QUACK CLUB ENTERTAINS

It was a gay week end, and at that, just a forerunner of the festivities to come. The Quack club declared the social season with its sixth annual formal dancing party at Brownell Hall Dec. 18, 1936.

Christmas trees gaily decorated and Christmas colors, green and red reflect in the decorations of this smart affair. A huge Christmas tree stood in the spacious hallway shining its welcome to all who came.

During the intermission the entire membership of the Quack club dressed as angels and wearing flowing white garments, led Christmas carols in which all of the guests joined and lustily sang.

The hall was an array of color. Beautifully gowned women were seen throughout the evening. Outstanding among those present were Miss Virginia Jackson, smartly gowned in rich white crepe, gold ornaments and matching gold slippers completed this costume.

Miss Christine Dixon's gown of gunmetal laces was cleverly done. Black and white accessories were worn with this costume. Miss Dixon wore gardenias on her shoulder.

Miss Lenora E. Jones, of Chicago and fiancée of Mr. John Benj. Horton, jr., gowned in wine velvet cut on princess lines and made tulle at the waist was quite the belle of the ball.

Miss Lucy Stamps in gold lace with matching yellow rose on her shoulder, could be seen throughout the evening with Miss Faith Patterson, fiancée of Mr. Adrian Stamps. Miss Patterson was chic as ever in green rose point lace. With this striking costume, Miss Patterson wore pink lace accessories. Miss Patterson is president of the Quack club.

Miss Juanita Cole made her appearance in yellow courdoury. Miss Cole wore contrasting accessories with this costume and was most charming.

Mr. Charles Thomas, dishwasher in the Jim Bell establishment, 2418 No. 24th St., was stricken by an epileptic fit while seated in the kitchen Saturday, Dec. 19th. Falling to the floor, he suffered an abrasion of the forehead, fractured nose and lacerated lip. Mrs. Thomas was taken to the Nicholas Senn hospital.

Gerald Robinson, 2536 Hamilton St., received laceration on the left side of the head Sunday, Dec. 20. When he and Annabelle Wright, his common-in-law wife, got into an argument ending in Annabelle cutting Robinson with a butcher knife.

Robinson was taken to the Nicholas Senn hospital and later taken to the Police Station where he was on a charge of "Disturbing the Peace." Annabelle Wright had gone when officers arrived.

The First Spiritual Art club will meet every Friday evening from four until 6:30 o'clock beginning Jan. 8, 1937. The club is for the benefit of our leader, Daughter M. Quinn. Come out and join us. You will be blessed for every piece that you make and donate for the up-keep of the leader. Our motto is, "we meet with love and good wishes for all." Our club colors are pink and white. The meetings will be held at 2529 Binney.

Russel Bryan Jr. Entertains Innumerable after parties were given after the formal dancing party given by the Kappa Alpha Psi on Saturday, Dec. 19th. Small parties were formed and everyone reported having a grand time.

Mr. Russel Bryan entertained for the younger set at the very appointed residence at 2817 Binney St. Young Mr. Bryan is very well known and is one of young society's most popular young men. The guest list included the Misses Lorraine Fletcher, Mary Alice Willis, Louise Herndon, Claude Agee, Edrose Willis, Mable Longmeyer, and Juanita Cole. The Messrs. J. C. Williams, Charles Dickerson, Hezekiah Stewart, Alvin Wilks, Robert Jackson, Leonard Harrold, Ernie Campbell, and the most charming host, Mr. Russell Bryan.

LOYAL MATRONS' TEA This affair, given at the home of Mrs. Ludie Thomas, 2802 Ohio St., was one of the outstanding attractions of the season. More than two hundred guests were served between the hours of 4 and 7. The dining room was arrayed to carry out the color scheme of the club—rose, white and green. On the cover of cream lace, electric roses adorned the table separating six rose colored candles, a tea service was at one end of the table—a coffee service at the other. A huge Christmas tree stood in one corner. Black was the predominating color of the formal dresses, broken now and then with gold silver or lace trimming. Dark also was good. Hostesses were Hattie Breckenridge, Bernice Marshall, Violet White, Louise Decker, Clara Leonard, Estella Robinson, Essie Porter and Lucy Mae Stamps. The Loyal Matrons are Mesdames (president) Bertha Bell, Ida Wiley, Effie Moore, Beatrice Gray, Laura Winston, Mae Rouhlac, Daisy Gaiter, Helen Yancy, Bessie Davis, Margaret Allen, Odessa Whit, Eva M. Hayes, Lucy Mae Stamps, Ludie Thomas and Henrietta Makins (sec'y and reporter).

Mrs. Sarah Carter, 2322 No. 26th St. is slowly improving from a serious illness. Mrs. Carter has been greatly missed in Cleaves' Temple.

The Baby Contest sponsored by Mrs. Sarah Carter and Mrs. Allee Stalworth was a success. M. Carter entered baby James Bell, grandson of Jim Bell and Walter Harold. Mrs. Stalworth entered Little T. S. Porter. Little James Bell won first prize by reporting $52.00. Little T. S. Porter won second prize by reporting $30.55. Little Walter
