

AMONG THE Churches

METROPOLITAN SPIRITUAL CHURCH OF CHRIST

Rev. W. W. Johnson, Pastor
 Sunday was another great day at the Metropolitan. Truly the spirit is at the Metropolitan. Rev. Johnson preached a wonderful sermon, both Sunday morning and Sunday night. The subject was found in Psalms, 40-1 verse, subject, "Confidence." Those that were there to witness this sermon were filled with inspiration. The night's lesson was found in St. John 9:4-5 verse, subject "The Light."

Beginning Thursday night, Oct. 1st, there will be a week of Jubilee meetings at the church, conducted by Madam Isom from Gary, Indiana. If there be any among you who are sick and afflicted, come to see Madam Isom. I am sure you won't regret it. Wednesday night of last week was Omaha night at the Metropolitan Congress in Kansas City. Rev. Johnson was here to represent Metropolitan. He also reports a wonderful time. You are always welcome to worship with us.

The lesson of humility was the paramount thought in last Sunday's sermon. Christ washing the feet of the disciples taught this wonderful lesson to the Christians of yesterday and today. We must lose sight of ourselves and become as little children in spirit so that God can use us to the glory of His cause.

The men's community day program was interesting and also a financial success. The men really proved that they too can put over a program.

Next Sunday afternoon at the BYPU hour the True and Tried group are going to render a program. All persons interested in the BYPU are invited to be present.

Prayer meeting last Wednesday evening was quite an uplifting service, and all present enjoyed a real spiritual treat. Don't forget that prayer meeting is one of the most important features of the whole church program.

Many visitors were present and to each was extended words of appreciation and a hearty welcome.

The sick of the church still remain the same and all members are asked to visit them in their hour of need.

Mr. Thomas Jones, son of Rev. and Mrs. Jones, left last week for Wilberforce college. He will be greatly missed by the choir and also the Sunday school as he was a dutiful member of both departments.

The funeral of Mrs. Conley, mother of Mrs. Johnson, was held Monday afternoon from the church. The church, with a cordial welcome for all, invites you to come and hear the gospel message. God will bless you.

ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH

"THE FRIENDLY CHURCH"
 22nd Street and Willis Avenue
 Rev. L. P. Bryant, Pastor
 L. L. McVay, Rep.

The Sunday school opened the day at St. John with a good attendance, but many of the young people were late. As this was the Sunday for review, the school lessons were reviewed by the following teachers: Mr. J. C. Parker, seniors; Mr. L. M. Goodlett, Young People's dept.; Mrs. J. C. Parker, the Intermediate dept. and Miss Tamar O'Neal, the Junior dept.

Rev. Bryant preached for the morning service from Acts, 26th chapter and 29th verse. His subject was "Christian Life is Worth More than All Things Else."

From this subject he preached a very able sermon. He showed how Paul feared Christ and put all he had in following Him. He showed very clearly that Paul lived a life such that all Christians should try to live.

The names of the sick of the church were not turned in. The conference claims are coming in fine, but there is room for better. The clubs are all asked to make good reports as soon as possible.

The visitors cards passed in were Mrs. Alice Roberts, Tacoma, Washington; Miss Embrey, Richmond, Ky.; a student at the Omaha university; Luella Smith, Prescott, Ark.; Mr. Rupert Caballabanco, Oakland, Calif.; Ida Dumone, St. Louis, Mo.; Lawrence Lewis, Atlantic, Ia.; Mrs. Fannie Childs; Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Prestridge; Ben Wagner and Miss Lucy Mae Stamps all of Omaha. Visitors are always welcome at St. John.

A special bus will take you to Lincoln for the conference for $1.50 a round trip on Sunday, Oct. 11th. It will leave St. John church at 8:00 a. m.

 Rev. P. J. Price, Pastor
 Rev. E. E. Whitte, Ass't Pastor

Services were well attended throughout the day. Everyone enjoyed God's message brought to us by Rev. J. H. Reynolds, who delivered such soul-stirring discourses that he rocked the old boat. Rev. Reynolds has stood close by us since our pastor's passing, and has proven to be a wonderful counselor—a God-sent man. Scripture lesson by Rev. Camel.

Sunday school was opened at 9:00 a. m., by tseh superintendent. The review of the quarter was conducted by Rev. Reynolds.

It was announced by the superintendent that next Sunday is set aside as "Reaching the Unreached Sunday." Every sinner boy and girl are asked to come to Sunday school.

The Willing Workers club conducted a family rally, sponsored by Mrs. Oliver, chairman of the finance committee, which was both successful and interesting. Mrs. J. D. Lewis was guest speaker. Her subject was "Opportunity," and was delivered in a splendid manner. Mrs. Laura Triplett won the basket of groceries, having the largest family present at the rally.

BYPU is as usual. Come and help in our contest. Progress is noticeable in this organization.

Next Sunday at 3:00 p. m., the Junior church will have its program. The sixteen year old minister from Council Bluffs, Rev. W. J. Spires, will preach. Come and hear a wonderful speaker.

