

Guide Fall Household Demonstration Opens Oct. 28

New Features Added To Annual Fall Food Festival and Show

On October 28, 29, 30, and 31 the housewives and homemakers of Omaha and Council Bluffs will receive the annual pleasure of attending the 7th Omaha Guide Household Appliance and Food Exhibition.

The school and demonstration will include issuance of many new recipes, new methods of preparing foods, the showing and demonstration of new kitchen and home equipment and discussions on diets health, fashion and beauty aid.

The Omaha Guide food shows being a different type of educational entertainment for homemakers have long been looked upon as being in a class by themselves and eagerly looked forward to by hundreds of northside homemakers. The largest attendance was in 1934 when 5,300 persons attended and were all well pleased. This year shows promise to be the biggest and most successful of them all as there will be more exhibitors plus many added new features. The Guide display hall at 2418-20 Grant street is being redecorated for this event.

Everyone interested in home-making is urged to attend this event as no pains will be spared in making it an up to date and worthwhile affair. Remember the dates Oct. 28, 29, 30 and 31.

G-MEN CONTINUE THEIR FIGHT ON PUBLIC ENEMIES

Robinson, Stoll Kidnaped, Is Given Life Sentence in Atlanta Prison.

Louisville, Ky.—Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., latest of the nation's major criminals to be captured, pleaded guilty of the Stoll kidnaping and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

The twenty-nine-year-old former inmate of a Tennessee insane asylum stolidly heard Federal Judge Elwood Hamilton pronounce sentence.

Robinson slugged Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll, young Louisville society matron, with a lead pipe and kidnaped her from her home here October 10, 1934. For more than 19 months he eluded federal agents. He spent most of his time traveling between New York and California, and federal agents said he spent freely the $50,000 paid him as ransom for Mrs. Stoll. He had held her for a week in an apartment in Indianapolis.

He was caught in Glendale, Calif., and whisked here in a government chartered airplane. His sentence came within less than 48 hours after his capture. Judge Hamilton directed that Robinson be sent to Atlanta federal penitentiary with the usual specification that he be subject to transfer to any other federal prison on order of the United States attorney general.

No Longer Public Enemies.

Dead are John Dillinger, Baby Face Nelson, Pretty Boy Floyd, Verne Miller, Clyde Barrow, John Hamilton, Mad Dog Vincent Coll, Dutch Schultz, Legs Diamond, Frank Nash, Ma Barker, and her son Fred. Behind the bars are Al Capone, Machine Gun Kelley, Roger Touhy, Waxey Gordon, Joe Montana, Doc Barker, Lucky Luciano, John Torrio, and Alvin Karpis.

J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the G-men who caught "Old Creepy" Karpis in New Orleans, intends that he shall neither run wild nor creep any more. In St. Paul Karpis awaits trial for the kidnaping of William Hamm and Edward G. Bremer. Hamm paid $100,000 ransom and Bremer $200,000. The Lindbergh kidnaping law provides a death penalty.

But Karpis also has committed a few other crimes for which he could be executed. For instance, there was the murder of a Missouri sheriff who attempted to question Karpis and Barker in 1931, the murder of a South St. Paul policeman in a $30,000 bank hold-up in Minneapolis in 1933, or, perhaps, the "ride" slaying of Arthur W. Dunlap, Ma Barker's second husband, in 1931.

Many Karpis Crimes.

There is no end of crimes committed, or allegedly so, by Karpis from the time he was the best marble player in Topeka, Kan., until he became Public Enemy No. 1—and until the night 20 federal agents closed in on him, his woman, and a gangster pal as they climbed into an automobile in front of their pretentious Canal street apartment in New Orleans. Karpis had a narrow escape from death on January 20, 1935, when he was surrounded in a hotel at Atlantic City, N. J. He and his companion, Harry Campbell, shot their way through a cordon of police and fled in a stolen automobile. Behind them they left their women. Karpis' girl was expecting a child. In Pennsylvania they kidnaped a physician and stole his car, which they abandoned in Monroe, Mich.

Karpis eluded the G-men from then until his capture in New Orleans.

WOMAN'S WORLD

HALLOWEEN GOODIES

When your friends go a-hunting for typical Halloween goodies be sure they reflect the spirit, color and appearance. Halloween dishes should have interest and informal effects. Here are some "sweets" to crunch while the witches rid.

