one of the coming young men of our city. Secretary Miller Woods is untiring in his efforts to put over a program that will mean much to the colored citizens of Lincoln.

Rev. Burekhardt will start a League Bible Forum, on Wednesday, the 15th, which will be interdenominational. Members of the various churches will be officers in the forum. The object of the Forum is to help the moral and spiritual life of its subjects.

The A. M. E. Church closed its rally, Sunday with success. Rev. Long is a live wire and keeps his members busy working for the interest of the church.

Rev. Nicks is making good in the University and is also putting over a good church program.

Brother Frank Christian is slowly improving in health.

Inspector Harry Leland and wife were callers in Lincoln Sunday.

THE UNSATISFACTORY PART

"Can you get my pendulum clock to work?" asked the simple-looking person in the jeweler's shop. "We will endeavor to," replied the jeweler. The customer unwrapped a small parcel. The jeweler gazed in wonderment at the contents. "But this is no use," he said. "In order to mend the clock, we must have the whole thing. You've only brought us the pendulum." "Well," replied the customer brightly, "it's only the pendulum as won't go."

ON THE UP AND UP

"So your engagement with Annette is up?" "Yes." "What became of the engagement ring?" "That's up, too."

Buying a Weather Vane Real Estate Agent (deciding to be frank)—This house has one or two drawbacks. To the north is the gas works, to the south a rubber factory, on the east a vinegar plant, and on the west a glue plant. Prospective Purchaser—Good heavens! What a neighborhood. Real Estate Agent—Quite so, but the price is low, and you can always tell which way the wind is blowing.

Exactly "On the day on which my wedding occurred—"

"You'll pardon the correction, but affairs such as marriages, receptions, dinners, and things of that sort 'take place.' It is only calamities which 'occur.' You see the distinction?"

"Yes, I see. As I was saying, the day on which my wedding occurred."

Restraint "I hope you don't think I'm conceited," he said, after he had finished telling her all about himself.

Official Requirements "We need more political leaders," said the excited citizen. "Yes," said Senator Sorghum, "and out where I come from we also need more night watchmen."

Quick Getaway "Oh, yes, my father was a great politician in his day."

ON RELIEF "Mrs. O'Tool, has your son a leaning toward any particular calling?"

"Sure, he'll be a poet, he hates work so."

Poor Bridegrooms "Don't they ever have showers for the bridegroom, pop?"

Who It Was Johnson—My wife has been nursing a grouch all the week. Jackson—Is that so? I hadn't seen you around, but I didn't know you were laid up.

Money Panic Mother—I hope my little boy has been as good as gold all day. Nurse—No. He went off the gold standard about bedtime.

Out With a Net "What are you doing," asked St. Similia. "Catchin' butterflies?"

Not Artistic Angry Guide—Why didn't you shoot that tiger? Timid Hunter—He didn't have the right kind of expression on his face for a rug.
