CLEAVES' TEMPLE C. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. D. W. Pats, Pastor
Mrs. Henryetta Makins, Reporter

Sunday Morning services started as usual with the Sunday School well attended. The lesson, "Jesus Praying for His Disciples" was one of the most beautiful proofs of His meekness. Every man, woman, boy and girl should attend Sunday School and church somewhere at this particular season of the year. There is much to be learned as to how Jesus supplied Himself with spiritual strength. No matter how holy we think we are, how pure our lives are, Jesus was the Son of God, not only could He speak and be magnified greatly, yet He was so meek, so lowly, so humble, that He prayed at all times; but at this time, His prayer was for the ones of us who believe in Him. He prayed that we might be kept both in youth and age if we but believed. Next Sunday, He will pass on the road to Jerusalem, weeping not for Himself, but for the sins of that great city. His grief becoming so great He cried out, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her brood under her wings, and ye would not." He loves us just as great.

The pastor spoke for the Junior Church on "I come not to call the righteous but the sinner to repentance". Robt. Jackson and Haywood Taylor joined the church and will be baptized next Sunday morning. William Coleman will receive the church vows.

At 11:00, the pastor spoke on "God's care for His people". Mrs. G. Garland, Mrs. Jones, both of whom have been very ill, were at the service. Mrs. M. Rouhlac is much improved.

The Loyal Matrons Pew Rally was a huge success, thanks to the public.

Mrs. J. D. Lewis was guest speaker at the Epworth League. The Forward Step and the Loyal Matrons are having a social meeting at the home of Mrs. Sara Finner, 2618 Hamilton street.

Next Sunday is Quarterly Meeting. Rev. L. E. Rosser will be in charge of the services. Rev. A. Phillips of Bethel A.M.E. will preach the 3:00 p. m. sermon.

Our thought for the week—"Whoever exalted himself shall be abased and he that humbled himself shall be exalted."

St. John A.M.E. Church,
'The Friendly Church'
Rev. R. A. Adams, Pastor

With the Easter season drawing nearer and nearer, the interest and spirit around the church and Sunday School is steadily increasing.

Rev. Adams preached both morning and night services. Sunday morning his subject was "The Lost Christ" and in the evening "The Absent Christ". From these two subjects very strong sermons were preached. The spiritual aspect at the morning service ran unusually high. The Holy Spirit was very much in evidence from the choir stand to the back of the church. We only pray that such Spirit may continue.

No sick list was turned in, but we wish for our sick a speedy recovery.

Easter Sunday will be a banner day at St. John. The Sunday School will have its program during the Sunday School hour. Bishop Noah Williams will preach at the morning service, and the choir will have its Easter cantata at 7:30 p. m. You cannot afford to miss these services.

After Easter the choir will start giving its fourth Sunday All Request program. Request for songs should come to us as early as possible. You can give such requests to any member of the choir or to the pastor of the church.

Read your church, social and fraternal news in The Guide. Mr. S. E. Gilbert, the new circulation manager, is working very hard to keep you informed through The Guide.

IN MEMORIAM Alma Zett Allen

1875-1936
MY MOTHER

My Mother's sweet and and shining face,
Reflected her noble charm and grace.
She is the dearest one to me,

'None other like her, will you see.
She is the one who cheered when sad,

And loved me whether good or bad.
She shared my sorrows and my joys,

Since as a child I played with toys,
And when the shades of evening fell,

I hear her tender, loving call,
For me to rest from toil and play,

To thank our God and kneel and pray.
She inspires me to do my best,

And up to me will be the rest.
You see now what she means to me.

I'll do my best to make her see,
That I appreciate what she has always sacrificed for me.—

Mrs. Paul Barnett,
Sisters and Brothers.

THIS WEEK IN RELIGION AND THOUGHT

(by Robert L. Moody)

A Tribute to Negro Womanhood: "Be calm, be steadfast, be courageous;" this is the motto of Mary McLeod Bethune, as quoted from the Literary Digest. We appreciate its liberal tribute to an "Angel" of our group. We hope that the optimism she expresses will increase greatly. Mrs. Bethune says that "common hardships that hitherto has been absent," are welding a mutual interest.

Oh, for more real women with a vision—women who will inspire our hundreds of girls in Omaha and elsewhere to rise above degenerate conditions. someone has prayed, "God give us men." Yes, Lord, also give us women who will be calm, steadfast and courageous.

Palm Sunday, March 21st, is celebrated as the day when Christ was acclaimed King by the multitude.

Many of our churches will be crowded with worshippers with palms in their hands. The palm is sign of victory and peace. Though we have little midst of chaos, we may have hope for social peace in the peace and prove the Lordship and Kingliness of Christ by having today, but tomorrow it may cry crowd. It may place you on high.

Beware of the praise of a King Him enthroned in our hearts. today may sigh tomorrow, "Crucify him". "Fame is a vapour; popularity accident; riches take wings. Those who cheer The one thing that endures is character."
