VOLUME 13

OMAHA, NEBRASKA, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1936

NUMBER TWENTY-SEVEN

MRS. EDNA MITCHELL

Mrs. Edna Mitchell 2431 Parker street, has just completed a satisfactory survey of some 3600 Negro homes in North Omaha for the Omaha Guide.

Mrs. Mitchell, the authorized collector for the Omaha Guide, is now making collections from subscribers of the Omaha Guide. We ask that the public extend to her every courtesy.

JIM BELL'S HARLEM
TO OPEN OCTOBER 1ST

The swank Jim Bell Harlem, 2410 Lake St., will open its doors to the public Oct. 1st, according to word received from Mr. Bell.

The features which go to make this place one of THE places is the grand space for dancing; the ten piece orchestra seated in an orchestra pit; lunch counters and tables and the various entertaining floor shows.

Mr. Bell is to be commended for this step in giving Omaha a place of amusement that compares favorably with any to be found in this section of the country.

CALLED FOR SERVICE
ON FEDERAL JURY

Milton Wilson, clerk at Tuchman Bros. store at 24th and Lake Sts.; Marcellus Ritchie, Nebraska university graduate and city inspector of weights and measures; M. L. Harris, ex-editor of a St. Louis newspaper, general national organizer and member of the educational board of the direction of the I. B. P. O. E. of W.

ENTERS UNIVERSITY OF OMAHA

Miss Delila Rucker

Miss Delila Rucker, 4409 Burt St., has entered the University of Omaha, where she is pursuing the Commercial Arts Course.

Miss Rucker, a graduate of Tech High Class of 1934, has been in the employ of The Omaha Guide for the past six months.

Tusa Announces Special Dates for Registration

TO OMAHA VOTERS:

Any registered voter who has moved, must re-register in order to vote November 3, 1936.

We estimate that there are about 19,000 to 15,000 voters in the City of Omaha who should register before October 23rd, if they desire as soon as possible, because if we are anxious that they register to vote at the Nov. 3rd election, they register early, we can give better service and do the work more economically.

It is very important that all voters who have moved, register, because if a voter is not registered he cannot be drawn on the jury. Therefore, it is of financial interest to the voter to always be registered.

We have made arrangements for special registration days in several parts of the city, and the hours of registration at these places will be from 2:00 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. except at South Omaha, which will be from 8:00 a. m. and 9:00 p. m., and the following are the locations and dates:

Thursday—Oct. 1—Benson fire Barn, 60th and Military Ave.
Saturday—Oct. 3—Birchwood Club, 27th and Redick Ave.
Tuesday—Oct. 6—Municipal University, 24th and Ames.
Saturday—Oct. 10—2510 No. 24th St.
Saturday—Oct. 13—Fire Barn 24th and Cumings Sts.
Tuesday—Oct. 15—Sokol Auditorium, 13th and Martha Sts.
Friday—Oct. 17—South Omaha City Hall, 24th and O Sts.

We have requested all the Omaha newspapers to give this registration schedule publicity, which they most kindly agreed to do. We hope that you, through your organization, will give this matter publicity and thereby assist in getting the voters to register early, however, he last day of registration is Oct. 23, 1936, 9:00 p. m.

Thanking you in advance for your kind assistance, I am,
Sincerely yours,
Anton J. Tusa,
Election Commissioner

"Red" Backing Is Repudiated By President In Radio Speech

PRESIDENT FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 29—With biting words President Roosevelt tonight "buried" the charge of communism hurled at his administration by William R. Hearst and others.

Terming this charge "a false issue," he declared in phrases bristlingly emphasized: "I have not sought; I do not seek; I repudiate the support of any advocate of communism or of any other alien 'ism' which would, by fair means or foul, change our American democracy."

The opening formal campaign speech of Mr. Roosevelt was delivered at the New York state democratic convention.

Cites Own Record

He asserted "the previous national administration" had "encouraged" conditions that fostered communism, while the democratic party was "realist enough" to face this "menace." He added later that there was no difference between the major parties on what they think about communism, but a "very great difference" in what they do about it.

The president contended his own record showed "consistent adherence" to the letter and spirit of the "American form of government."

Landon's Promise Hit

Then he turned, to Crack down hard on Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas, the republican nominee, as two-faced campaigner who promised one thing in the old guard east, and the opposite to the new deal west. He mentioned Landon only inferentially, saying:

"You can not be an old guard republican in the east and a new deal republican in the west. You can not promise to repeal taxes before one audience and promise to spend more of the taxpayers' money on the other. You can not promise tax relief for those who can afford to pay, and at the same time, promise more of the taxpayers' money for those who (Continued on Page 8)

Dies of Injuries

Received in Crash

Injuries suffered Sunday morning in a three-way auto crash 8-miles south of Plattsmouth proved fatal Wednesday at 1 p. m. to Gus Lide, of 2433 Blondo St. Lide died at St. Joseph hospital. Three others injured in the crash are still at the hospital but are reported in improved condition. Kentucky Teacher Enters Municipal

Miss Willette Embry, prominent young school teacher of Richmond, Ky., arrived in Omaha Sept. 18th for an indefinite stay with her aunt, Mrs. Hiram R. Greenfield, who has been ill for some time.