Suprise Cookies
Two thirds cup shortening, one half cup sugar, one egg; beaten; one fourth teaspoon vanilla, three eighths teaspoon milk, two cups flour.

Cream together shortening and sugar. Add egg, vanilla and milk. Mix well. Add sifted flour. Chill. Roll out on slightly floured board to one eighth inch thickness. Cut with round cutter. Put small amount of raisin filling in center of half the rounds, moisten edges; cover with remain rounds. Press edges together with tines of fork. Bake on greased baking sheet in moderate oven ten minutes.

Raisin Filling
Mix one half cup chopped raisins, one fourth cup brown sugar, two grains salt; one tablespoon water. Cook slowly, stirring constantly until thick. Cool. If desired, chop nuts may be added.

Holiday Spice Cakes

One package concentrated mince-meat, one cup water, one half cup butter or shortening, two eggs, two cups sifted all purpose flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon ground cinnamon, one half teaspoon grated nutmeg, one fourth teaspoon ground cloves, one half cup milk.

Break mince-meat into small pieces. Add water and boil gently for fifteen minutes, stirring frequently. Cool. Cream shortening and sugar until very light. Add beaten eggs, then sift dry ingredients alternately with milk. Stir in cool mince-meat and bake in well greased cup cake pans in moderate oven for 25 or 30 minutes. When cold spread chocolate or orange frosting.

Doughnuts

Three tablespoons shortening, one and one fourth cups sugar, two eggs, one half cup evaporated milk, one half cup water, four cups flour, one half teaspoon salt, three and one half teaspoons baking powder, one fourth teaspoon grated nutmeg.

Work shortening until creamy. Beat in sugar gradually. Then add yolks of eggs beaten thick and whites beaten stiff. Mix and sift dry ingredients. Add alternately with liquid to first mixture. Toss on board slightly floured, knead lightly, pat and roll one fourth inch in thickness, using one half mixture at a time. Shape with doughnut cutter, first dipped in flour. Fry in hot fat. Drain on brown paper.

Spread tops of doughnuts with an orange butter icing made by creaming three tablespoons butter or margarine with two cups confectioner's sugar and adding two tablespoons each orange and lemon juice, one teaspoon grated orange rind.

Golden Goblins

One teaspoon grated orange rind, two tablespoons orange juice, one teaspoon lemon juice, one and one half cups powdered or confectioner's sugar, round wafers or cookies, jam or cream cheese.

Allow orange rind to soak in fruit juices for fifteen minutes then strain and add to beaten egg yolks. Work in sifted sugar to make a frosting which will spread easily. Place wafers together sandwich-like with a filling of jam or cream cheese. Frost with the orange frosting and when almost set draw goblin faces on each with melted chocolate, pressing these on with a small paper cone.

WORKING FOR ROOSEVELT

REV. M. L. SHEPARD

Pictured as he prayed at the Democratic National convention at Philadelphia, who says he is "working day and night for the re-election of Franklin D. Roosevelt, because I am convinced that his re-election is paramount to sustaining the significant gain that has been achieved under his administration toward a more humane, social and economic hour. I am further convinced that the Negro has an unusual stake in this election because of the unparalleled benefits that have accrued to our racial group under the new deal program." Rev. Shepard is a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, and is director of the eastern regional headquarters of the Negro Democratic Campaign Committee of Pa. with offices at 511 South Board street, Philadelphia. (DNC).

DOTTED NOTES

Milton Berle's radio sponsors refused cash settlement to release him to Hollywood for an RKO feature picture. Lucky Millinder grabbed Willie M. Kyle, jr. as pianist for the Mills Blue Rhythm band. Jan Rubini and Jerry Freeman, with their orchestras, have been added to the roster of Mills Artist bands. Ina Ray Hutton and her Melodians begin their new theatrical season at the Astor in Reading Pa. Duke Ellington and his famous orchestra play the Howard theatre in Washington, D. C., then one nighters into Dallas, Texas, for an engagement at the Centennial. Benny Meroff and his band open at the Muebach hotel in Kansas City on Oct. 11th. The latty Bitten Band, headed by Mill, are at the Chez Maurice in Dallas, Texas. Tommy Tompkins expects the stork to visit his home soon and cancelled band engagements until after the big event. Irving Mills is backing Yascha Bunchuk in a new radio program that is startling in character and a new high in entertainment value. Diana Ward, star of the London company of "Anything Goes" is now a Mills artist. "Minnie the Moocher" plans to sue Calhoun's new girl friend, "Frisco Flo," for alienation of the hi-de-ho affections!

