Priscilla Needlecraft Club

The Priscilla Needlecraft Club met at the home of Mrs. Mary Harold, 2211 N. 28th Ave., on Mar. 25. The afternoon was spent in sewing.

The next meeting will be on April 8, at the home of Mrs. Marie McDaniels, 2866 Corby.

Les Debutantes Club

Les Debutantes Club was organized a few months ago. The officers are:

- President, Pearl Winston
Secretary-treasurer, Myrtle Thomas
Critic, Arwilda Stevenson
Sgt. at Arms, Alberta Bell
Reporter, Juanita Lett.
Other members are: Julia Dorden, Elaine Mease, Johnette Coleman.

Last month they gave a social in honor of Myrtle Thomas and Juanita Lett's birthdays. Our guests were Jasper Cole, Joe Melton, LeRoy Brice, W. D. Turner, David Hall, Harold Biddix, Willie Hill and Albert Harison.

The club meets every Sunday. Watch for our next write-up very soon

The Nebraska League of Women Voters wish to announce that weekly meetings on Thursdays will be resumed. The members met at the home of Mrs. Vera Graham, 2500 Grant street, on Thursday, March 18th. They were served a delicious repast.

The Willing Worker club met Thursday, March 25th, at the home of the president, Mrs. Mayberry, 2422 Erskine. The president opened the club as usual with prayer and songs of the gospel. After all business transactions were over, Sister Gordon served a lovely luncheon and everyone had a nice time. The president was glad to have so many members out and thankful to all of the members for their cooperation.

Wirephotos with the News

What Wirephoto means to a newspaper reader was again strikingly shown last Friday. The World Herald published 13 photographs with the news of the Texas disaster in its morning home edition. No other Nebraska paper had any pictures of the tragedy in its morning edition. None had more than two in its evening home edition.

Mrs. Etta Burrell, 2527 Lake street is home after an extended illness in a local hospital.

Mrs. Minnie Herndon, Council Bluffs, and Mrs. Anna Boggs of Omaha were guests at a St. Patrick's Tea on March 17th, at the home of Mrs. Martha Mayo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Porter, 2013 No. 23rd street, were hosts at a six o'clock dinner Sunday, honoring Miss Dieliah Porter.

The table's centerpiece was unique—a flower made from large grapefruit, which contained many colorful bits of fruit. At each end of the table, yellow taper, in white duck holders, burned brightly. Edible lilies were to be seen. The cover was a lovely cream blue lace.

Corner's Neighborhood Store is now featuring an attractive line of Ladies and Men's hose, Ladies' like Children's slippers, Traveling bags, floor lamps, Radios and Refrigerators. The household necessities may be obtained free through a new trading stamp set up at this store.

The Junior Homemakers held a tea March 21st at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vanoy, 2510 Charles St., from 3 until 7 o'clock. It was very successful, both financially and in attendance. At 5 o'clock the guests enjoyed a musical. Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Wilmouth Houston, Mrs. Porter, Miss Peck and Mr. Wm. Davis, accompanied by Miss C. Dixon.
