Sunday school opened at the usual hour with an attendance of 97. The lesson was reviewed by Dr. Jones, who made some very interesting remarks. Come again, Dr. Jones, we are always glad to have you. The Junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. Bryant, furnished music. After several selections were rendered by the choir. Mr. J. A. Willis of St. John A. M. E. church was introduced. He gave a wonderful oration on "Negro Youth as Kingdom Builders." We bid you God speed, Mr. Willis, as we do not have many young men who are taking a stand on this particular subject. A large audience witnessed the young people's splendid program. Rev. Curry made a short talk on the crucifixion of Christ. The NAACP had a meeting at 3 p. m. Some of our leading men of the state and city were present. H. Y. P. U. was well attended. Two of the groups rendered a program that was really worth while. Deacon Crawford Lindrum and Miss Ora Lee Britt are the leaders and we solicit for them your co-operation.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH Rev. M. B. Bilbrew, Pastor Minnie Bryant, Rep.

Services were good at Salem Sunday. The Sunday school started the day with a group of eager pupils to learn the word of God. The BYPU had an inspiring musical program which was conducted by Group No. 3. You miss a treat when you fail to visit the Salem BYPU. The tea which was sponsored by the Sunday school was a remarkable success.

At 11 a. m. Rev. C. C. Pettis brought to us a splendid gospel message from the 14th chapter of St. Luke, "Comp, for all things are now ready." At 8 p. m. he brought us another forceful message from the 21st chapter of St. Matthew and the tenth verse.

We are looking for our pastor Rev. M. B. Bilbrew to be with us next Sunday. Visitors are always welcome at Salem.
