

MOORE, McGAUGH WEDDING HELD

At a ceremony performed Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock at Salem Baptist church, Miss Ivory Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Moore became the bride of John G. McGaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. McGaugh. Rev. M. B. Bilbrew officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a standup collar which was buttoned to the waistline and was shirred on the bodice. The full skirt flowed into a long train. The long tulle veil was caught far back on the head with a cap of halo style with seed pearls and orange blossoms on each end. Her bouquet was formed of white roses, baby chrysanthemums and baby's breath. For something old the bride wore stockings. That something blue and borrowed was a handkerchief that belonged to a friend.

Miss Carrie Moore, sister of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a gown of burnt orange taffeta, flared from the hips and formed a short train. This was topped with a matching waist length jacket. Her sash was of brown velvet. Her hat was of the same taffeta, and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids, Miss Dorothea Stewart, Miss Margaret Dickerson, Miss Ruth Williams and Miss Amelia Thomas, wore yellow taffeta and orchid taffeta, fashioned alike with sashes of brown velvet. They wore hats of matching colors and carried talisman roses.

Flower girls were Thelma Stewart and Barbara Jean Matthews. They were in short green taffeta frocks. Kenneth Rogers served as ringbearer. Louis McGaugh, brother of the groom, was best man and Adrian Stamps, James Moore, John Rosebaugh and Armour Wright were ushers. Mrs. Geraldine was at the piano and Mrs. Arnetta played the violin. They accompanied Mrs. Libby Harris who sang "O Promise Me."

Following the ceremony a garden reception was held for 150 guests. Mrs. Moore was in wine chiffon velvet and wore a corsage of white roses. Mrs. McGaugh was in dark blue.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. E. R. West, Mrs. Libby Harris, Mrs. Elizabeth Bufford, Mrs. A. B. Matthews, Mrs. Fay Patterson and Mrs. Mildred Samuels. The sentiment expressed was the bride was married on her father's birthday. The couple will be at home to their friends at 2809 Parker street.

The Friendly Sixteen Bridge club met at the home of Mr. J. Phillips, 3036 Emmet St., at 8:00 p. m. After the regular business routine, they proceeded with the election of officers. Mr. Massie Avant and Mr. Sam Wead were retained as president and secretary respectively. The new officers elected were Mr. P. Atkins, vice president and J. Davis, treasurer. After the election of officers the members started their customary battle for the coveted high score honors, from which emerged Mr. Sam Wead and T. R. Turner as victors. A very delightful repast was served by the host. Everybody was happy and adjourned to meet again on Monday, Sept. 28th at the home of Mr. W. Penn, 3111 Pinkney street.

WPA Jobs Suspended In Miss. For Cotton Picking

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 26—(ANP)—Suspension of all WPA projects in the Mississippi delta has been ordered by Wayne Alliston, State WPA director, to provide cotton pickers for distressed plantation owners after planters complained that federal projects used workers ordinarily available for picking cotton.

Because of a scarcity of labor, police in the section have been patrolling Negro sections of small towns and herding all unemployed persons into trucks where they are carried to the plantations and forced to pick cotton. Those who refuse to go are jailed as "vagrants."

However, the action of Alliston is contrary to a ruling of the WPA at Washington which declared the Mississippi director had not been authorized to drop federal project workers not suited for cotton picking.

At the nation's capitol Corington Gill, acting administrator, emphasized that "the Works Progress Administration is not an employment exchange nor a placement service, nor will it be a party arbitrarily forcing workers to accept sub-standard wages."

Shortage of Cotton Pickers Reported

Memphis, Eenn., Sept. 26—(C)—Planters of the mid south are facing a shortage of cotton pickers, it was reported Tuesday. The opening of colored schools early in September, taking thousands of young people out of the fields has caused wages to soar to the highest point in seven years. Prices jumped last week from 80 cents to $1.25 per hundred. Arkansas planters face the same situation.
