

AMONG THE Churches

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH

No Salem Baptist church enjoyed a day of real service. Pastor B. E. Lewis' 11:00 a. m. service was very touching, subject, "A permanent mansion," St. John, 14:2 The subject of his evening's sermon was "Determination to See Jesus," St. Luke, 19:4. Four new members were added to the church. A special service was held at 3:00 p. m. featuring the city Widow's League club. All departments are running in high gear. Sunday school has increased tremendously. The BYPU cordially invites you to attend its annual social, a banquet and style review, Friday, Oct. 16th. You are always welcome at Salem and made to feel at home.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH

27th and Franklin Streets
Rev. J. H. Reynolds, Acting Pastor
Rev. E. Green, Ass't
E. W. Faulkner, Reporter

Sunday the Lord blessed us wonderfully with His spirit. The spirit fire was burning all day Sunday. At 11:00 o'clock Rev. Johnson preached from Corinthians, 5: 17, subject, "A New Creative." At 8:30 the union ushers rendez a program which was beautifully carried out. Rev. Johnson preached the installation sermon from the 8th Psalm, the middle clause of the tenth verse, subject, "A Door Kept for God," after which the officers were installed by Rev. Johnson. Sunday, Oct. 18th is Royal Sunday at the Metropolitan. At 3:30 o'clock the Busy Bee club will sponsor a row rally at the church. Mrs. Crumley is chairman. Please come out and help fill the pew. You are always welcome to worship with us, so come out Sunday evening and hear the program.

Sunday school was very good with a large number attending. A short program was enjoyed. The morning service was fine. Rev. Reynolds delivering a wonderful sermon, subject "Stand Fast," Gal. 5:1. Rev. W. H. Woods from Los Angeles, Calif., who is enroute east, gave some very encouraging remarks.

BYPU was equaled to the best, everyone seemed so happy. The adults are rapidly pitching their lots with the Union to help make it a strong organization. Rev. and Mrs. Sinclair were our visitors and were highly appreciated. They also remained to hear a gospel word horse deliver a powerful sermon, none other than Rev. W. H. Woods subject, "Scriptural Christianity." We welcome visitors, strangers and friends to worship with us at all times. Watch for further announcements about the Thanksgiving dinner given by the Sunday school.

ST. BENEDICT PARISH

Rev. James Preuss, Pastor
2423 Grant Street

High Mass meeting was sung by the Junior choir, Sunday, directed by Mr. Bryant. The regular meeting of the P-T. A. was held Sunday afternoon. Three new members were added to the group. Father Preuss gave a very interesting talk on "The Meaning of Parent-Teacher Ass'n."

In the last week's news it was incorrectly stated by the reporter that Mr. J. Scott was treasurer of the P-T. A. It should have been Mr. Thomas Scott.

The members of the Legion of Mary are taking the parish census. Since all the Negro Catholics of Omaha are considered members of St. Benedict, they are expected to get over 500 names. Masses at St. Benedict are: 6:15 a. m. and 9:00 a. m. and at 8:15 a. m. each week day.

THE CHURCH OF GOD

2025 No. 24th Street
Elder Robert L. Moody, Pastor
Mrs. Rebecca Penrose, Reporter

Service for Sunday past were inspiring. The pastor and superintendent were much encouraged because improvements developed in the Sunday school. The intermediate class leads the school and its teacher, Mrs. A. Baldwin, has really created an interest.

The message for the morning was, "Christian Addition," "Add to your faith," II Pet. 1:5. Many persons are attempting to multiply grace and peace without first adding to their lives those practical graces of virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness and charity.

At evening worship the subject was "Power of God's Word"—Heb. 4:12—"The word of God is quick (living) and powerful and sharper than any two edged sword." The teachings of the Bible are more real and lasting than those of any type of literature. The Bible is (1) a rectifier, (2) a accomplisher and (3) a satisfier. The pastor planned to attend the interstate ministerial session of the Church of God in session at Junction City, Kas., Oct. 14th, 15th and 16th. All saints and friends are asked to be at services next Sunday.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

24th and Ohio Streets
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor
Forysteen Burroughs, Reporter

Services were conducted by Rev. Gates, a faithful servant of God, in charge during the pastor's absence. Rev. Jones is still in Seattle, Wash. where he was called by the illness of his sister. Her condition remains unchanged. Sunday school was attended quite well. The lesson was doubly interesting to the young people because of the miracle wrought by Paul and Silas, faith in God. Also the feeble minded slave girl whose healing was the cause of their imprisonment.

