EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION

Now therefore I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States by virtue of the power vested in me as Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, in a time of actual armed rebellion against the authority of the Government of the U. S. as a fit and necessary war measure for suppressing said rebellion, do, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and in accordance with my purpose to do it, publicly proclaim for the full period of one hundred days from the date of the first above mentioned order, designate as the States therein the people whereof, respectively, are this day in rebellion against the United States, the following to wit: Arkansas, Texas and Louisiana (except the parishes of St. Bernard, Plaquemines, Jefferson, St. John, St. Charles, St. James, Ascension, Assumption, Terrebonne, La Fourche, St. Mary, St. Martin and Orleans including the city of New Orleans), Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia (except the forty-eight counties designated as West Virginia, and also the counties of Berkeley, Accomac, Northampton, Elizabeth City, York, Princess Ann, and Norfolk, including the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth), which excepted parts are for the present left as if this proclamation were not issued: and by the virtue of the power and for the purpose aforesaid, I do order and declare that all persons held as slaves, within the designated States, or parts of these states, are, and henceforward shall be free, and that the Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of the said persons; and I hereby enjoin upon the people so declared free to abstain from all violence, unless in necessary self-defense; and I recommend to them that, in all cases when allowed, they labor faithfully for reasonable wages. And I further declare and make known such persons, of suitable condition, will be received into the armed service of the United States, to garrison forts, positions, stations, and other places, and to man vessels of all sorts in said service.

And upon this act, sincerely believe to be an act of justice, warranted by the Constitution upon military necessity, I invoke the considerate judgment of mankind, and the gracious of Almighty God.

Dr. C. B. Powell Gives $200, Opening Colored Fund For Roosevelt

Negroes open headquarters for Democratic national campaign contributions. Dr. C. B. Powell says if you appreciate what the Roosevelt administration has done for the Negro race and believe President Roosevelt will continue to consider the Negro in the future as he has in the past, send in your campaign contribution.

Marking a new departure in the history of the Negro in American politics, Dr. C. B. Powell has contributed $200, opening the Colored Roosevelt fund, which he is initiating to help re-elect President Roosevelt.

with the President at the White House. His administration will be more liberal with the colored man as it grows in age."

In explaining the Colored Roosevelt Fund for Re-election, Dr. Powell said he wanted it distinctly understood that all money voluntarily contributed will go to the Democratic National Committee in the amounts contributed. Not one penny will be deducted for expenses of any kind.

Dr. Powell is amply able to take the independent stand he has taken in working as publicity director for the Democratic National Committee among Negroes without pay. He is chairman of the finance committee of Victory Mutual Life Insurance company, and president of the Community Personal Finance Corporation, which is capitalized at $100,000.

Applaud President's Address to Race

New York, Sept. 27—(CSF)—The most gigantic, colorful, enthusiastic and responsive audience of colored people ever to gather in historic Madison Square Garden, New York's largest coliseum which was packed to the rafters with 17,000 citizens and voters—cheered the message of President Roosevelt to the American Negro, which came directly from the White House, as it was read by Bishop R. R. Wright, jr. Monday night in impressive tones and with resounding eloquence, which moved the audience by his manner of rendering the important document.

Resounding cheers greeted Bishop Reverdy C. Ransom, who delivered the main address for the NBC, and also Bishop Wright's Second Emancipation Proclamation.

The vast crowd at Madison Square Garden was the answer to those who said the Negro would never respond to a great Roosevelt meeting in the largest auditorium in New York. Party lines were broken; denominational lines were broken; everybody came from the leaders in religion, politics, the business and educational world, to the plain rank and file from Seventh and Lenox avenues. DIES SUDDENLY WHILE AT LUNCH WITH HUSBAND

Mrs. Anna Wilkes, wife of Lonnie Wilkes, died Wednesday morning; Sept. 23, at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes were eating lunch at 11:30 a. m., Wednesday, when something outside attracted Mr. Wilkes' attention. While looking out of the window he suddenly became aware of a clattering sound inside. Directing his attention to the table, he saw his wife reeling backward.

It is thought Mrs. Wilkes died from a heart attack. From many years she had suffered from the effects of a weak heart.

Mrs. Wilkes leaves to mourn her loss, aside from her husband; one daughter, Madeline age 8 and a son, Harold Wilkes of Chicago; other relatives and a host of friends.

