HOT CROSS BUNS

I think that homemade hot cross buns are always a special treat at this time of the year. What could be more pleasant than the spicy smell of goodness?

Well, why not try your hand at these delicacies? Hot cross buns will surely warm the cockles of the heart.

Here are three different hot cross bun recipes. All good! But each a bit different with a dash of this and a bit of that.

Hot Cross Buns No. 1

One cup of scalded milk, one fourth cup sugar, two tablespoons butter, one half teaspoon salt, one yeast cake dissolved in one fourth cup lukewarm water, three fourths teaspoon cinnamon, two cups flour one egg, well beaten, one fourth cup raisins, stoned and quartered or one fourth cup currants.

Add butter, sugar and salt to milk. When lukewarm, add dissolved yeast cake, cinnamon, flour and egg. When thoroughly mixed add raisins, cover and let rise. Brush over with beaten egg. Bake 20 minutes in a moderate hot oven. Ornament each with a cross cut in confectioner's frosting.

Hot Cross Buns No. 2

One third cup sweetened condensed milk, one cup hot water, four tablespoons melted butter, one teaspoon salt, one yeast cake, about four and one half cups flour two teaspoons cinnamon, one fourth cup currants, one fourth cup raisins, chopped. Dilute sweetened milk with hot water and bring to scalding point. Add butter and salt. Cool to lukewarm, then add yeast cake dissolved in one fourth cup lukewarm water. Beat in thoroughly about half the flour, cinnamon, currants and raisins. Then add salt and remainder of flour or enough to make a dough. Knead well, place in a grease bowl, cover and let rise for an hour and a half or until double in bulk. Shape into buns and bake in hot oven fifteen minutes. Decorate each bun with a cross made of confectioner's sugar frosting.

Hot Cross Buns No. 3

Scald one pint of milk and add to it two generous tablespoons of butter, three-quarters cup sugar and teaspoon salt. Cool until lukewarm. Break two yeast cakes in small pieces and cover with one-half cup warm water. Sprinkle one level teaspoon sugar. When milk is cool add one cup sifted flour, grating of nutmeg, one half teaspoon lemon extract and beat thoroughly. When batter is filled with air bubbles add three well-beaten eggs, the dissolved yeast and another cup of flour. Beat thoroughly. Set mixture away in warm place for several hours or over night. When batter is light and spongy and has risen to twice its size add one cup finely shredded citron, one cup dried currants or seedless raisins and just enough flour to knead dough thoroughly.

Knead steadily from five to ten minutes, place in greased bowl, brush the surface with a little butter, melted and set aside to rise again. Two hours before buns are to be served turn dough out on a board, knead it lightly and break in pieces the size of a small egg. Shape in neat balls and place close in a well-greased pan. Set in a warm place to become very light. Cut a deep cross in the surface of each bun, using a sharp pair of shears dipped in flour before placing in the oven. When done brush over with a glaze made by mixing one tablespoon of cream with one tablespoon of sugar. Dry in a cool oven. Then fill the crosses with confectioner's icing made of fine confectioner's sugar mixed to a paste with warm water.
