MT. NEBO BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. G. Gates, Pastor
Mrs. U. L. Billingsley, Reporter

Sunday school opened at the usual hour with real good attendance. Everyone seemed to have enjoyed gathering, and derived much good from a most wonderful lesson.
11 o'clock services were conducted by the pastor, bringing a soul stirring message from 2nd King 23:3.
BYPU held with City Union. The pastor presided at the evening services. Rev. Renfro preached the sermon on the subject, "Friendship" from Prov. 24th chapter.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. A. Phillips, Pastor

Sunday school opened at the usual hour. At 11 a. m. the pastor delivered a wonderful message from Numbers 32:22. Rev. I. S. Wilson, presiding elder of the Kansas City district, worshipped at our evening services. He preached from I Cor. 13:1, 1, 2.

The A. C. E. League met at the regular hour, 6 p. m. Subject for Sunday, Feb. 7th, "Christian Youth Face the Future Together." "Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou an example of the believers in the word in conversation, in charity, in faith, in purity."

The Silver Cake which was given by the Junior Stewardess was well supported. The evening was spent in playing games.

The dinner given by the senior stewardess was a success. A dress with one hundred pockets and a program will be presented at the church on Feb. 10th, at 8 p. m. Visitors are always welcome.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor
Forysteen Burroughs, Reporter

Promotions are still taking place in the Sunday school department, Saturday, the superintendent, Mr. D. Suth, and a few of the teachers had a pie sale. This effort proved to be quite a success and everyone was happy. Words of the pastor in 1937 that will either bring us closer to God or drive us farther away from Him, seem already to be fulfilling. At the time they were spoken, one may or may not have thought a great deal about them. But the sermon Sunday morning again brought them to mind supported by facts and scriptures that bear them out in full. Those who stay close to God will have many things revealed to them before they actually happen. The 3 o'clock service was assisted by Rev. Z. E. McGee, pastor of New Hope Baptist church and one of his deacons, Bro. William Beasley. Prayer was offered by Rev. Wriggins and the lesson Acts 6th chapter was read by Rev. F. P. Jones. The five persons set apart as deacons were catechised by Rev. McGee. They were Bros. E. Beasley, C. H. Hall, C. Stewart, White and Lucas. Also at this time all officers and teachers of the Sunday school and BYPU and other auxiliaries came forward and were installed for the year. I am sure that each wife felt proud of the husband who was made a deacon and that each person felt the seriousness of the responsibility placed upon him.

The Mission Circle which met at the home of Mrs. C. Stewart last Thursday reported an enjoyable time. Each member brought his thimble and needle and finished the quilt. An appetizing lunch was served.

We were glad to note that Mr. Dwight Suth and Mrs. Mary Townes were out for the first time since their illness. Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. L. Wade, Mr. A. T. Stewart, and Mrs. Nina Cox still remain quite ill.

Miss Hartford of Mississippi and Miss Johnson of the city were visitors. The church with a welcome for all.

CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD

2316 North 25th Street
Elder P. G. Green, Pastor
Mrs. C. A. Brayboy, Reporter

Sunday school opened at the usual hour. The lesson was outlined beautifully. At 11 a. m. the pastor preached a wonderful sermon from the 4th chapter of Eph 24th verse. Everyone was made to feel good. At 3:30 p. m. the pastor preached for Rev. Cannon at the Trinity Baptist church, 1827 No. 24th St. Rev. Cannon and his people were with us Sunday night and also Rev. Davis and his congregation. Rev. Cannon brought to us a soul stirring message and our hearts were made a rejoice. We are always glad to have our friends to come out with us. Every one is welcome.

ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH "The Friendly Church"

Rev. R. A. Adams, Pastor

Although Sunday was a very cold there was a fair attendance at Sunday school and church.
Rev. I. S. Wilson, now presiding elder of the Kansas district and a former pastor of St. John preached the morning message. Rev. Adams, the pastor, preached at night. There were many good thoughts to be remembered in both sermons.
Other ministers present were Rev. Z. E. McDonald, Oliver Butler, Thomas Rucker and C. C. Baker.

