Dr. Wynkoop Sent Grand Terrace To Close January 24th

GIRL WON'T PROSECUTE

Chicago, Jan. (ANP)—Chicago's famous Grand Terrace cafe, ace night club of the Southside which sent Earl Hines into international acclaim and brought back Fletcher Henderson to the top last year, will close its doors permanently on Sunday night Jan. 24, it was announced last week.

The Terrace, which was turned from a theatre into a night club eight years ago by Ed Fox, is to be re-made into a theatre, according to present plans. Fox is understood planning the erection of another cafe at a different spot on So. Parkway. Meanwhile Hines is scheduled to start another tour.

Closing of the Terrace will cause Skoller's Swingland to be the leading nightery in the district. Last week the Panama cafe also closed its doors after its owners sustained heavy weekly losses.

Sponsor Essay Contest On Reducing Crime

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. (ANP)—Sponsored by the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance an essay contest on the subject, "What Can Public School Children Do to Lessen Crime Among Negroes in Atlanta" has just been launched.

According to the Rev. John C. Wright, president of the alliance, this contest is an effort on the part of the church to arouse the people over the high crime rate of this city. In 1936 more than 100 Negroes were slain by other Negroes, with lesser crimes proportionately as large.

The essays are limited to 200 to 500 words and the prize for the best essay in each school is $5.

STRAIGHT FROM THE CAPITAL BY EDWARD LAWSON ASSOCIATED NEGRO PRESS. Advertisement for a book about the Negro in Washington.

Washington—It looks as though the lowest-paid employees of the government—the messengers, caretakers, cleaners, and elevator operators—at last are going to get a break.

At the same time, it will contain a wealth of information about Negroes in Washington, outlining their history and achievements, and casting interesting sidelights on their daily activities.

Those who have scanned the advance proof sheets believe it will contain some of the finest word-sketches of Negro Washington ever produced.

Other Negro advisors throughout the administration have been instrumental in effecting raises and reclassifications for the low-salaried help in their buildings, but none on so large a scale.

The forthcoming Washington edition of the American Guide will take a few well-deserved swipes at the Negro.