Miss Embry has come to the city to do what she can for her aunt's comfort. Some eight years ago, while a Junior at the Normal department of Wilberforce university, Wilberforce, Ohio, she visited the city, and proved to be a popular summer visitor, being royally entertained by the young and older socialites during her stay.

Miss Embry attended West Virginia college, at Institute, W. Va., completing her Bachelor of Arts Degree in one and one-half years. She has been teaching in Kentucky for five years.

Since coming to Omaha, Miss Embry has matriculated at Omaha university, where she is working on her Master degree. All of her college fees are paid for by the State of Kentucky from a fund allotted to Negro Kentucky graduates who wish to enter northern colleges. No Negro graduate can enter Kentucky colleges for higher training. This law was enacted at the last Kentucky Legislature.

A young Negro attorney, Chas. Anderson, who was the first of his race to be elected to Kentucky Legislature, introduced the bill.

Miss Embry is a Gamma Kappa Phi.

REPLICANS' BIG RALLY

The honorable Perry W. Howard, national committeeman from the state of Mississippi will address citizens of Omaha, under the auspices of the Republican Colored Division at the Dreamland Hall, Oct. 1st, at 8:30 p. m. Mr. Howard will be met at the station by a reception committee accompanied by a band. All Omahans are invited to pay their respect to this distinguished guest. Mr. Howard is a national character. He is the special advisor to L. R. Williams, director of the National Colored Republican Division with headquarters in Chicago. Mr. Howard is a member of the Grand Lodge and the position as national committeeman for Mississippi for a number of years. He is ex-United States District Attorney.

Bacchanites Open Campaign Offices

The Bacchanites have opened an office at the Omaha Chronicle, 2314 1/2 No. 24th St., for the benefit of the public to register its favorite candidate for a Negro Mayor of North Omaha.

A definite outline has been made for the activities of an active Negro Mayor.

This campaign is for the benefit of the public, and not the benefit of the Bacchanite. We are fighting for the betterment of our race. We aren't asking you for a penny. All we are asking for is your support and cooperation. Isn't that a very little for which to ask? No one can better his condition by standing by and waiting for things to just happen. Action is what it takes. If we are willing to help you, you should be willing to help us solely by cooperating with us.

All candidates must be registered at our office not later than Oct. 9th and Friday night, Oct. 9th we will hold a round table discussion at the Community Center.

You don't know what you are missing when you miss one of our Campaign meetings. Come out and give your personal opinion as to what you think of this movement.

Fight for your high school graduates and your college graduates. This means your children and grandchildren.

Hurry and enter your favorite candidate. There will be a preliminary and final election. The two highest votes will compete in the final. This is not a political movement.

The elected Mayor will have a cabinet of twelve leading colored citizens to help him in his purpose.

ELECTRIC VICTROLA STOLEN

The big electric victrola in the new Jim Bell Harlem, 2410 Lake St., was stolen Tuesday night.

According to report, Mr Bell had locked up the place and had gone away. Chancing to return some 30 minutes later, he found the victrola had been stolen. Someone had removed it through the back door, loaded it and made getaway.

U. S. Grand Jury Indicts Arkansas City Marshall As Slaveholder

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 30—

A federal grand jury investigating reports of peonage in the east Arkansas cotton belt indicted a city official Thursday on charges of violating the U. S. anti-slavery laws by obtaining laborers for his farm thru false arrests.

The indictment named City Marshall Paul D. Peacher of Earle, Ark., a cotton planter and former deputy sheriff for Crittenden county, on eight counts alleging violation of a law enacted in 1866.

U. S. District Attorney Fred Isgrig said the charge was specifically "aiding and abetting in holding in slavery."

Isgrig said Thursday night that the grand jury found "no other violation anywhere in Arkansas of the federal stat-parties concerned on the question of labor legislation. Mr. Britt Pryor, president of the Nebraska State Federation of Labor said: "Mr. Adams is fair and just to all parties, workers, employees, taxpayers, farmers and the citizens generally, and, if our opinion is correct he will go a long way in bringing about legislation for the benefit of the major portion of Nebraska citizens."

Mr. Adams took an active part in securing the passage of the compensation Court bill he was appointed by the speaker of the House on the conference committee to settle disputes on this bill. Mr. Adams led the fight for Unemployment Insurance. The Legislature failed to pass this bill but Mr. Adams feels that it will be adopted in the future. Mr. Adams also led the fight to create the Nebraska State Employment Service. Two young colored men and one young colored lady have just passed examinations for positions in the administrative department of this service. The young lady has already been appointed and is working as senior interviewer. One of the young men will be appointed as junior interviewer and the other as a clerk.

Produces Decree As Summons Is Served

Claude T. Young, 5523 So. 28th St., was surprised Thursday when Deputy Sheriff Harry Stevenson served him with a summons to come into court on his wife's petition for divorce, because he had the impression he was divorced from Martilla L. Young, Dec. 16, 1933.

"I have a decree right in my house that proves it," said Young.

He then produced the document. Young's attorney, Frank Heinisch, explained that he must have forgotten to have the decree recorded in the district clerk's office after getting Judge Rhoades' signature on it.
