SURPRISE SHOWER

Mrs. John Riley, formerly Miss Helen Hodges, was given a very pretty surprise wedding shower, Sunday afternoon, January 17 at the home of her sister, Mrs. Margaret Gray, 2433 Parker St. The afternoon was well spent playing bridge and games. After enjoying a very tasty and well prepared luncheon all gathered around as Mrs. Riley unwrapped many beautiful gifts.

This was indeed a pretty affair. There were many smart dresses worn. About twenty guests were present, included Misses Halle Johnson and Adele Mitchell, grand hostesses; Senoal Carter, Emily Williams, Loretta Riddles, Peggy Mitchell, Oleatha Hodges, Minnie Littlejohn, Hazel Starks, Margaret Breakfield, Geraldine Martin, Hettie Gray, Opal Rose Annalee Rose and Mrs. Augusta Turner.

The Crusaders club of the Metropolitan church was organized at the parsonage, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The election was as follows: Sister Willie Varner, president; Sister E. Johnson, secretary; Sister B. Johnson, assistant secretary; Sister O. Forrest, treasurer and Rev. W. Garnett, reporter.

The club was organized for the purpose of helping our church. Everyone present was very much interested. We feel that our club will make a success of every effort we put forth. We are asking all that wish, to join. Please meet with us next Tuesday evening, January 26. We will assure you that you will be well pleased to be with us.