Services were general for Sunday past. At morning worship, the message was "Asking and Receiving" or "A Challenge of Faith." What a friend we have in Jesus, that we, through confidence in Him, may ask anything according to His will and He heareth us!

At evening worship, the message was in harmony with the recent Jewish Holy Day, i. e., the "Day of Atonement." In this gospel dispensation, we no longer de-

Charles F. McLaughlin, a candidate for re-election in the Second Congressional District in the House of Representatives is entitled to serious consideration from the Negro voters, says Mr. Charles F. Davis, supervisor of the National Democratic Colored Division in the State of Nebraska. Congress Arthur W. Mitchell for the first district of Illinois says that the Negroes of Nebraska cannot make a mistake by re-electing Charles F. McLaughlin; that his every move in the House of Representatives was under his observation and was in the interest of justice, regardless of race, creed or color. When a representative committee from the city of Omaha wrote a letter to Congressman McLaughlin during his fight expected in the House in the anti-lynch bill, he answered to that committee was as follows: "I am fully in accord with the principles of the anti-lynch bill sponsored by the NAACP, and you can expect my full cooperation in this matter when it comes before Congress. When Charles F. Davis wrote Congressman McLaughlin a letter in regard to the Negro-pro-ratio employment in the different branches of the governmental institutions of Nebraska, he immediately organized a committee and appeared before the administrator of the different departments and demanded the Negro pro-ratio of employment in the different departments of governmental service in the state of Nebraska. When Fenton was appointed state director of the WPA, Mr. McLaughlin made a special trip to Omaha and held several conferences with Mr. Fenton and Senator Edward R. Burke demanding equal distribution and fair treatment by the state supervisor, and also promised his full cooperation.

Mr. Fenton later on turned "hands down" on fair consideration of his suggestions. This put Mr. McLaughlin in an embarrassing position, but he is still on the job and if re-elected can be depended upon to fight to the finish in the interest of all Omaha citizenry. Vote for McLaughlin on Tuesday, Nov. 3rd. It's in reality a vote for Negro respect.

HARLEM PLAY GIRLS PLEASE CROWD

The Harlem Play Girls scored a big success at the Dreamland Friday, Sept. 25th.

The dance was attended by 4 hundred persons, who were amazed at the skilled performance of these versatile girl musicians. They played such numbers as 'Christopher Columbus' and 'Stopping at the Savoy'. Music was under the direction of Miss Eddie Crump.

The Harlem Girls' music compared favorably with music by any male orchestra. They put on an outstanding floor show.

A big hit was scored by them at the Chermot ballroom where they played to several hundred people.

The public is anxiously waiting the return engagement of this popular aggregation of artists.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the officers and members of Pleasant Green Baptist Church, wish to thank those that donated cars, gave flowers and financial help, the ministers for their presence, the choir for its songs, those who gave special numbers, the Reverends E. D. Johnson, G. E. White and J. H. Patton for their encouraging remarks and Rev. G. W. Robinson for his inspiring sermon and Mr. J. D. Lewis for his very efficient service in the funeral of our late pastor, Rev. P. J. Price. We wish to express gratitude for Rev. J. H. Reynolds' most excellent service.

Red Backing Is Reputed by Roosevelt

The president told a Syracuse university audience earlier that federal policies had helped small home owners and business men with their tax burdens.

"In these days of stress, many municipalities and private institutions have found it difficult to make ends meet. But the federal government has been able to render assistance that has prevented the imposition of taxes that otherwise would have become excessively high.

"Small home owners and local business men would have been more deeply swamped with local taxation."

Attorney Charles F. Davis, state director of national democratic campaign, colored division, commenting on President Roosevelt's address of Tuesday, Sept. 29, 1936 said:

"President Roosevelt's address was a message delivered to the waiting ear of a grateful nation, grateful for deliverance by this matchless leader from chaos and despair. His message struck home to the heart of unbiased hearers, carrying by its very tone a deep conviction on the part of the speaker that his was a record of a work well done, his administration fair to all men, his acts constructive and his service to his nation above reproach."

A group of citizens who have financing a living memorial to the late Rev. John Albert Williams, held a meeting Wednesday night at the Methodist hospital, 38th and Cuming St., at the Nurse's Home after Dr. A. M. McMillan had shown pictures and slides of his work in Africa to the members of the Nurese Ass'n work done by Dr. Aaron McMillan in his Willis F. Pierce Memorial hospital at Galangue Angola West Africa, living memorial to the late Rev. Williams will be sent there for a period of five years.

Living memorial is being made possible through the efforts of members of both races. However, the committee in charge of the work is composed of Negro members. White members form an Advisory committee.

Officers of this committee are: Dr. Craig Morris, president; Mrs. M. L. Rhone, vice president; Mrs. Gertrude Lucas, secretary; and Joseph D. Lewis, treasurer.

This hospital is under the auspices of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions of the Congregational church with headquarters at 14 Beacon St., Boston.