The BYPU hour was profitable in reorganizing some of the groups instead of the usual lesson, a short program was conducted by the Ever Loyal group. The main feature of the program was pictures of Africa in color showing the progress of the natives under Christian influence and training. The picture machine was operated by Mrs. Jones who explained each picture to her grateful audience. Needless to say that the young people from the smallest to the largest enjoyed the program immensely, many hoping that a similar program will be forthcoming again real soon.

At the evening service, Rev. Gates preached to an appreciative audience. The 2nd chapter of Joshua, 18th verse was the background for the subject, "Hang Out Your Sign." This subject in itself should appeal strongly to all real Christians. Rev. Gates sermonized the subject ably and I am sure that all were benefitted.

Next Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, a program known as Women's Day will be sponsored by the Mission Circle. Mrs. David Northrup will give a lecture or talk. Her subject will be "Christian Citizenship. The public is cordially invited.

The Blue Jays and White Eagles are having another friendly argument.

The sick are Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Davidson. Both are quite ill and need the encouragement of members and friends.

Mr. John Beasley is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beasley.

FIRST SPIRITUAL TEMPLE NO. 6

24th and Blondo Streets
Daughter M. Quinn, Leader
Rev. C. Jackson, Ass't Pastor

Sunday morning service at 11:00 o'clock. Rev. Jackson in charge. Sunday night service at 8:00 o'clock. Daughter Quinn in charge. Everyone welcome.

Monday night developing class at 2529 Binney Sts. No charges.

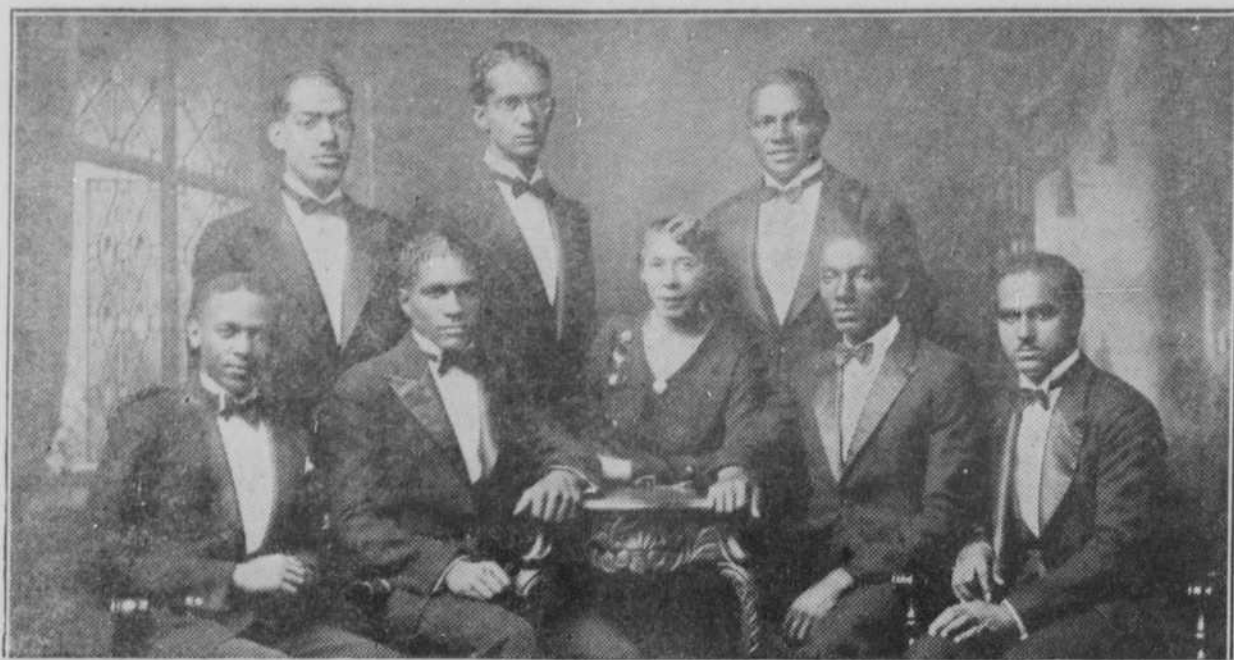

Tuesday night Bible class at the temple No. 6.

