

CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD

2316 North 25th Street
Mrs. C. A. Brayboy, Reporter

Sunday school service was held at the usual hour. A most unusual lesson was enjoyed as many thoughts were brought out. The new pastor preached a wonderful sermon Sunday morning. The subject, "Come to Reason Together." Sunday morning he presented another wonderful sermon which was taken from Matt. 26:29, subject "The Vine and the Branches." A program was also presented in honor of our pastor. The mysterious quartet rendered three selections. A wonderful time was had all day Sunday. Came out and be with us during our revival which begins Nov. 8th.

FIRST SPIRITUAL TEMPLE NO. 6

24th and Blendo Streets
Daughter M. Quinn, Leader
Pastor C. Jackson, Ass't Pastor

Sunday school at 9:45 o'clock. Sunday morning service at 11:00 o'clock. Rev. Jackson in charge. Sunday night service at 8:00 o'clock. Daughter Marian Quinn in charge. Everyone welcome. Sunday night developing class at 222 Blinney St., no charge. Sunday night Bible class at the Temple. Wednesday night after call, and singing and prophesying, Mother Rose Jones in charge.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

24th and Ohio Streets
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor
Fifteen Burroughs, Reporter

The Sunday school was opened as usual and the time was spent in an evangelistic period instead of the regular lessons. Most of the pupils enjoyed the service and entered into it whole heartedly. We are happy to see some new souls added to the church as a result of this special effort.

Can I wonder do we appreciate the effort that our ministers put forth to produce their sermons or gospel messages that they bring to their congregations each Sunday. Just Sunday we listened to two excellent sermons by the pastor, each serving to strengthen the Christian on his way, or to open the eyes of the sinners as they pined along their dangerous course.

We wish to thank each and every individual who contributes to our building fund. We are progressing slowly but surely. Last Sunday morning Mr. Lewis, one of our outstanding business men, donated $10 to this fund. Mrs. Ethel Speese Carber also gave $5.00 to the fund. Each gift or donation helps us just a little further on our way.

The condition of those who are on the sick list remain the same. "Thee are Mrs. Jackson, Mr. J. C. White, Miss Nina Cox, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. M. E. Burton. If you are a stranger in the city and are looking for a home-like church in which to worship, just remember Mt. Moriah, the church with a friendly welcome for all.

PARADISE BAPTIST CHURCH

3rd and Clark Streets
William Morris, Reporter

Sunday was a high spiritual day. The Sunday school is growing. At eleven o'clock service, our church had the privilege of dedicating a beautiful bouquet of flowers to Mr. C. M. Wiley's mother, who died four years ago. Mrs. Wiley brought the flowers. Mr. Wiley was present. Our pastor made the dedication. He then preached from the subject, "I Saw the Lord," Isa. 63:1-4. Our hearts were sad.

At 2:00 o'clock, Rev. Bass and his good people worshipped with us. His Junior choir sang with spirit. Our hearts burned within us as he spoke from the subject, "Light in Unity," 133 Psalm. At 6:00 o'clock our BYPU was well attended. A wonderful program was rendered by the ladies group. No. 2. Miss Estella Morris is president; Leon Morris, secretary.

At the evening services the pastor preached on the subject "Peace," Isa. 62:1. After which Communion was served.

ST. BENEDICT PARISH

2423 Grant Street
Rev. James Preuss, S. J., Pastor

The P.-T. A. held its regular meeting Sunday. Miss Helen Tvedy the lay teacher was present and made some very encouraging remarks Monday our pastor left for Kansas City to make his annual retreat. The school children have begun work on their Christmas play which they give every year.

CLARINDA, IOWA SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. D. Nicholson, Pastor
Mrs. Nicholson, Reporter

Sunday school was well attended. The lesson was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Tillie A. Reese of Council Bluffs and her little daughter Charlene were visitors at the church all day. The pastor took charge of the Sunday school on account of the absence of the superintendent. The attendance of the eleven o'clock service has improved. Both were enjoyed by all. The Holy Spirit seemed to be in midst. The church had had a surprise for the pastor after the evening services. Everything from soup to nuts was given. The membership is rallying to his support one hundred per cent. Mrs. Anna Nash is home from the hospital and is feeling fine. The pastor brought back a wonderful report from the Western District Board meeting which convened in Sioux City, November 5th. The Second Baptist church is determined that it will win the prize that is being given in the Association in May.