The list of the sick of the church was not passed in, but the church wishes for all a speedy recovery.
The clubs of the church are busy making plans for their financial drive. The men organized into a club known as the Men's Progressive club. Watch and you will hear great things from this club. Dr. Wesley Jones is the new president. Now that this financial drive is on, all members and friends of St. John are asked to do their best.
The visitors Sunday were Miss Celia Nehan of Alliance, Neb.; Mr. John B. Horton, jr. and B. T. Washington of Omaha. Visitors are always welcome to St. John.
Read the Omaha Guide for your church, social and fraternal news. It will keep you posted.

CLARINDA, IOWA SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. D. Nicholson, Pastor

The Popularity contest which closed Thursday night, Jan. 25th, was a great success with the mysterious quartette program. Mrs. Juanita Ohom of Clarinda won the first prize. Mrs. Olla Letts of Omaha won the second prize and Mr. Baker won third prize. All had a wonderful time. Mr. Sam Wead of Omaha was a special guest. The church doors are always open to visitors. Sunday school was well attended. The morning service was an inspiration. It was conducted by the pastor Rev. Brayboy of Omaha brought the evening message. The subject was: "Obey God." All had a high spirit.

CHURCH OF GOD

2025 North 24 Street
R. L. MOODY, Pastor
Edna W. Moody, Reporter

Services were held at the usual hours. The message for the morning was the second of a series on the "Priesthood of Christ." The specific thought was the "Excellency of His Ministry." Being "a minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle which the Lord pitched and not man." He is able to make constant intercession for us, having offered Himself as a sacrifice for our sins once and for all. He is both Priest and Sacrifice.
At the evening worship he message was the "Holy Spirit as Wind." Like the wind, the Holy Spirit is (1) Life giving in its operation, (2) Incomprehensible in its manifestations, and (3) Possessing in His fullness.
All visitors are appreciated.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH

27th and Franklin Streets
Rev. J. H. Reynolds, Pastor
Mrs. Lottie Keyes, Reporter

Sunday school opened at 9 a. m. Devotions began at 10:45 a. m. and was led by Deacons Pearl and Mitchell. 11:15 a. m. service was well attended. The pastor Rev. J. H. Reynolds preached a wonderful sermon from St. Luke, 4:40. The topic was "That Great Physician."
Services were rendered at 3 p. m. by the mission society. Rev. Chowder delivered the mission sermon, which was illustrated beautifully. A very nice program was rendered by Mrs. B. Pearl, Mrs.

METROPOLITAN CHURCH NEWS

Sunday the weather was fair and the service was well attended. Rev. Johnson preached from Genesis 28:16 "And Jacob awaked out of his sleep and he said, surely the Lord is in this place; and I knew it not." Subject "In the Presence of the Lord" You really missed a blessing when you failed to worship at the Metropolitan, Sunday night was the last night for Rev. Isom Johnson who has been conducting a week's revival. Her text for the evening was "The Last Night In Town." She explained this beautifully. We were very happy over the way Madam Johnson carried out the meeting. We are always glad to have our visiting ministers to worship with us. We hope that in the future Madam Johnson will return to us.
At 6 o'clock, union time, we cordially invite you to the service. Come and hear the volunteer programs at the close of the Union. The visitors who took part on the program Sunday night were Mrs. McIntyre from Mt. Moriah Baptist church and Mrs. Daniels and her quartette. You are welcome. One soul was united to the church.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

22nd and Grant Sts.
Rev. M. K. Curry, Pastor
E. Matthews, Reporter

Zion is holding her own quite well considering the inclement weather and sickness among members. We are indeed grateful that we are able to strive to put over the program for Christ under the leadership of our worthy pastor, Rev. M. K. Curry. The Sunday School has been well attended during the cold spell. There has been sev- additions to the church from the Sunday school through the efforts of the pastor, Rev. Williams and others. Zion appreciated having Rev. Lovliet, traveling missionary, who preached the 11 o'clock sermon. His subject was "What Is Your Attitude Toward Your Church and Your Fellow Man." He said which we all thought was true, it does not matter what position you hold or what place you may fill, if you have the wrong attitude your work is a failure. Let each one determine himself and see whether or not we have the right attitude toward those we come in contact with daily and with those we congregate with in our meetings.

