Spaulding Cites Good Increase

Durham, N. C., Sept. 12—(C)—Dr. C. C. Spaulding, president of the N. C. Mutual Life Insurance Company, reports on the world's largest Negro business: "Your company closed the first half of its 38th year under very favorable circumstances. Increase in premium income, $49,450; increase in insurance force, $1,343,063; increase in investment income, $10,000; decrease in death claims, 3.5 per cent; decrease in sick claims, 1.2 per cent."

Jesse Owens, the Olympic sensation, announced this week through his manager, Marty Forkins, the appointment of W. B. Ziff Co. as his representatives in negotiating with national advertisers who seek his endorsement.

Owens' name ranks high in the business world as well as in the professional world because of his exemplary conduct throughout the Olympic games. The international publicity accorded him has resulted in making Owens one of the best athletes of all time. His clean living and his superb sportsmanship, even under trying conditions, have gained for him the respect as well as the admiration of the world.

Because of his high ideals, Jesse Owens has become a crack salesman. He will not endorse liquors or tobacco because he does not use them. He will restrict his endorsements only to products that he feels honestly merit his commendation. The public knows this and consequently Owens' name will make for confidence on the part of the buyer.

W. B. Zoff Co. is nationally known in the advertising and publishing world having placed most of the advertising that has appeared in Negro newspapers throughout the United States. The W. B. Zoff Co., has been for a great many years and is today, the national representatives of this newspaper.

Appeal Moore Case
Asheville, N. C., Sept. 12—(C)—The NAACP here is raising funds with which to appeal to the Supreme Court the case of Martin Moore, convicted of the murder of Helen Clevenger and sentenced to death.

Matchless
Mother of 1936

Mrs. James Richard Smith of Claremont, California, chosen as the Typical American Mother of 1936 by the Golden Rule Foundation.

The mother of four sons and two daughters all of whom she has sent to college.

Being of moderate means she did all her own sewing, cooking, saving and other household work.

Mrs. Smith believes in training children to make their own decisions from early days—that the average girl is happiest when married and rearing a family and that parents should guide rather than suppress or dictate.

Ford To Speak On National Hook-Up

For the first time in America's history a nation-wide radio hook-up will carry the voice of a Negro vice presidential candidate into the deep south when James W. Ford, Communist, steps before the microphone on September 21 at 10:45 p. m. (New York Daylight Saving Time.)

Ford, outstanding Negro leader will speak over the Red network of the National Broadcasting Company for 15 minutes on the problems facing the Negro people in the election campaign. Nine important southern cities from Richmond to Miami will carry his words to hundreds of thousands in the south. To many who hear him his address will mark the first presidential campaign in which they feel they have a real stake.

This will be the third of a series of eight coast-to-coast hook-ups arranged by the National Election Campaign Committee of the Communist Party. Mr. Ford's radio address will take place on the eve of a tour which will take him across the country to the Pacific coast.

The stations in the hook-up are: WOW, Omaha; WHO, Des Moines; and KOA, Denver.

R. A. S.—I like your column very much. Please tell me if I will be able to get the place that I have in mind?

Ans: It is very doubtful whether you can arrange to RENT the place but I do think that it could be BOUGHT. Get in touch with the party that owns this place and try to do business with him if possible.

M. E. J.—Do you think that I should send my oldest daughter back to college this fall?

Ans: Try it again this year.....if you do not feel that she is taking enough interest in her studies then make other plans for her next summer. She will get over this period that she is going through and it appears to be in the near future.

S. E. G.—Should I continue on with my husband or make a change right away? I only knew him a short time before I married him and didn't have a chance to find out his faults.

Ans: Your husband is a good man and there is but one fault that you can find with him.....that is DRINKING occasionally. Stay with him for he is trying his best to overcome this weakness and if you leave he will indulge stronger than ever. None are perfect.

M. S. W.—I am very discouraged and I want to know if things in general will change for me any time soon? I enjoy your column.

Ans: Yes.....there will be several changes. Your SON will find work within the next seven or eight weeks and it seems to me that you will go to work yourself. I do not think that you will return on the same job so scout around and look for work.

R. T.—I met a man and he has taken quite an interest in my baby. He takes the baby around places with him and seems to be crazy with him and seems to be crazy mean anything in my life?

Ans: He is fond of your baby but he cares even more for you. I predict a very happy summer for you and I don't think that you will
