CLAIR CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH

Rev. W. C. Conwell, Pastor
Georgia Goosby, Reporter

The Sunday school started the day's program, and a wonderful thought was gained from the lesson, "Delinquance Through Obedience." This was the first Sunday in the new pastoral year, we were glad to have our pastor return to us and we pray that this year will be more successful than last year. His report at the conference was outstanding and gained the applause of the entire conference. The morning message was brought to us by Rev. Streeter of Ft. Madison, Ia. His subject was "That Wicked City." His thoughts were centered on being true messengers for Christ, and the need of being true to ourselves. At the evening worship, Rev. Streeter again preached from John 15:21. His subject was "Love God Supreme." To let God rule supreme in our lives we can have love—one for another.

We regret to report the illness of Brother Donald Clark and Sister Eula Gillum. We pray for them a speedy recovery. The other sick of the church are improving. Visitors are always welcome to Clair Chapel.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. M. K. Curry, Pastor
C. E. Reynolds, Reporter

Sunday school opened at 9:30 a. m. with a large number present. Many helpful thoughts were brought out in the lesson.

At 11 o'clock, the service was opened by a very inspiring prayer service, after which the junior choir led the processional by singing, "Holy, Holy Holy" followed by Deacon R. Taylor, sr. A beautiful and inspiring sermon was preached by pastor Curry. The text was taken from Hebrews 11:24-25. One central thought was we should know the will of God and do it. The subject was: "Significance and Choice of Decision," was very plainly portrayed in the discourse throughout the sermon. Sunday night Rev. Curry preached a short sermon from the first Psalms, reminding us that the ungodly man cannot enjoy the fullness of life. "The Nehemiah club," which is the men's club of Zion church, gave a box social Thursday evening, April 22nd in the church dining room. It was a decided success. All who were present enjoyed themselves immensely.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH

2428 Franklin Street
Rev. A. Phillips, Pastor

At 11 o'clock, the pastor preached an inspiring message from Genesis 49:4. His subject was "Unstable as Water, Thou Shall Not Excel." In the afternoon, Rev. Phillips and family motored to Fremont, Nebr., to attend the Quarterly Meeting of H. D. Piggue. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bruner and Rev. Butler.

At the evening service, Rev. H. D. Piggue preached an interesting sermon from St. Luke, 24:49. The ACE League met at the usual hour. The lesson was very interesting and each one present took an active part. The subject for Sunday, May 2nd is, "How I Propose to Make My Vocation Christian." The Senior Stewardess Board is sponsoring a May Breakfast at the home of Mrs. Sloan, 2428 Decatur street on Thursday, May 6th. The Junior Stewardess board will have a backyard luncheon on Wednesday, May 5th at the home of Mrs. Brownlow, 2810 Ohio street.

METROPOLITAN CHURCH

Rev. R. W. Johnson, Pastor
Mrs. Willie Varner, Reporter

Due to the high wind and snow, the attendance at the Metropolitan was small on Sunday morning. Rev. Johnson preached a wonderful sermon from Exodus 37:27. His subject was "Unthankful." The spirit of the Lord was truly there. Four souls were united to the church. At 6 o'clock, Union time Mrs. Crumbley would be very happy to have you come out and enroll. Mrs. Patsy Woody is the teacher. At 8 o'clock, Rev. Johnson preached from Exodus 32:10. His subject was "Let Me Alone." There was a large attendance to witness the sermon. Don't forget the Mother's Day Drama at 8 o'clock. The play is written and directed by the pastor. There will also be an operetta given with the play. I am sure you will enjoy this wonderful play, so come early and get a seat. Rev. Johnson will leave for Gary, Indiana for a visit of two weeks. The membership wish him a lovely trip.

To the Mothers, Sisters and Daughters of Omaha: You are cordially invited to attend the Women's Day program on Sunday, Mother's Day at 3:30 p. m. at the Metropolitan Spiritual Church of Christ. This day has been set aside as Women's Day at the Metropolitan. Mrs. Beulah Johnson will be in charge. There will also be a program rendered by the Ladies of the church and city. We also invite the fathers, husbands and sons to come out and see what the women of today can do. If anyone would like to take part in this wonderful program, see or call Mrs. G. Mayberry, 2217 Ohio street WE 3954.

ST. JOHN AME CHURCH

"The Friendly Church"
Rev. R. A. Adams, Pastor

The cold snow and rain caused a decrease in the number attending St. John on Sunday. The unexpected cold weather kept the children at home, but we hope with a change in the weather they will again come out as Children's Day is so near. Rev. Adams preached a very interesting sermon at 11 o'clock. In the afternoon, Rev. Adams delivered a brief address at the Goodwill Spring Musical on the subject, "The Relation of the Choirs to Public Worship."

The quarterly meeting will be at St. John next Sunday. Dr. Adam is asking that all report so he can make a good report and make it on time. The choir is to be commended for the showing it made at the Goodwill Spring Musical. Mr. McVay, president of the choir, is very much pleased with the spirit of cooperation shown on the part of all. Read the Omaha Guide and keep well posted on your church, social and fraternal news.

