

CLASSES TOUR LINCOLN.

Wednesday, March 10th, the English Literary and Commercial classes of which Mrs. Thelma Hancock and Miss Estelle Robertson are instructors made a tour of Lincoln on Wednesday, March, 10th.

On the way to Lincoln, Miss Estelle Robertson and Miss Anna Hilton were the life of the party. Funny jokes were told and songs were sung. They stopped in a little town for lunch, and then started on the left lap of the journey to Lincoln. They first visited the capitol on their arrival and saw many interesting things, and sat in the legislature for two hours. They then visited the agriculture building and then to the museum. They were desirous of visiting the penitentiary and the asylum, but Gov. Cochran explained to us the reason we could not do so.

Those present on the trip included Misses Vivian Wardell, Bessie Wyatt, Fannie Barrett, Arada Davis, Estelle Robertson, Thelma Hall, Mamie Johnson, Nova McCarter, Faithful Fair, Magic Kaglan, Ethel Jones, Mollie Reynolds, Nellie Bradshaw, Fannie Childs, Dolly Dixon, Anna Hilton and Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery.

THE WHAT KNOT CLUB

The What Knot held its regular meeting on Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Brummell, 2501 Corby street. After the business was attended to, a delightful luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Lillie Williams, president. Mrs. Danver Rich, sec'y.

The Crusaders club of the Metropolitan church closed its Help-Card drive Sunday afternoon. After a short, but very interesting program, we were inspired by an uplifting sermon by Rev. Garnett. His subject was, "Prayer Changes Things." We wish to graciously thank every one for what was given to help make this drive a financial success. The club held its regular meeting on Monday evening at Sister Woody's after the usual routine of the evening, the club discussed new plans for the future. The club decided to have an age donation rally which will close Apr. 12th. We had as a visitor, Mrs. Williams, formerly of South Omaha. You are always welcome to meet with us every Monday at the parsonage.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Tuesday, March 9th, a most successful surprise party was given on Mr. W. M. Cooper, 2508 Blondo street. Mrs. Cooper was enticed away by her husband, Mr. W. M. Cooper and during her absence a total of fourteen guests arrived. Shortly before nine o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper arrived at their darkened home. To her surprise, on entering the door, all the lights flashed on and a chorus of voices greeted her with "Happy Birthday to You." The surprise was such a shock to Mrs. Cooper that she, not able to see what was happening, fled to her car, but was caught before she could escape.

She was presented with a dark-grey manish suit, gray shoes, gloves and a purse. She expressed her deep appreciation for the beautiful gifts. The evening was well spent with different amusements, one of which was the pinning on of the donkey's tail. This was won by Mrs. El Porter. A most delightful and delicious repast of a buffet luncheon was served and a large birthday cake was baked by Mrs. E. L. Young. Among the guests were Mesdames Matthews, O. Brown, Harrison, McKinney, Singleton, C. Cole, E. Porter; Messrs. J. Smith, Lorenza, Rosebaugh, Jackson, James, Nelson John Rosebaugh and the Masters Ezra L. and Terry Young. Each guest, after receiving a most unique novelty, departed acknowledging the fact that a most enjoyable evening had been spent. The party was sponsored by Mrs. Redden and Mr. Wm. M. Cooper.
