The Good Shepherd Charity club was organized on March 14, 1935 with five members. The club, not quite two years old, now has a membership of 26. It also has a junior department of 21 children. The Lord's blessing rest upon this club because it is dedicated to Him. The Good Shepherd Charity club pays a sick benefit of $2.00 per week. Meetings are held on the second and last Wednesday of each month.

A keen interest is being manifested by the contestants in the Hoyer Chest, sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Postal Alliance. It is being talked of from every angle. It is the chief topic of conversation at the dinner table, at the shops and on the streets.

The peak of this interest will be reached in about two more weeks. A card party, a breakfast and sipping tea is the order of the day among the folks about town to push across their favorite candidate. It is a type of contest that Omaha has never witnessed before in that the money raised will be used to pay tuition in some college or be selected at a later date by the auxiliary. The tuition awarded will be determined by the student earning the highest average throughout their high school years.

On Nov. 25th the first quarterly conference of the conference year of St. John AME church convened. The Presiding Elder, W. B. Lewis, presided. A song, "A Charge to Keep I Have," and prayer by Rev. R. A. Adams and scripture reading constituted the opening services. Motion prevailed to elect M. E. Webb secretary and Rev. Oliver Butler as reporter. The various clubs and auxiliaries made their quarterly reports. The conference was delayed for a brief memorial service for three members of the church who died during the quarter. Those members were: Sister Burrell, Brother Green Lucas and Brother A. J. Austin. Visitors present were: Rev. Phillips, pastor of Bethel AME church and H. Pigge, pastor of the AME church of Fremont. Remarks by both of these visitors were appreciated. The presiding elder gave a few words of encouragement and exaltation and the season closed with a motion of thanks to the presiding elder. Benediction by Rev. Oliver Butler.

The Nebraska League of Women Voters met at the residence of Mrs. Busch, 2211 No. 22nd street. The members congregated together to discuss social and civic problems. After much discussion they came to a conclusion that Omaha Negroes need a league to resume order of ways and means of retaining to our daily affairs. Laws and by-laws were presented by this committee which were readily approved and adopted. The social security act; the reading of the pauper's laws were also discussed and explained by our president, Mrs. Busch. She proceeded to check our present employment. Mrs. Vera Graham and Mrs. Busch and Miss Mildred Johnson, a committee presented the finding of our executive board which consists of Mr. R. C. Price, Mr. John Adams, jr., and Mr. B. E. Squires. Mrs. Vera Graham gave a few timely remarks. Restoration of a child nursery was also mentioned. The members tendered the hostess a vote of thanks. The club meets at the home of Mrs. Bland, 2909 No. 23rd street. Visitors are welcome.

CAREY FOR MAYOR

By Ollie Lewis, Campaign Manager
We at aturday night at The Omaha Guide where the Carey for Mayor headquarters has been set up, and drew up he following:

Platform
More and better jobs for Negroes. Employment in every wholesale house in Omaha. Employment in such Federal agencies as the Farm Credit Administration, Home Owners Loan Corporation, Federal Land Bank and all other Federal agencies that are designed to alleviate relief. Teachers in the public schools.

Civic Improvement
A Northside branch Public Library. Enlargement of the North Side YWCA to include dormitory facilities and gymnasium accommodations, and enlargement of the Woodson Center to include a child nursery for working mothers. Better street car service during rush hours, especially during the winter season.

Sanitation
Our streets must be properly repaired, cleaned and lighted. Our sewers must be washed regularly facilitate sanitation.

This platform was subscribed to 100 per cent by Mr. J. C. Carey and you can depend on him to carry out his pledge. Because he is a man with a keen intellect, energetic experienced and capable and one who has the interest of the Negro at heart. I am presenting him to the public as one who is best prepared to serve you as our first Negro mayor of Omaha. If you like our platform, if you believe as we do, make yourself a committee of one, vote and work for the election of J. C. Carey.

Miss Frances Austin, of Topeka, Kas., left the city Sunday, Nov. 29th, for her home. While in the city, Miss Austin was the house guest of Mrs. W. M. Douglas, 2612 Patrick Ave.

Miss Thelma Sullivan, of Independence, Mo., and Mr. J. C. Ellis of Kansas City, Kas., were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. McPherson, 1712 No. 28th street for Thanksgiving. Miss Sullivan is the niece of Mrs. Edna Mitchell and is a teacher in the Seventh grade in the public schools of Independence, Mo.

CLARENCE WILLIAMS SINGS FOR FARLEY

New York, Dec. 2 (C)—Clarence Williams, Broadway song writer and publisher, was praised by Eddie Dowling, chairman of entertainment of the Democratic National Committee, for his singing at Jim Farley beefsteak dinner at the Biltmore hotel just before election, where he warbled "Chizzlin' Sam" composed especially for the president.

FLETCHER HENDERSON AND BAND DRAW ENORMOUS CROWD

Well, the famed band leader, Fletcher Henderson and his fourteen artist have come and gone. To say their appearance Monday, Nov. 30th was a success is to put it only mildly. This dance was the largest one Dreamland Hall has had his year—some eight hundred persons having been in attendance. Among those attending were persons from Sioux City, Des Moines, Ames and Red Oak, Ia., and Lincoln, Nebr., are hundred or more white persons from this city, white downtown musicians are really—it seemed that everyone was there.

The dance was a colorful affair. Omaha waits with abated breath for the return of Fletcher Henderson and his famous band.

CAREY BOOSTERS HOLD MEETING

A meeting in Price's Barber shop of the candidates for mayor ended in a confusion, with no definite plans worked out by which the election could be held. The candidates could not agree on the polling places.

Johnny Owens, leading another faction, held for a polling place in Thulls Drug store and the removal of the polling place from Willa's Beauty Parlor to Friedlander's Grocery, M. Carey objected to this stating he could see no advantage in moving the polling place from the beauty shoppe. Mr. Carey also sought to have the So. Omaha place moved to the Harris Grocery on the grounds that it is civic pride that his campaign is seeking to bring to the attention of the people but he was unsuccessful.
