MORNING STAR BAPTIST CHURCH

2608 Franklyn Street
Rev. Wm. Pruitt, Pastor
Mrs. A. M. Frerick, Reporter

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. was well attended. The Sunday school is progressing under the leadership of the superintendent, Rev. Pruitt. At 11 o'clock service the pastor preached a splendid sermon from the subject, "God said you are too many, I can't use you." Everybody was thrilled. At 3 p. m. the St. Luke Baptist church and the pastor were with us. The pastor Rev. James Crowder, preached another soul-reviving sermon.
We also had a splendid BYPU. Brother R. Johnson was present. We had a wonderful program.
At 8 p. m. Rev. R. Lane brought the message which was wholesome.
Come to Morning Star for a real service. We are still making improvements on our church.

CLEAVES' TEMPLE CHURCH

25th and Decatur Streets
Rev. D. W. Bass

LOYAL MATRONS CLUB
The Loyal Matrons club of Cleaves' Temple met at the home of Mrs. Laura Winston, 816 So. 22 St. A delightful evening was spent. At the end of the business session, cherry ice cream loaf and cake were served. "Thanks to you, Miss Winston. We shall look forward to another night with you—soon."

FORWARD STEP CLUB

The Forward Step club will be the guests of Mr. Levy Jefferson at the church.

THE CHURCH OF GOD

2025 No. 24th Street
Elder Robert L. Moody, Pastor
Mrs. Edna W. Moody, Reporter

The message of last Sunday morning was doctrinal in nature. Its theme was "The Resurrection," and was the third under the general subject: "The Second Coming of Christ."
No more effective words can be used than these: "And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain, yea and we are found false witnesses of God. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are all men most miserable," I Cor. 15:14-19.
The thought for the evening was: "Christ In You." It is one thing to know about Christ and have Him with you, but a very different thing to have Him in you. When one has Christ in himself or herself, he or she becomes partaker of Christ's life, nature, spirit, mind and image. Having all these, we replicas of His body, of His flesh and of His bones." We appreciate the presence of visitors, especially the ministers Mrs. Ester Dixon and Elder Irvin. Unless inspired differently, the messages for Dec. 20th, will be: "The Second Coming of Christ—(theme) "The Judgment," at mid-day services; At evening worship—"The True Spirit of Christmas." Come thou with us.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

24th and Ohio Streets
Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor
Forysteen Burroughs, Reporter

The morning service was well attended. Rev. L. E. B. Rosser delivered the sermon from St. Luke 15:28.
Three p. m. service—the quarterly conference—Rev. Wm. H. Adams, of the Union Memorial church, of South Omaha, delivered the sermon from Luke 15:11-32. The prodigal, (I want to see life), a beautiful theme, was outlined as applied to life today. "Are we seeing life or "truth" that it may never end so seeing it in "sin" with nothing in view after death?"
Ending sermon was delivered by Rev. D. Campbell proving "great" is the man that is "great through prayer" to God.
"All in all, the day ended beautifully, even so as it started.
See you at Cleaves' Temple next Sunday!

DEC. 13th SERVICES

The Young People's club met last week at th church.
The Junior Choir sang at both morning and night services.

SUFFERS FALL

James Nims, 1125 No. 19th St., slipped and fell as he came out of the main entrance of Brandeis Store on Thursday, Dec. 10th. He was taken to the Nicholas Senn hospital, where he was left.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST

27th and Franklin Streets
J. H. Reynolds, Minister

Sunday school opened at 9:00 a. m. Mrs. I. M. Oliver is superintendent. Rev. J. H. Reynolds delivered the morning sermon at 11:00 a. m. At 3:00 p. m. Rev. Wm. Clayton, his choir and good members of the Beulah Baptist church were with us. Rev. Clayton preached a beautiful sermon. The services were under the auspices of the building fund, Mrs. Alford, chairman. Mrs. Valley Johnson of Kansas City worshipped with us in the afternoon. At 8:00 p. m. Rev. Fort delivered the sermon. Rev. Reynolds will leave Monday for Marshalltown, Ia. to attend the executive board of the Iowa, South Dakota and Nebraska Baptist Ass'n.
BYPU met at 6:00 p. m. with E. Faulkner, president.
The Christmas service on Dec. 25th will be at 5:00 a. m. Rev. Reynolds will preach the sermon. At 7:00 a. m. the choir will present a sacred cantata.

ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH

"The Friendly Church"
Rev. R. A. Adams, Pastor

In spite of the bad weather, the attendance at church and Sunday school were very good. The little children's heart are running over with joy to know the Christmas season is so near at hand.
Rev. Adams preached from St. Matthew, 4:6. He took as a subject, "Cast Thyself Down."
Some of the outstanding thoughts to be remembered from his sermon were: God does not cast anyone down, people cast themselves down. God puts the necessary things of life in the world and gives man an appetite, and man should be coniserate of what he does.
When man goes down, it is at his own will because neither God nor the devil cast him down. When one casts himself down, he has not the faith in God. If he has the faith, he will hold on to God. The only life insurance is to have your sins forgiven, and we must be in tune with God to get the great blessings and needs he has in store for us. The best of all was two fine young people joining the church. In the afternoon, the pastor and choir went to Bethel AME church to take part in their first quarterly meeting was over, the choir went to sign for Sister Jenkins, the mother of Mr. H. L. Preston. Prayer was also held. Sister Jenkins, who has

METROPOLITAN CHURCH NEWS

Rev. R. W. Johnson, Pastor
Mrs. Willie Varner, Reporter

Sunday morning at 6:00 o'clock was the opening service at the new church. Rev. Johnson preached from Psalms 24:8, subject "Who Is this King of Glory?" At 11:00 a. m. Rev. Johnson preached from St. Luke 15:18, subject, "Home." Two souls were united to the church. The 6:00 p. m. union was well attended. Mrs. Crumbley is president of the union. She is a wonderful teacher. She chose for the lesson the 68 Psalms. Everybody seemed to get a thought from the lesson. 8:00 service was well attended.

CLARINDA, IOWA SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. D. Nicholson, Pastor
Mrs. A. Nicholson, Reporter

Sunday school was in a splendid mood and everybody took an interest in the lesson. The assistant superintendent, Miss Rachel Cason, was in charge. Morning services were in high spirit, with a large attendance. BYPU, under the leadership of the new president, is putting more life into our meetings and we are also having more programs. The evening service was an educational service. The high school girls and boys took notes on the sermon preached by the pastor, subject "Witness the Divinity of Jesus."

MT. NEBO BAPTIST CHURCH

3211 Pinkney Street
Rev. J. G. Gates, Pastor
U. L. Billingsley, Reporter

Sunday school opened at its usual hour. Morning worship was very soul stirring. Our pastor brought a forceful message on "The Open Book," which made a wonderful expansion on our Sunday school lesson. After our morning services, an old fashion country dinner was served by the Deacons' wives and mothers for the official staff of the church at large, which was enjoyed by all. BYPU was as usual. Rev. A. Young delivered the evening message. Visitors present were four. "Come at all times," is our standing invitation to all.

CHRIST TEMPLE CHURCH

26th and Burdette Streets
Rev. J. Goodwin, Pastor
Mrs. Edna Panky, Reporter

We were glad to have in our midst Trago McWilliams, Mr. Joe Gemshan, and our own Rev. O. J. Burchard of Lincoln, Nebr. Rev. Robert L. Moody and members of the Church of God were also present. The evening sermon was preached by the pastor. Come out and worship with us. Visitors are always welcome.

CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD C. M. F. F.

2316 North 25th Street
Elder Green, Pastor
Mrs. C. A. Brayboy, Reporter

We had a very good Sunday school on Sunday morning. The attendance was very good also at the morning services. The subject for the morning service was "Come Out From Under the Shade of the Tree." The night services were also great. The subject was "The Tree of Life." The whole house was filled with the spirit, both morning and night. Everyone is welcome.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH

28th and Decatur Streets
Rev. M. B. Bibbrow, Pastor
Wm. Cooper, Reporter

The Anniversary of our pastor is being observed with much enthusiasm. All services have been very inspiring and we are very grateful for the cooperation of the sister churches, pastors and friends thus far. We expect the service to terminate with a glorious ending. The 11 a. m. message was delivered by Rev. F. S. Goodlett of Pilgrim Baptist church and the 8 p. m. message by Rev. F. C. Williams of Zion. Both were very inspiring. The anniversary sermon will be delivered by Rev. Sears, pastor of Bethel Baptist church on Sunday, Dec. 20th at 3 p. m. The anniversary banquet and the pastor's reception will be held Monday, Dec. 21st at 8 p. m. Dr. Wesley Jones will serve as toastmaster. All are cordially invited to attend and participate in these services. Don't forget you are always welcome to worship with Salem.
