Elder J. W. Goodwin, pastor of Christ Temple has just returned from Chicago, where he reports having attended one of the most interesting and progressive conventions in the history of the church. There were also others who represented the Omaha church. Mrs. Annetta Hogan and her mother, Mrs. Redd, who live at 2007 Ohio St. were also in attendance. Elder Goodwin arranged, while at the convention, for Bishop Washington and party to come by way of Omaha on their return to the coast and spend Sunday with the church, that the Bishops many friends in Omaha may get to meet him and hear him preach.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Love who lives at 2613 Grant street, has just returned to the city after an extended trip to the Texas Centennial where they reported a great fair in progress. They returned by the way of Arkansas and Oklahoma, where they visited relatives and from here to Chicago where they were in attendance at the National Convention of the Church of Christ "Holiness." During their stay in Chicago they were the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Anderson, who recently moved from Omaha to make their home in Chicago. The Loves were accompanied on their trip by Mrs. Lucy Bell and her daughter, Francis, of 2604 Decatur street. The party reported an excellent trip without accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Love entertained Sunday with a luncheon at their summer home for the following guests: Bishop Wm. A. Washington and wife, Mrs. Albritton, Mrs. Leon Pope and daughter, Elder Caldwell, all of Los Angeles, Elder Trago McWilliams, Elder O. J. Burekhardt and wife of Lincoln. While this luncheon was given by the Loves, Mrs. Leon Pope seemed to have been chief cook, and Mrs. Lucy Bell, chief supervisor of the dining room affairs. While Mrs. Love was permitted occasionally to make a suggestion. We need not say all enjoyed the feast prepared for the occasion. It was a sumptuous one.

Hooks, Missionary Ganta Mission, Monrovia West Africa, Mr. and Mrs. E. Danner, Washington St.; Mr. Hugh Wesley Williams and Rev. and Mrs. William Farmer, 2507 L street. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. Each one expressed themselves very graciously to their charming hostess, Mrs. Emma Lee Cork.

The largest and most attended functions of the American Legion Auxiliary was the Paralee Banquet, honoring all past presidents of which Mrs. Mable Fields was an invited guest and he only representative of our group. She is a charter president of the Roosevelt Post Aux. This affair was given at the Fontenelle Hotel where a chosen three course menu was served. After dining, an enjoyable program was rendered, Mrs. Steinberg giving several beautiful vocal selections. The presidents were introduced and gave one minute remarks. We feel very elated as Mrs. Fields was given all the courtesy one could desire at such an affair. Mrs. Fields is very active with her own unit. She also organized the first Junior Auxiliary.

Miss Hattie L. Hooks, a missionary from Ganta Mission, Liberia, Africa, home on a furlough, was the house guest for a few days of Rev. and Mrs. William Farmer, 2501 L street, So. Omaha. Miss Hooks was here as a guest speaker on Missions for the Topeka District Conference which convened at Clair M. E. church. Mrs. Hooks attended the General Conference of the M. E. Church in Columbus, Ohio and was the house guest of Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Holloway, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Farmer.