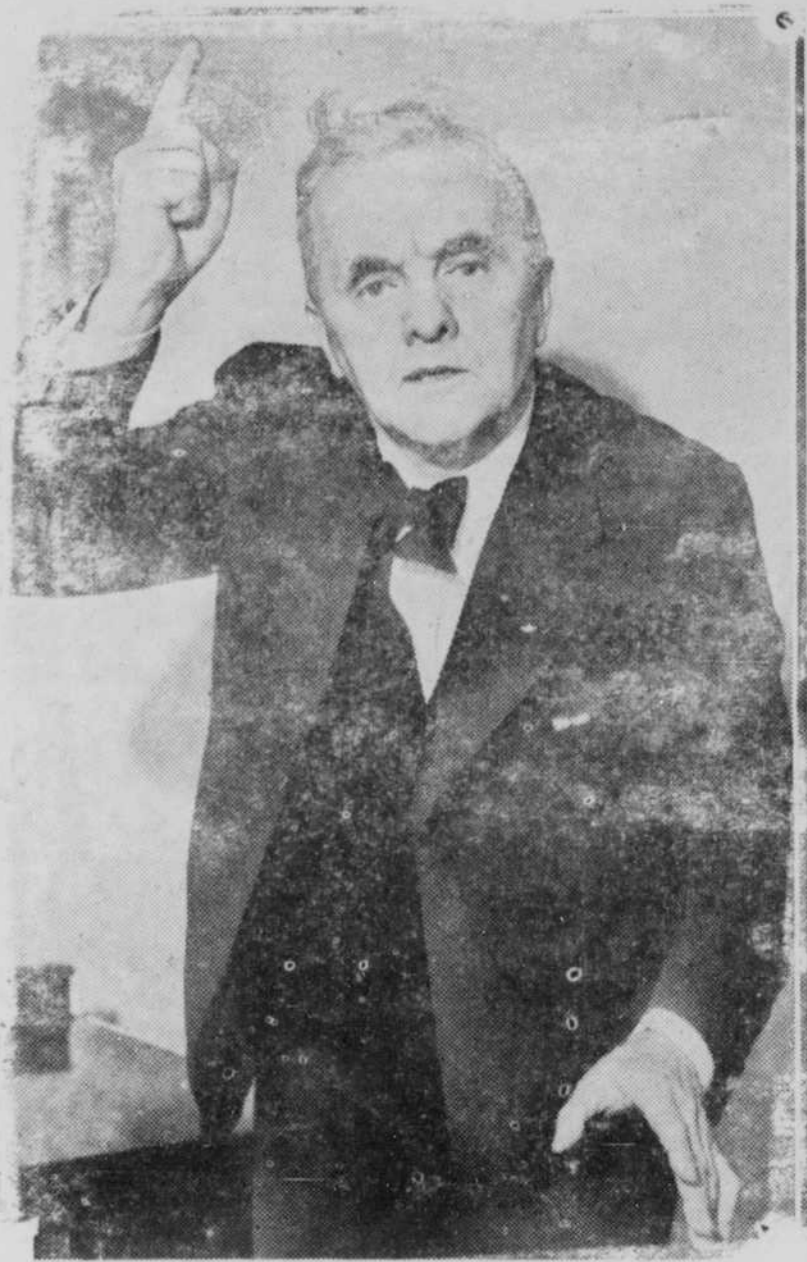

As we go to press, no funeral arrangements have been made. It is thought, however that services will probably be held Saturday from Clair Chapel.

Mr. Lonnie Wilkes is employed by the Alamito Dairy as a milk deliverer in the colored district.

Mrs. Edward Dannar, 2502 Washington St. of So. Omaha, spent the afternoon with her mother. She just recovered from a sick spell.

Boy Picks Police Chief's Pockets

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 26—(C)—Monroe Steele, jr., 10, with a record of arrests for larceny, picked Police Chief E. D. Pittman's pocket of a fountain pen, and the pockets of Officer Lee Porter of cartridges Friday. At the time, Steele was being sought for other petty crimes. The boy has just returned from Morrison's Training school.

SENATOR GEORGE W. NORRIS

Hon. Senator George W. Norris, America's greatest, fearless fighting senator in action, for the re-election of President Roosevelt says, that he is yet of the opinion that he should not have permitted his name to have been filed for senator of Nebraska. He says his job is to stump the country in the interest of the re-election of the greatest president America has ever had and he expects to do everything in his power to convince the people who believe in his principle that they should cast their vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt on Tuesday November 3rd, for the President of the United States.