MORNING STAR BAPTIST CHURCH

W. M. Phuitt, Pastor
W. E. Frederick, Reporter

Sunday school opened as usual and was well attended. Rev. R. T. Lane, the missionary of the Omaha and Council Bluffs district, reviewed the lesson, which was enjoyed by all. At 11 o'clock, the pastor took his text from Isaiah 6:8, using for a subject, "God Wants A Man." The spirit was high. Visitor was Deacon I. C. Woods, of The New Hope Bapt. Church. At 8 p. m. the devotional service was conducted by Deacon J. T. Turner, the scripture was read by the pastor.
After prayer was offered, Rev. Caldwell of St. Luke was the speaker for the evening. His text was found in David 6:14. He used for a subject, "God Will Deliver." If you want your soul revived, come to Morning Star, you are welcome.

CLEAVES TEMPLE C.M.E. CHURCH

25th and Decatur Streets
Rev. D. W. Bass, Pastor
Henryetta Makins, Reporter

Our thought for the week: Psalm 41:1 "Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble."
Sunday school was well attended. The lesson was very interesting and appropriate since the strongest evil of the land and country is liquor. The lesson, "Is Alcohol an Asset or a Liability?" Could be discussed by everyone.

Mr. J. L. Willis of St. John Baptist church spoke for the Junior church. After the most eloquent speech, the pastor spoke of extending the Junior hour, giving the reason "The work is so enthusiastic and spiritual that more time is needed." Much spirit was shown during 11 o'clock service. The 7:30 service was also very spiritual. The pastor spoke for both.

Regretfully we announce the departure of Mr. George Baker, the first president of the Epworth League. He will be greatly missed in the adult choir, the Forward Step club and the league. A soldier in the U. S. Army cannot always choose his friends, so Mr. Baker was moved to Leavenworth, Kas.

The Young peoples club will celebrate Negro History Week on Friday, Feb. 12th at 8 o'clock. Sunday Feb. 7th the club is sponsoring a program given by the City Service orchestra at 3 p. m.

The Forward Step club is meeting this week at the church. The Forward Step Club held its installation last Tuesday night, members from Board No. 1-2 and the Loyal Matron club were present. Mrs. Adverta Randell of St. John A. M. E. gave a reading, "His Last Court." Mrs. Bertha Bell's paper on "Personality and its place in Religion," was well received. Mrs. Georgia Roberts read a paper entitled, "A Doorkeeper in the House of God." Officers installed were Mrs. Sarah Firmer, president; Mrs. G. Roberts, vice president; Mrs. C. Hayes, secretary; Mr. L. Jefferson, treasurer; Mr. G. Baker chaplain and M.T. Roberts, headshur.

As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness we pray, that all sick will be lifted up and healed.
See you next week at church.

"The Telephone Gives Me More Time to Enjoy My Friends"

This remark by one of our customers expresses benefit of telephone service which busy women appreciate.

"Ordering groceries and meat— calling department stores—all these save the time and effort of trips in the car." she explained.
Another woman told us:
"It certainly is convenient to call the grocer or druggist when I want something. I don't have to clean up to go out and I often find I can take advantage of bargains that I might have to pass up because I couldn't go to the store. But the telephone goes for me."

Colleges of Colonial Times.
The colleges established in Colonial times were primarily for the training of the clergy. In New England the Puritans founded Harvard in 1636 and Yale in 1701. In New York, King's college (now Columbia) was founded by the Church of England in 1754. The College of New Jersey (1746), which later developed into Princeton university, was a Presbyterian institution. At Williamsburg, Va., the College of William and Mary (1693), the second college to be established in the English colonies, represented the Church of England.
