Mrs. Victory Dorsey, 1317 No. 27th street, just returned from a visit in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Danner, 2802 Washington street, are the parents of a baby girl.

Mrs. Dorothy White, wife of Rev. Geo. E. White, continues to improve at the County hospital.

Mr. William Rogers, 2418 Ohio St., left Monday for Jackson, Miss., where he was called to the bedside of his mother.

Mrs. V. Moore, Blondo St., is greatly improved. She wishes to thank her many friends for the kindness shown her during her illness.

HILL, Prayer Doctor—Advisor—Meetings on Sunday and Wednesday nights. Troubles, sorrows, sickness can be removed. Matt. 19: 26, 1201 No. 24th St. JA 5343. Hrs. 9 until 4, daily. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Katherine L. Allen of Chanute, Kas., returned to her home Monday after spending four weeks visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Perkins, 981 No. 27th St. She was the recipient of many social courtesies during her stay in the city.

Our beloved pastor, Rev. P. J. Price, passed away last Wednesday at 5:00 a. m., preaching his own sermon, subject, "The End of the Road." His last words were "Thank you Jesus." He then went to sleep. The church will surely miss our beloved leader. So beloved, sleep on, sleep on, and take thy rest. Some day we members of Pleasant Green Baptist church hope to meet you on th other side. Mrs. Lottie Keyes.

MISS ELLA JACOBS RETURNS Miss Ella Jacobs, 2624 Charles St., returned Wednesday from her vacation. On her way to Chicago she stopped in Kansas City, Mo., and Gary, Ind., for a short stay. She reports a lovely visit. From there she went to Chicago, where she visited relatives and friends. While in Chicago she visited the Delcia Night Club, Savoy Dance Hall and many other beautiful places. Also many parties were given in her honor. She was accompanied by her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Wells, but they returned after a four day stay. All reported a lovely vacation.

Mrs. E. Montgomery of New York City and Mr. and Mrs. Stanford of Omaha were guests at a breakfast given by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Thomas, 2212 Ohio St., Wednesday morning, Sept. 16th.

Andy Jensen has been requested to run for School Board, Andy, as we all remember, was North Omaha's candidate for City Commissioner last spring, losing by a small margin. Andy was also the Democratic candidate for assessor in 1934, also losing by a very small margin. If he could be persuaded to run he would be a real asset on that board from his vast experience in municipal affairs and in taxation as well as business.

The Membership Committee of the Northside Y. W. C. A held its fall opening meeting on Wednesday evening, Sept. 16th, with the chairman presiding, Mrs. Pullum, the executive secretary of the Y. W. C. A., stated that one hundred and one new members have been added to the membership, making a total of two hundred and one members up to date. It was also decided that the membership committee would entertain quarterly at a birthday party for the members born in each quarter. We will be calling you to share in the fun. Our next meeting will be the third Wednesday night in October. At this meeting we shall discuss some of the things which happened in our past convention. All committee members are kindly asked to be present.

Judge Arthur C. Thompson, one of Omaha's leading judges is considered one of the finest in the district that ever sat on the District Court bench. He is a candidate for re-election on Tuesday, Nov. 3rd.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tuddle departed this life on September 12, 1936 at the residence of her daughters, Mrs. Hallie Chesney and Ms. Alice Wade, 2712 Franklin St. A brief service was held at Lewis Funeral Home, Sept. 16th. The body was accompanied to its final resting place, Muskogee, Okla., where she lived for a number of years before coming to Omaha. Rev. J. H. Dotson, former pastor of Pilgrim Baptist church of this city, now pastoring in Muskogee had charge of the service.

Mrs. Alice Wade, Mrs. Hallie Chesney, Mrs. Katie Smith and Mrs. M. Williams, all daughters of the deceased and her son Eddie Tuddle, accompanied the body to Muskogee for burial. We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness shown us in our sadness. Mrs. Alice Wade, 2712 Franklin Street.

Mrs. May Elmore, 2836 Seward St., entertained at a luncheon Thursday honoring Mrs. Opal Jacob of Des Moines. Rev. G. E. White was also a guest.

Mrs. Viola Althea Crumbley, 3029 Burdette St., reports an enjoyable time during her two days' visit at the state fair in Lincoln, Nebr.

Mrs. L. Hartfield and Mr. Central Williams of 1512 No. 26th St. moored to Topeka, Kas., to spend the week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Georgetta McAllister, 1510 Guiney St. They reported a wonderful time. They returned home Monday. Accompanying Mrs. Hartfield and Mr. Williams home was Mr. Hardy. He will spend two weeks in the city. Many pleasant events have been planned for him during his stay in the city.

The Spirit Temple No. 6 closed its ten day revival Monday, Sept. 21. Mother Bishop Sutton of Kansas City, Kas., left for Parson, Kas. From there she will go to Oklahoma City after which she will return to Kansas City for the convention which convenes Oct. 17 at Mother Bishop Sutton's church in Kansas City, Kas.