Thursday night altar call and prophesying and healing. Mother Rosie Jones in charge.

Glee Club

The Voice class held its regular meeting on Monday, Oct. 12th at the YWCA. There were about 20 present. We have one new member, Miss Olive Carter, 2517 Charles St. We are glad to have new members, so if you want to join, come next Monday, Oct. 19th.
Goldie Dwyne, president
Dois Newland, reporter

Mrs. Grant Taylor of 2721 Caldwell, is on the sick list. Her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Hale and mother, Mrs. Sarah Lee are also confined to their beds. They would be glad to have their friends call and see them.

Fisk Jubilee Singers Coming to Community Center

Presbyterians to Give Festival

The eighth annual Harvest Festival of the Hillside Presbyterian church will be held on Sunday, Oct. 25th at 11:00 a. m. The church will be decorated with cornstalks, birds, flowers, palms and fall leaves; and fruits and vegetables will be placed on the altar by members of the church as a thank offering. The Junior and Senior choir will sing.

The senior choir will sing "And God Said Let the Earth" an anthem that was brought from the British West Indies in 1933 by the Rev. J. S. Williams. In the afternoon at 5:00 o'clock, the Harvest Musical will be held with the choir from the Westminster Presbyterian church as guest. Music lovers should come early in order to secure their seats. Rev. J. S. Williams is pastor of the church.

DINING CAR WAITERS BANQUET HUGE SUCCESS

The banquet given by the Dining Car Waiters Local Ass'n Wednesday evening at the new Jim Bell Harlem Cafe was a huge success. Delegates and their wives and friends of the members of this association made a total of 127.

A delightful menu consisting of fruit cocktail; fried chicken; au gratin potatoes; string beans; sauerkraut wine and a special dessert of streamline ice cream, cake and coffee.

Many interesting talks were made by delegates, members and friends. The party lasted until the wee small hours of the morning.

CHICAGOAN RETURNS HOME

Mr. Irvin W. Gray, who has been visiting in the city, left Thursday for his home in Chicago.

Mr. Gray, former popular head waiter at the Loyal hotel, Brandeis cafe and Athletic club is now head waiter at the Del Prado hotel in Chicago, a place he has held for the past twelve years.

While in Omaha, Mr. Gray was the house guest of Mr. G. W. Watson.

Foot Cut Off in Railroad Yards

Council Bluffs, Oct. 13—According to report, Dick Lyon had his foot cut off while at work in the local yards of a railroad Tuesday. He is in the Mercy hospital.

Goes to Visit Relatives

Mr. G. W. Watson, accompanied by Dr. G. W. Gooden, president of the Texas club, left Friday for Dallas, Tex. where they will attend the Dallas Centennial.

While in Texas, Mr. Watson will visit Ft. Worth, Waco and Bryant his home town. He expects to be out of the city some eight days.

Mrs. H. R. Roberts of Tacoma, Wash., who is the house guest of Mrs. Bowles, 2811 No. 28th Ave., returned to the city Wednesday after spending the week end in Lincoln visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins former Omaha residents.

Mrs. Roberts will spend a few more days in the city before returning to her home in Tacoma.

The small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tate, Emeline Florence was three months old on Oct. 13th.

Mr. and Mrs. Gooch were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Perkins, 981 No. 27th St.

WHY THE NEGRO SHOULD VOTE FOR RE-ELECTION OF ROOSEVELT

COMPARISON OF CANDIDATES
BY KELLY MILLER

Comparisons are odious or odorous according as they affect favorably or unfavorably the persons concerned. There is little basis of comparison between Roosevelt and Landon as they belong to different categories. In experience, understanding and achievements, Roosevelt ranks as the foremost statesman of the time; whereas Landon has no impressive attainment to his credit except the negative fact that he balanced the budget in Kansas, which by state law he was required to do under penalty of impeachment. William Hard is Governor Landon's chief spokesman and self-appointed apologist. And yet after numerous broadcasts he has failed to reveal in him any qualities above the level of respectable mediocrity.

