

POSTAL ALLIANCE PICNIC

Members and friends of the Omaha Branch enjoyed a most delightful picnic and outing at Elmwood park, Monday, Aug. 31st.

The ladies' auxiliary served the most complete and best prepared picnic dinner of all times, it was perfectly arranged, well balanced and well served by the lovely and gracious hostesses.

There were many out-of-town guests, some of them were:

Mrs. Alice Mason, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Hester Hardiman, of Topeka, Kas.; aunt and Mrs. A. Jackson of New Orleans, sister of Mrs. Earl Waldon.

All who attended agreed it was the most complete outing the branch has given in its history.