MORNING STAR BAPTIST CHURCH

2608 Franklin Street
Rev. Wm. Pruitt, Pastor
Mrs. W. E. Fredericks, Reporter

Sunday school attendance was only fair, due to the inclement weather. At 11:30 a. m. the pastor was at his best in bringing to us a burning message from Genesis 1:1. His subject was "Come In." At 3 p. m. the city-wide mission was in session. Mrs. Billingsley is president. The sermon was preached by Rev. Collins of St. Luke Baptist church. At 6 p. m. BYPU attendance was good. A lovely program was rendered by the Ladies group. At 8 p. m. the pastor again brought to us another burning message from Matthew 26:39. His subject was "Go A Little Further." The Chocolate Sip given at the home of Mrs. McGee, 2810 Seward street, under the auspices of the Mission Circle was a success. Come thou with us and we shall do thee good." We welcome you.

CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD C. W. F. F.

2316 No. 25th Street
Mrs. Marie Wright, President
Mrs. Pearl Farmer, Sec'y

The Missionary Board opened at the usual hour in the usual manner. The president read for an opening lesson First Peter, 2:1-17. Many good thoughts were taken from the lesson. The house was announced as being opened for business. The roll was called and dues were paid. We were then favored with a lecture from a visitor, Sister Mack. As this was devoted to lesson, our teacher came forward and taught her class from Matthew Fifth Chapter.

Much good understanding was given. The meeting was dismissed by repeating the 23rd Psalms. The next meeting will be a social meeting. Visitors are welcome.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

29th and T Streets
Rev. P. J. Sears, Pastor

In spite of the cold weather, the church school was opened as the usual hour. Mother Margaret Bolds, timely talk closing with a beautiful quotations added each to the life of the school.

In the midday service, Rev. Sears preached on the subject of "Sin Wrongs the Soul." This was a burning message delivered with power.

The Young People's Union is growing nicely. For the past two Sundays, at the close of the meeting, the subject "Would It Be Better For a Community If the So-Called Good People Were Separated from the So-Called Bad People?" has been discussed. Due to the interest on both sides, the pastor was called to climax the discussion after the allotted time had been used.

Next Sunday the subject for discussion will be, "Marriage; 'What Should Young Girls Accomplish; 'At What Age Should Girls Be Before They Marry.'" The Mission Sisters will present the "Questionnaire," a pageant on the 14th of May at the church at 8 p. m.

CLEAVES' TEMPLE C. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. D. W. Bass, Pastor
Mrs. Henryetta Makins, Reporter

Due to the inclement weather, the crowd was not so great, but Sunday was a very beneficial day. Sunday school was well attended. Due to the illness of her two sons, Mrs. Stamp was absent. Mrs. Gray was reported as being ill. Mr. Haywood Taylor, the assistant superintendent is ill in St. Joseph hospital.

The pastor spoke for the junior church. He also preached a beautiful sermon on "Obedience," at the 11 o'clock service. Much was said to aid, guide and keep in Christ.

The Epworth League was very interesting. Miss Ora Lee Britt recited a poem entitled "Unfit the Negro for a Slave." Dr. Wesley Jones spoke from the words "I was glad when they said let us go into the house of the Lord." There were other renditions to complete the program.

The pastor spoke at the night service. The Loyal Matrons met this week at the home of Mrs. Bertha Bell. The "Attend the Youth Conference" contestants are progressing beautifully. This conference will be held in Little Rock Arkansas.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH

28th and Decatur Streets
Rev. M. B. Bilbrew, Pastor
Minnie Bryant, Rep.

Services were well attended at Salem Sunday in spite of the disagreeable weather. Our pastor brought a forceful message at 11 a. m. His text was found in Acts 16:16. He brought another soul-stirring message at 8 p. m. His text was found in St. Luke 8:54. Our pastor has been conducting a revival for the past week. Each night he spoke from his soul. He is preaching against hell and damnation. Next Sunday, he will state whether or not the revival will be continued. The members and friends of Salem regret very much the passing of Mother McCarthey. She was a loyal and faithful member of Salem.

The sick of the church are Mrs. Hannah Shine, Miss Hortense Pitts and Mr. Dyson. Visitors are always welcome at Salem.

THIS WEEK IN RELIGION AND THOUGHT

Robert L. Moody

TREE PLANTING

Today, as I write, we are celebrating Arbor Day, in which our state of Nebraska, is pioneer. Our love of nature and realization of the tragedy of dust storms and floods, cause us to be anxious to plant more trees to replenish the forest and to protect the fertility of the soil.

But there is also a religious significance. The righteous are like "trees planted by rivers of water; his fruit also shall not wither and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper." Every true child of God is the planting of the Lord.

We are often made to wonder about the dry, dead and formal profession of some people, because the Palmist seemed to have understood about "trees," therefore he likened the righteous unto them. "The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree; he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon" and "the trees of the Lord are full of sap." So there is no real excuse for being dry and dull Christian. We often find old people who are mean and contrary and they are referred to as being "old and childish." We would rather think of them as being "old and devilish" because the older a tree becomes, the sweeter and more seasoned the first should be; so we conclude with the Palmist: "They shall still bring forth fruit in old; they shall be fat and flourish ing."

CHURCH OF GOD

2025 No. 24th Street
Katie Johnson, Reporter

Sunday school was well attended. The lesson subject was "The Obedience of Noah," Gen. 5:28. Many thoughts were received from the lesson through Supt. Joe Eddens and others. Out of the most helpful thoughts was that we must obey God and do as He commands us to if we expect to see Him in peace, just as Noah obeyed God. Another thought was: just as men and women refuse to hear the voice of God through Noah, preaching in those days, so are they today revolting, banqueting and disobeying God's word. Friends, let each one of us see to it individually that we obey God in all things and be ready when He comes again and ever watch for His Coming.