THE CHURCH OF GOD

2025 No. 24th Street
Elder Robert L. Moody, Pastor
Mrs. Edna W. Moody, Reporter

Worship services for last Sunday were very impressive. Miss Eleza Victoria Williams of Kansas City, Kas. was the speaker all day. The message for noon-day worship was: "Are You In The Sifter?" This was an illustrated message. We learned that many things that are found in life cannot stand the test. Therefore we must be real in all of our relationships. At 3:30 p. m. the subject was: "Youth Organized for Personal Evangelism and at 8:30 p. m. "How Many Souls Have You Lost?"

Miss Williams pointed out that we may cause souls to be lost: (1) By using incompetent methods of training, (a) at home and (b) in the church, (2) By leaving the Bible standard in doctrine (3) By partiality; and (4) By living inconsistent religious lives i.e., being inconsistent judgment of others e.g. a hypocrite.

We enjoyed the examining messages and will endeavor to remember that "My life is the only Bible some people read—what if I should fall?" We still extend an invitation to our visiting friends to attend our services regularly. Unless there be further delay, our revival will begin Nov. 22nd to December 6th, with Elder J. B. Almond, pastor of 11th and Freeman congregation of the Church of God, Kansas City, Kas.

MT. NEBO BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. C. Gates, Acting Pastor
U. L. Billingsley, Reporter

Sunday school was held at its usual hour with the average attendance. Morning services opened at its usual hour with Rev. Gates delivering a soul stirring message. BYPU is doing nicely. It is planning a special program for next Sunday. In the evening services, Rev. Gates welcomed his visiting company ministers, Rev. Lante and Rev. Renfro of St. Luke Baptist church. With a broad heart as usual, Rev. Gates cast the lot upon Rev. J. H. Harris to bring the message. He preached a very timely sermon. Subject, "Teach the People." Matt. 28:19-20. Three people joined, two are candidates for baptism.

The missionary department enjoys a refreshing evening of Bible study every Tuesday night at 7:30 at the church. We expect a grand attendance each week. Our assistant secretary, Mrs. Nellar Bradshaw, has moved to her new and most lovely home on Creighton Blvd.

ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH

"The Friendly Church"
Rev. R. A. Adams, Pastor

Sunday school services began the day at St. John church with many boys and girls on hand ready to study the lesson with their various teachers. Parents, you can help to swell our attendance by sending your child to Sunday school regularly and accompanying him.

Rev. Adams continues in his inimitable way to spread the word of the gospel. Speaking Sunday morning from the subject, "Keep Your Affections On Things Above," many fundamental truths were given in his sermon. Only one of the many truths we learned is given in this article, namely, "Placing emphasis on material things in this world can never satisfy; we must hold on to the things which last eternally."

The new financial system of St. John church will soon get under way and members if you haven't heard about it, make inquiries, for it is going to be of definite benefit to you.

We were pleased to have with us last Sunday Mrs. Riley, a former earnest and hard worker of St. John, who is now living in California.

Rev. F. B. Green, acting overseeing Elder, one of the great Evangelists and pastors who is traveling throughout the brotherhood, preaching and doing evangelistic work for Jesus, will hold a revival at 2316 No. 25th St.

WINS $75,000

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 14 (AN P)—Jesse Merrill, 36, a moulder in a local iron plant, was one of three Los Angeles lucky winners in the big Irish Sweepstakes. Merrill's ticket on Daytona, the horse that finished second, netting him the neat sum of $75,000. Merrill's winning ticket however, was made out in his wife's name, Stella Merrill, who is visiting in Alabama, and after being notified of their good luck, he wired her to return to Los Angeles at once.

Merrill is a Georgian by birth and has lived here for 17 years. It is expected that about $19,000 of the prize money will go for federal and state taxes. He expects to establish a trust fund with the remainder. Asked how the news affected him when told he had won $75,000, Merrill said: "I was working as a moulder in an iron plant and when I heard the good news I told the boss, I just couldn't go any further."