Roosevelt's New Deal is the only constructive proposal yet put forth to solve the problems involved and growing out of the depression. Landon has not a creative mind, he constructs nothing. He accepts the fundamental principals of Roosevelt's New Deal and contents himself with criticism of its imperfections and faults of administration. Roosevelt believes in the forgotten man of whom the Negro is chief. Landon stresses chiefly the economic royalist and believes that the common man, like the ox which pulls the plow, should be satisfied with the proverber which the lucky rugged individual provides for him.

Any American, white or colored being limited to a choice between two candidates of such glaring disparity of powers, would naturally be expected to choose the abler against the feebler one.

Governor Landon is 49 years of age and yet if he has any favorable attitude toward the Negro he has preserved it as a profound secret up to the time of this candidacy for president. Up to now his friendship for the Negro might be compared to the chapter on oranges in Alaska—there are no oranges in Alaska. Indeed, if we are to believe the president of the local N.A.A.C.P. of Governor Landon's home town, he must be regarded as unfriendly to the hopes and aspirations of the colored race. No man over fifty is apt to take on new endearments with much ardor or depth of affection. The Governor's campaign utterances on this question will of course be taken with the customary political grain of salt.

On the other hand, President Roosevelt's friendly feeling and generous treatment of the Negro is known and acknowledged by all men. He has placed on the relief roll perhaps one-third of the Negro race. Selection has been made according to need and not according to the race. The administration has expressly forbidden and condemned race discrimination in such assignments as far as these matters can be controlled by government authority. No one will deny that discrimination does exist in some form, such as will occur under any administration so long as race prejudice is so deeply engrained in the frame work of people. But President Roosevelt seeks to reduce this discrimination to a minimum.

President Roosevelt has appointed or has had assigned more Negroes to high places under the government than occurred under Taft, Harding, Coolidge and Hoover, his four Republican predecessors since Theodore Roosevelt.

Mrs. Roosevelt, the president's helpmeet and companion, is deeply and vitally concerned with questions of social justice and civic righteousness. She does not disdain to include the Negro in this ennobling circle. Her sympathy for and her interest in the welfare of the race is no less manifest than that of her distinguished husband. Mrs. Roosevelt's bold and courageous stand for the betterment and fair treatment of Negroes will and should attract many Negro voters, especially among the women who constitute fully a half of the voting strength of the race.

Roosevelt's attitude towards and friendship for the Negro is expressed in deeds rather than words, while Landon's is expressed in neither deeds or words.

TEN DRAW FINES

Birmingham, Oct. 11 (ANP)—Eight men and two women who admitted being connected with the policy racket here drew fines totaling $380 this week when arraigned before Judge Henry Martin, in police court. Detectives Riley and Propst made the arrests and the defendants were Reuben Hawkins, Frank Christian, Thomas Dickerson, Cleveland Holton, Paul Wingo, Mamie Mock; Tony Redding, Percy Tarrant, Julius Washington and Parthenia Thompson.

The funeral services of Robert Young will be held on Monday, Oct. 19th at 2:30 o'clock from the Joseph D. Lewis Mortuary. Robert Young is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young.

OWENS PARTY TOURS EAST

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 18 (C)—Jesse Owens and his wife have swung out on their Landon tour, making it by airplane. Mr. and Mrs. Owens arrived here Tuesday afternoon from Providence in a chartered plane. The plane encountered fog, and according to Romeo L. Dougherty, noted newspaper man who is covering Jesse's tour, the pilot skirted the hills of Connecticut by inches. Owens spoke in Boston the night before and aroused considerable enthusiasm when he assailed dictatorship. Both Mr. and Mrs. Owens proved good sailors on their maiden air journey, and were to fly from New Haven to Newark for another Landon rally there.

PROBE FATHER DIVINE'S SOURCE OF INCOME

New York, Oct. 18 (C)—Father Divine has won again! The probe of the Harlem "God's" cash, ordered by the Supreme Court last week, produced only a key ring in open court when Atty. William W. Lesselbaum, in county court Tuesday, after a two hour quiz, asked Divine pointedly, "Well, how much money have you got with you right now?" Divine fished through his pockets and at last held up the key ring. Lesselbaum, red in the face, gave up the case. He was seeking to collect $7,724 in judgments obtained against Divine after one of his buses collided with an automobile. Divine came to court dressed in a symphony of brown, and was surrounded by attorneys and secretaries, but this time no angels. He replied to all questions vaguely, and with a sweet