THOMSEN DESERVING OF RE-ELECTION AS JUDGE

Constant study and research is required of a judge who hears many cases each year in the routine business of his court, according to Judge Arthur C. Thomsen, district judge.

"In a recent statement by the American Law Book Co." says Judge Thomsen, "it was declared that there were more than a half million different propositions of law now in the books and that they were growing at the rate of from 1,500 to 1,800 each year. "Students and experts on legal lore say that the average lawyer knows only 10,000 of these propositions. That doesn't mean that lawyers and judges even attempt to carry them in their heads. "These new propositions are not old ones being applied to new things as they originate in our every day life, but are new propositions applied to absolutely new things. "The important thing for a lawyer or judge to know is where to find the law and it is only by constant study and a knowledge of the books in the libraries that they can know where to find the propositions that will exactly fit the facts and legal propositions involved in the case at hand."

Judge Thomsen has been a district judge for the past eight years and prior to that time was a practicing attorney. During most of his legal career Judge Thomsen has been a professor and dean of the University of Omaha law school. He has a profound knowledge, gained in the research required of a competent teacher, and in spite of long hours on the bench, has not neglected his study of current legal literature. Recently the bar of the fourth judicial district endorsed Judge Thomsen for re-election in November.

S. C. PAPER "SOUR" ON ROOSEVELT'S NEW DEAL

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 24 (C)—The Charleston News and Courier, unlike the Columbia State is "sour on the Roosevelt New Deal. The paper said editorially last Saturday: "Some of our prominent patriots have 'deplored' that the Negro has been dragged into politics. Who dragged the Negro into the Philadelphia convention? Not the man who 'walked out.'"

Probe Death of Youth

Chicago, Oct. 24 (C)—The death of Joseph Gibbons 22, at the hands of a policeman Monday morning when he allegedly refused to stop for questioning after throwing a brick through a window, is being probed, it was announced by Assistant State's Attorney Crowley, who says Gibbons was a taxi-driver sweetheart of Marva Trotter before she married Joe Louis, it is claimed.

DAVIDSON MADE PRESIDENT OF ELECTRIC GROUP FOR RE-ELECTION

James E. Davidson, president of the Nebraska Power Co. of Omaha, was elected president of the Ass'n of Edison Illuminating Companies at the annual meeting of the 52-year old organization in White Sulphur Springs, Va., Oct. 16th.

The presidency of the association is regarded as one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a man in the electric industry. The group is made up of electric companies licensed under the original Edison patents and has for its objective the development of the service to the public of electricity for light, heat and power.

In his elevation to the presidency of this association, Mr. Davidson follows in the footsteps of outstanding leaders of the electric industry. His immediate predecessor was W. H. Taylor, a former Omaha, president of the Philadelphia Electric Co.

Mr. Davidson's election brings to him another major honor in the electric industry. He is a past president of the old National Electric Light Ass'n., and is now first vice president of its successor, the Edison Electric Institute.

Beginning his career in the electric industry in the boiler room of the Port Huron, Mich., power plant, Mr. Davidson has become a renowned leader of the industry. He was head of the national electric refrigeration bureau activity, which resulted in the sales of nearly three million refrigerators in three years; he was chairman of the committee which launched a nation wide better home lighting activity; and he has headed many other national committees. He is at present regional chairman of the Thomas A. Edison Foundation activity.

TWO SUSPECTED OF KILLING MAN

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 24 (C)—Two colored men are being sought in the murder of Clifford Fowler, taxi driver, who was found shot to death on a lonely road last Thursday morning. A colored man held for questioning said two colored men came to taxi headquarters the night before and ordered a cab, and the management sent him along with the white driver as a companion. On the outskirts of town, two men ordered the driver to back off the road, the man said, and he called the police as soon as he could reach a telephone. Police suspect Samuel Jones and Fred Steele, and are seeking them for questioning.
