MITCHELL'S ANTI-LYNCH BILL DEFEATED

Challenges Color Bar In Subway Union

New York Subway Workers File Protest with LaGuardia

Chicago—Following a conference with a number of Negro subway conductors and motormen, who were ex-Pullman porters and members of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car porters, on the color bar in the B. R. T. against Race membership, the Union which started out to organize the workers on the Independent Subway System. A. Phillip Randolph, International President of the Brotherhood, called Mayor LaGuardia, of New York, and arranged a conference for Mr. Ashley L. Totten, International Secretary-Treasurer, with a group of Negro subway conductors and motormen for protest against the alleged city sanctions of the organization of the subway workers by one of the Big Four Brotherhood Unions which discriminates against Negro workers.

As a result of the conference with a large delegation of Negro subway motormen and conductors, led by Totten, Mayor LaGuardia issued the following statement: "No union would be recognized on the city system that draws a color line on that system." "Of Course," said the Mayor, "we are not going to tell them what to do on the Pennsylvania Railroad, or some other system."

Goodwill Spring Music Creating Great Interest

By L. L. McVay

Now that the Easter programs are all over the choirs have their interest centered on the Third Annual Goodwill Spring Musical, featuring Omaha's leading choirs, assisted by the City Service Orchestra on the fourth Sunday, April 25th, at Pilgrim Baptist church, 25th and Hamilton streets, 2:45 p. m.

Many of the choirs have been working on their part of the program for some time. It is expected that all are doing the same. It has been asked by some choirs taking part if all choirs are to have on black robes. To this question, I will say again that you are to picture to us your choir as it appears at your church. You use your regular robes. However, you are to be dressed in vested robes, and not only dressed in your street clothes. You should also have your copy of the group numbers that are to be directed by Rev. J. S. Williams. You cannot do your best without the music, as these numbers will be some of the best features of the program. We hope you will put forth every effort to help make them so.

Elks Lodge Hold Mother, Son Party

In keeping with the custom established a year ago, April 10th, a Mother-Son party for the Junior Herd was held Monday night April 5th. The mothers of boys between the ages of 12 and 18 were invited providing they brought their sons with them. Rev. R. A. Adams of St. John AME church delivered the principal address. The sponsors of the John Henry Lewis fighting show promised to give all of the members of the Herd a free ticket to the fight. Members of the Herd who are not financial can pay their dues to the Treasurer, Mr. C. B. Mayo at the Elks building.

Mrs. Marie Coulter, 2702 Maple street, has returned from the hospital after undergoing a serious operation. She is doing nicely.

WINS PRIZE

Mrs. Anna Hilton, popular entertainer, won first prize in a radio contest at the Rome hotel. A cash prize was awarded. She sang and played several numbers and was the only contestant receiving an encore. This isn't the only prize that Mrs. Hilton has won, having been one of the winners on a Major Bowes program. Mrs. Hilton is being signed for radio work so we will be hearing from her soon.

S. S. Brennan Lands In New York

Mr. and Mrs. G. Rayburn White returns after 3 years in Europe

Gives Thanks

The pastor and officers of the Morning Star Baptist church wish to express our deepest appreciation to our many friends and parents for their cooperation in our Easter Day program. We feel it was one of the best we have ever had with the pains taken by our program committee, assisted by Mrs. W. E. Fredericks and Mrs. Lee McGee, did their best to make this a day of Thanksgiving and praise to our maker and redeemer. It was indeed a splendid program rendered by our Sunday school and BYPU Little Misses Marian White and Margie Payne, ages 2 year, spoke their parts well. Remember Morning Star Baptist is where peace and harmony abides. Come with us and we will do thee good.

Large Crowd Attend Quack Club Style Show

One of the most brilliant affairs of the season was at the beautiful decorated Dreamland ballroom, given by the Quack Club, a charming and popular group of young women who proved ideal hostesses to some 500 or more persons Monday night at their 8th annual Style Show.

The ballroom was garbed in a white and green color scheme with the orchestra stand at a distance portraying the setting of an evening sun against green palms and white summer suits worn by Harold's Syn-Co High Hatters, in the South Sea Island, indeed a beautiful spectacle to behold. The frocks worn by the young ladies reflected the tone of the gay decorations. To have seen the gorgeous gowns paraded by some of Omaha's most beautiful girls would most assuredly cause one to forget that there ever was a depression. Passing before your very eye were beautiful young damsels attired in gowns of White Moire, pink crepe with matching accessories, Aqua marine with old accessories, white satin with red accessories, black crepe with rhinestone accessories, turquoise blue satin, and white satin.

The show was divided into four scenes, Garden, Sports, Street, Cocktail and evening; climaxing with a wedding scene. Aside from the show mentioned show were models for hair dress featuring Michael Beauty Shoppe, Homer McCraney Beauty Salon, Althouse Beauty Salon, Willa Johnson Beauty Salon, Mildred Turner Beauty Shoppe, Alice Moore Beauty Shoppe, Don Rose Beauty Shoppe, Martha Mills Grow Gloss Beauty Shop and the Wilson Beauty School. Among the creators and sponsors of some of the gowns worn by the beauty models were: Mr. John Smith, Mr. I. S. McPherson, Kilpatrick department store, Trojan club; Aloha club, YWCA Membership Committee and the Entre Nous club.

The Honorable Mayor, Johnny Owen was the master of Ceremony for this gala event.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, 31st and R Sts., are visiting and vacationing in Texas. Mrs. Nelson is planning to remain in Hot Springs for treatment.

Mrs. Ida Riddles, sponsor and director of the Annual Style Show, presented at Allen Chapel AME Church, South Omaha, wishes to thank all persons who took part in any way in making the Style Show a success. Especially is it desired that these persons accept not only the appreciation of Mrs. Riddles, but the pastor and the entire church membership is grateful to the Swanson Florist Shop, Brandeis Store, Mrs. Ella Gibbs and others who gave floral donations and equipment for the stage.

Mother H. B. Crockett of Kansas City, Mo., has arrived in our city and is the house guest of Mother L. W. Robinson, 2723 N. 23rd Ave. She will visit with the Church of God in Christ and other missions while in the city.

Mrs. Sametta Moore, formerly of Omaha, but now living at Detroit, Mich., fell and broke her arm. She is convalescing at the home of her niece, Mrs. Beatrice Napier, 2616 N. 27th street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Ramsey, 2902 No. 28th street, visited in Fremont with the Herndon family.

The vote was 256 against to 122 for.

Since the Mitchell measure has been defeated, the house will be forced to take action on the Joseph Gavanan (New York) anti-lynch bill which is favored by the NAACP and the entire Negro press.

When the Mitchell bill was given a hearing before the house judiciary committee on Wednesday of last week both those for and against were heard. Nevertheless, the committee okayed the bill and sent it to the house for action.

At the same time, Congressman Gavanan sent a petition to the judiciary which forced his bill out of the committee's hands and before the house on April 12th as the next order of business. All efforts to thwart Gavanan's move failed.

For years, Congressman Hatton W. Sumners of Texas, chairman of the judiciary committee, has boasted that no hearings on an anti-lynching bill would ever be held before him, yet when the Gavanan discharge petition was filed, he suddenly announced that he would hold a hearing on the Mitchell bill.
