Cleverettes Winter Festival Is Gala Event

To the "swing" strains of an Omaha orchestra, the Cleverettes and their many friends tripped the light fantastic toe Tuesday night, Dec. 29, at the Eagle Hall.

When bigger and better things are done, the Cleverettes are the ones to do it.

Many beautiful balloons were swinging from the ceiling of the hall. In one corner stood a gorgeously decorated Christmas tree. A trellis bore the club's colors, those of the rainbow. Adding beauty to the hall were two large palms, one on either side of the trellis. It was through the trellis that each Cleverette stepped when introduced to the public, for the Cleverettes were making their debut.

Mr. Manson James was master of ceremonies. Two tap numbers were given by Mr. Sam Brown of Omaha.

Many beautiful gowns were to be seen. Among the outstanding gowns was the one worn by Mrs. Gwendolyn Simms, a burnt orange formal with metallic trimming; Mrs. Viola Harris, rose and gold two-piece formal; Mrs. Thelma Lytle, wine velvet formal; Mrs. Inez Willis, two-piece black velvet; Mrs. Maderia Harvey, black velvet formal; Mrs. Gertrude White, two-piece gold formal; Mrs. Sol Finlayson, a black net formal with gold jacket; Miss Geraldine Herndon, a white crepe with big white ruffled sleeves; Miss Wilma Herndon, dark blue taffeta and Mrs. Minnie Herndon, black taffeta.

Among the spectators were Mr. and Mrs. Grote, Council Bluffs' fire chief and wife, and a party of their friends.

When the strains of Home Sweet Home were heard, it found the dancers loathe to leave.

Christian Endeavor was well attended.

At night service the Holy Communion was taken. Rev. Ogletton preached morning and night sermons. Quarterly Conference was held after night service.

They Saw the Old Year Go Out

Mr. and Mrs. "Duke" Turner were hosts at an informal gathering Thursday. The evening was spent playing cards and dancing.

Among those present were Mrs. Ida Giles, Mrs. Mattie Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brown, Miss H. Funches, Messrs. Luther White, Dan B. Walker, Howard Cave and Ben Turner.

Cleverettes Meet

The Cleverettes met Sunday at the residence of Mrs. Lucile Hawkins, 1302-7 Ave. Reports concerning proceed of their Winter Festival were favorably received.

The next meeting will be Jan. 17th at the home of Miss Jeanne Spinks.

BEAUTY AND ROMANCE

by Marie Downing

DIRECTOR, LARIEUSE BEAUTY FOUNDATION

The Larieuse Beauty Foundation was established by the Godefroy Manufacturing Company to study methods of preserving women's natural beauty, and to make the results of this research available to the public.

(Note: This letter, submitted by Miss Mammie Lue Pitta of Cleveland, Ohio, was awarded the first prize of $50 in the nation-wide contest conducted by the Larieuse Beauty Foundation.)

The woman who is always the most popular, whose companionship is most sought, is the woman who is the gayest of her crowd. We all seek happiness, and unconsciously expect to find it in the society of those who are already happy.

If you are not naturally happy, no advice of mine or any one's else will make you so. But I can suggest a way to make yourself seem gay and carefree even if you are not. That is to wear gay and frivolous colors, and color combinations, and to choose jewelry and ornaments of the same type.

The first rule to remember is that no matter how good looking the ornament is in itself, it is no good to you unless it has a real decorative value.

Just to make it harder, I will assume that you are a working woman with a limited allowance, and that you therefore wear dark colors for economy. I would suggest, then, that you wear a bright orange scarf which will add gaiety to your brown, black or blue suit, or even to a dark green suit.

Things You Forget

Unless you are the type of woman who practically makes a fetish of her good looks, you will find that you are constantly forgetting certain small details about your appearance.

Some women will be well groomed except for rundown heels on their shoes. Most women, who quite naturally hate shoe cleaning, will go out perfectly dressed except for badly polished shoes.

Some women are careless about shoulder straps on underwear, and spoil an otherwise perfect evening outfit by letting these straps hang out carelessly in view.

What are your careless points? Guard Against Carelessness Form the habit of giving yourself an examination once a week. Your hair should be shampooed every two weeks, and, if shingled, the back part trimmed once every three weeks.

The nails should be manicured once a week, but every night they should be scrubbed, bleached, oiled, and the cuticle pushed back.

The elbows should be coated with hand lotion once or twice a day, and at bed time they should be rubbed with a little oil or cold cream. Thick or badly-shaped eyebrows should be plucked or reshaped once a month, and once a week they should be examined carefully and every noticeably bad hair plucked out.

You can never go far wrong if your hair, complexion, eyebrows, nails and elbows look perfect. And a weekly check will keep them looking so.

A weekly check of your wardrobe is also essential.

NOW OFTEN CAN YOU KISS AND MAKE UP?

How husbands can understand why a wife should turn from a pleasant companion into a shrew for one whole week in every month.

You can say "I'm sorry" and kiss and make up easier before marriage than after. Beware. If you want to hold your husband, you won't be a three-quarter wife.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."