Arrests 4 Whites On Peonage Charge

MacClenny, Fla., Nov. 14 (ANP)—Following the recent quick action by federal authorities in bringing to light the infamous Arkansas peonage situation in which colored field hands at the sting of the lash were forced to work in cotton fields, Department of Justice week arrested four men here charged with holding two Negro laborers in a state of peonage.

Il Duce Will Proclaim Italy an Empire

London, Eng., Nov. 14 (ANP)—The report has been current in local diplomatic circles that before the end of the month Premier Benito Mussolini will proclaim Italy an Empire, as a result of which the title of King will be replaced by that of "Emperor of Italy and of the Lands Overseas." By so doing Mussolini would eliminate the dispute over the present title of "Emperor of Ethiopia." No government, it is said, could refuse to acknowledge the change when it refers to Italy herself and not specifically to Ethiopia.

HELD FOR MURDER

Maxton, N. C., Nov. 14 (C)—"Noisy" Nettles was held for Superior court of Robeson county Wednesday night charged with first degree murder in the death of Don Singleton. Singleton died on Oct. 15th from pneumonia, which physicians said resulted from injuries received in a fight with Nettles, who beat Singleton, severely. The motive for the attack is not known.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends for their kindness during the illness and after the death of my beloved wife Grace H. Brown who died Monday, Nov. 2, 1936.

Ark. 'Peonage Stamp' Under U. S. Scrutiny

Washington, D. C., Nov. 14 (AN P)—Postal officials here have been asked by U. S. District Attorney Fred Isgrig of Little Rock, Ark., to investigate a stamp, depicting two changed figures and a printed plea to "end peonage" in Arkansas, and to see if it is in violation of the postal regulations.

District Attorney Isgrig said the promoters of the stamp were the Workers' Defense League of New York and the Farmers' Union, whose circulars give the information that the money taken in through sale of the stamps will be to combat peonage in Arkansas. The D. A. said prospective customers were led to believe the funds would be used to help the government prosecute Paul D. Peacher, Earle, Arkansas sheriff now under federal indictment for violation of anti-slavery laws. Isgrig protested to Chief Postal Inspector K. P. Aldrich that use of private funds for that purpose was contrary to law.

The inspector said the evidence forwarded by the District Attorney would be investigated and turned over to Solicitor Karl A. Crowley for a decision.

Prosecute Principal Who Beat Child

New York, Nov. 14—William Pickens, jr., acting for the NAACP is assisting in the prosecution of Gustav Schoenchen, principal of P. S. 5 at 140th street and Edgecombe avenue in Harlem. Schoenchen is accused of brutal attack on Robert Shelton, a 14-year-old boy. Several stitches had to be taken in the boy's scalp and it is feared that he has suffered internal injuries caused by kicks alleged to have been delivered by the principal.

Harlem citizens are demanding his removal from the school system.

Negro Youth Must Have Chance Says White Over Radio

New York, Nov. 14—Declaring that it is "imperative for Negroes to have access to all forms of education or else as a race fall farther and farther behind in the struggle for existence," Walter White, NAACP secretary, told a radio audience over a nation-wide network of the Columbia Broadcasting system, that Negro youth must have quality in education from kindergarten through the graduate and professional schools.

Mrs. Anna Higdon Entertains

The Pick-Up club met Tuesday night, Nov. 10th, at the home of Mrs. Anna Higdon, 2426 Hamilton street. After the business had been attended to, the hostess served a lovely repast.

Minister Forfy Years At Same Church

Richmond, Va., Nov. 14 (C)—ev. Marcus Sparks celebrated his 40th consecutive year as pastor of Zion Baptist church near Cinnor, King and Queen County, Sunday.

The church was founded by the Rev. Beverly Sparks, father of the present pastor. The father served as pastor of the church for 24 consecutive years until his death. No land has ever been bought by the church. The late Judge James Jeffries gave to the founder and Thomas Holmes land on which to build the church. The present pastor celebrated his 32nd year as pastor of his other church at Dunnsville, Essex county, on Nov. 1st. He preaches on alternate Sundays at each church. During his 40 years as minister, the Rev. Sparks has baptised 1,250 candidates for church membership. He has prayer with about 370 families a year.
