Here are some suggestions that will make a little turkey go a long way. Try them!

Turkey a la King Saute one-half cup finely chopped mushrooms in one-eighth cup shortening for five minutes. Melt another one-fourth cup shortening in a double boiler over a low flame. Add two tablespoons flour and stir to a smooth paste. Gradually add two cups milk, stirring constantly, then add the mushrooms, one-half cup finely chopped green pepper, one-half cup finely chopped stuffed olives, and two cups of diced left-over turkey. Continue stirring and add one-half cup mayonnaise, one tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, one-half teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper. When thoroughly blended remove from fire and serve on hot toast. Garnish with sprigs of parsley.

Scalloped Turkey and Macaroni Au Gratin Two cups boiled macaroni, two cups cold turkey, cut in large pieces, one and one-half cups white sauce, two tablespoons grated cheese. Arrange half the quantity of macaroni in a baking dish. Cover with cold turkey. Cover turkey with remaining macaroni. Pour white sauce over all. Sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake in a moderate oven about twenty minutes or until a light brown on top.

Pilau One and one-half cups washed and drained rice, two tablespoons fat, one cup turkey stock, one tablespoon fat, two cups diced turkey, one apple, diced, one-half cup raisins, two onions, minced, one cup tomato sauce, one teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon pepper. FOOTLIGHT FLICKERS

(By Al Moses for A. N. P.)

New York, Nov. 28—THE SCOOP OF THE TOWN...concerns itself with that perennially excellent "good copy" Bill (Bojangles) Robinson.

That swanky "heat wave spot" LE CLUB UBANGI, ran afoul some order of minions of the law and...folded up, tighter than a long island clam. Whether you take your "Bojangles," hot or cold...or before or after meals...is purely a matter of personal feeling. One thing remains a fact...INDISUTABLE...the men who love the final say in the ruling of a 14 rock pile known as "MAN-HA-TAN ISLAND" have a place in their heart for the "HIGH PRIEST" of tap dancing...second to NOBODY. Bill, clanked up the ole DUSENBERG...stopped off at a certain internationally famous calling place, and...PRESTO CHANGO...THE OLD GOLD STANDAR...which is PUHtently important business, these lean and cold afternoons. There are other angles to this yarn, and it so happens that we know them all, even to the one that concerns itself with a SKYMAN of more than passing renown. But adding them all up together, we get...BILL ROBINSON...one of the best loved characters of the stage and screen...that is to say...BY THE IMPORTANT BIG WAGS, who make the carousel, go round, an' roun'!!!

EARL ("father") HINES swept into the APOLLO THEATRE, with the breeziness the city he so nobly represents in the musical realm, is noted for. THE CALLOWAY...DUKE ELLINGTON...CLAUDE HOPKINS...LUNCEDFORD...BLUE RHYTHM...and now...THE EARL HINES UNIT, have already celebrated...ANNIVERSARY WEEK, in Harlem, and each unit has outdone itself in its desire to please the fans whose patronage...made their sustained appearances a box-office possibility. Hines, is a rare showman at the piano. (His is an artistry that is unquestionably the very last word in poise and self assurance. Standing far back in the wings as we often do...we find it possible to employ the "yardstick of true greatness" to this pleasing personality because...HE INVARIABLY, forces us to regard his pianoforte, and technique in the light of...some brand new entity, suddenly swept into national prominence. And so...like the endless winding brook...of the immaculately groomed EARL ("father") HINES, heightens the bill of any house his crack orchestra and Glee Club unit, appearing.

"FRANZ WACHE" Belgian theatre critic now visiting London, had the NICHOLAS BROTHERS, as the greatest act extant. That sort of dovetail with the stories we've been penning for the past six months for (ANP) and while one well informed letter writer mailed us five type-written letters asking for palm to POPS and LOUIS, we continued to cast our ballot...for this versatile brothers act...Our European

M. H. Minton, guiding genius of the...RHYTHM CLUB, could tell us enough about the plans he has in mind for the...ORLANDO ROBESON-OBIE AUSTIN band unit "Mint" feels that these two have a perfect right to ask in on the high places they have won after years of strenuous effort in the hearts of theatre goers and with the push and contact of his organization...It won't be long before they'll be right in the hair of the "solidly booked" units.

Durelle Alexander, Paul Whitman's singing "baby star" and featured with his orchestra on coast-to-coast broadcasts, has her own hand now. Durelle was selected from a large group of pretty and talented candidates to lead a new all-girl orchestra, the Swingers, which opened a road tour at Fay's theatre in Philadelphia. The nucleus of that new organization was the famous Bon John girl band, recently returned from a three year tour of Europe. Miss Alexander, who dances and sings, has developed into a charming personality, putting her fifteen-piece band through its paces with all the finesse of her original sponsor, Whiteman himself.

Yascha Bunchuk has commenced rehearsals for his new air show, which will be presented under the auspices of Irving Mills, and which will offer a new type of music described as "swing symphony." It really is popular music dressed in white tie and tails—symphonic music without the top hat.

(The feature of the new program will be its guest stars, singers and instrumentalists from concert and opera fields who will figuratively "let their hair down" and swing out on such numbers as "Minnie the Moocher" and "Stardust," with the background of a 36-piece orchestra.

I. J. C.—Have much confidence in you and want your opinion on my particular problem. Should I remain in the place that I am or is it time for me to make the change I have contemplated?

Ans: Wait until spring before you give up your job and go in business for yourself. This is a bad season for you to begin and since you have been made MANAGER of the store you are working now, you can save quite a sum of money before spring.

M. E. W.—Should I go ahead and marry the man that I am going with feeling the way that I do about his children?

Ans: If you feel that you can't accept this man's children and try to be a mother to them...then don't GET MARRIED. He is anxious to get someone to help rear them as well as make his life enjoyable and you are too young to assume this responsibility.

S. G.—I would like to know if I'll get to carry out my plans about my talent for music and when?

Ans: As soon as you complete your high school training your parents will make it possible for you to attend the CONSERVATORY in Washington. They feel that your education is just as important as your music training.

R. W. A.—Please tell me if I should hesitate about going back to the same school to teach this fall? I have just about worried myself to death.

Ans: Your worrying is quite unnecessary for the incident that happened in the school where you taught last year has been CLEAR-ED UP and your name has been cleared. The subject will not arise again so if you are called...then go ahead and teach.

M. C.—We are living with an uncle and he don't like my boy. Help me as I don't know what to do, stay here or leave.

Ans: Even though it is very unpleasant for you at times...you must remain where you are until your HEALTH has improved. Try to explain to your son the importance of staying on the good side of your uncle instead of keeping him upset.

BROKEN HEARTED:—I got a letter from my old lover about a month ago saying he would send for me if I would come and write him that I would but he won't answer. Please tell me what I must do?

Ans: Forget your past love affairs and try living true to your present HUSBAND for a change.

You must be free from constipation to have a good, clear complexion. If not eliminated in due time, the wastes of digestion produce poisons and the skin must do more than its share in helping to get rid of them. So for a clear, healthy skin, remember the importance of bowel regularity. At the first sign of constipation, take Black-Draught—the purely vegetable laxative. It brings such refreshing relief from ordinary constipation troubles, and tends to leave the bowels acting regularly until some future disturbance interferes. Insist on Black-Draught.
