MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. P. Mosley, Pastor

The 14th anniversary of Mt. Olive church beginning May 3rd and ending May 9th, was very successful. We wish to thank the pastors, churches and choirs who came to us. It was a week of gospel feasting.

Sunday services for May 16th were well attended. Rev. Lain preached a powerful sermon at 11 o'clock. At the evening services at 8 o'clock, the pastor preached a soul-stirring sermon. His topic was "Follow Jesus." Two united with the church. Visitors are welcome.

ST. JOHN AME CHURCH

"The Friendly Church" Rev. R. A. Adams, Pastor

The threatening weather caused a drop in the attendance at Sunday school at St. John. The attendance at church, however, was as usual. Rev. Adams preached at the morning and evening services. These sermons were filled with spiritual food.

The sick of the church, Sisters Jones and Ankins, are just the same. We pray for their comfort. The Mother's Day financial drive was quite a success. We are now looking forward to Father's Day, which we hope will be just as successful.

The choir will have a very fine program on the fourth Sunday night, which will be May 24th. Don't miss this wonderful program. The May Day Festival, sponsored by the Omaha Guide at St. John AME church on Sunday turned out to be a gala affair. Mr. S. E. Gilbert and Miss Ethel Jones are to be commended for their fine work with the children.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

24th and Ohio Streets Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor Forysteen Burroughs, Reporter

It was a busy day at Mt. Moriah Sunday. The pastor preached two very able sermons both being highly spiritual. The fourth chapter of John was the background for the morning sermon.

The pastor will be out of the city during the week helping to conduct a revival. He asked an interest in the prayers of the church. The Holy Spirit manifested itself throughout the day and a number of persons expressed a desire to be remembered in his prayers as he labors during the week.

The pastor will be out of the city during the week helping to conduct a revival. He asked an interest in the prayers of the church. The Holy Spirit manifested itself throughout the day and a number of persons expressed a desire to be remembered in his prayers as he labors during the week.

The sick are Mrs. McCraty, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. C. Woods. Visitors and friends are always welcome.

CLEAVES' TEMPLE C. M. E.

Rev. D. W. Bass, Pastor Mrs. Henryetta Makins, Reporter

Dear Public: Have you taken on newness, freshness and vitality? Have you started your new work? Have you cleaned up, or are you still sleeping, waiting, putting off? If you are still hibernating, wouldn't it be well that you throw off your worn out self—the dull, dead hide, shed the out-lived thoughts and burdens? There is much to do but you cannot do it if you are not refreshed. So get up, start today. Do one task for God. What is a hard task today will be easy next time.

Sunday school was well attended. The lesson was interesting. The pastor spoke for the junior church, at the 11 a. m. sermon and at 8 p. m. All services were very spiritual with good attendance. The 11 o'clock service was especially spiritual, taken from Isaiah, "Jesus, the Wonderful Counsellor."

To the sick we say, "Make known unto the Lord thy case and He will help thee."

The thought for the day is, "O give thanks unto the Lord, make known His deeds among His people."

CLAIR CHAPEL M. E.

Rev. W. C. Conwell, Pastor Georgia Goosby, Reporter

Services were well attended throughout the day. The pastor preached from II Tim. 12:12 at the morning services. His subject was "Taking the Cross."

A very impressive service was sponsored by the young people during the League since it was anniversary day. The lighting of the Cross by the officers of the League was very beautifully portrayed as the duties of each were explained. Much credit is due Mr. Alvin Wilkes of Lincoln who always brings something of encouragement to this group.

At the evening service our pastor preached on "How to Prevent Quarrels."

Next Sunday is Quarterly Meeting and Sunday night is request song service. Come and hear your favorite song. Visitors are always welcome.

FIRST SPIRITUAL TEMPLE NO. 6

24th and Blondo Streets Daughter M. Quinn, Leader Rev. C. Jackson, Ass't Pastor

Morning Service, 11 o'clock Night service, 8 o'clock Tuesday night Bible class Thursday night, altar call, healing and prophesying by pastor.

We wish to thank our many friends and visitors for their co-operation in making our services a success while our visiting mothers were in charge. A beautiful spirit prevailed with each one who attended. Our honorable Mother Bishop Sutton of Kansas City and her co-workers are in our city and will conduct a revival indefinitely at First Spiritual Temple. Come out and hear this wonderful Evangelist and spiritual advisor and accept this food that will feed the weary soul.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH

2128 Franklin Street Rev. A. Phillips, Pastor

Sunday school opened at the usual hour. The pastor preached both morning and evening services. His sermons were inspiring. One united with the church.

At 6 p. m., the A. C. E. League met with the president in charge. The lesson was briefly discussed which was enjoyed by those present. The subject for Sunday, May 23rd, is "What Did Jesus Mean By Turning the Other Cheek?" Our thought for the week: "We will be tried as gold is tried in the fire and if it is pure gold it will come out all right. So when our enemies say and do all manner of things against us, let us be pure like gold."

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. M. K. Curry, Pastor C. E. Reynolds, Reporter

Sunday school was opened at 9:30 a. m. 138 were present. The subject of the lesson was, "Isaac, A Man of Forebearance." Great enthusiasm was manifested on the part of all.

At the 11 a. m. sermon, Rev. Curry preached. His text was taken from Revelations 6th chapter.

B. Y. P. U. was well represented in each group. President Crawford is wide awake in his efforts to make the Union a success.

At 8 o'clock, the pastor preached from the subject 'Peace.' It was beautifully illustrated.

MT. NEBO BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. G. Gates, Pastor Dolly Dixon, Reporter

The Mt. Nebo Sunday school was well attended, and much was gained from the lesson.

Morning service was a happy occasion as everyone spoke of the many good things "mother," had done for them, followed by a wonderful message from our pastor. We had with us three visitors, whom we are always glad to have.

At three o'clock our rally went forth well attended with the speaker of the hour, Rev. Moseley, who delivered a good message.

The evening service was well attended and all enjoyed the message.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH

28th and Decatur Streets Rev. M. B. Bilbrew, Pastor Minnie Bryant, Reporter

Services were very good at Salem Sunday. The Sunday school was very well attended. The class rally sponsored by the Sunday school was a remarkable success. Don't forget the Birthday Dinner Party sponsored by the Sunday school.

At 11 a. m., our pastor brought to us a splendid gospel message.

The B. Y. P. U. had a very inspiring radio program under the auspices of Group No. 4. Mrs. Constance Cole is captain.

Baptism was at 7:30 p. m. Six were candidates for baptism. On last Sunday, 15 persons were taken into the church. Our pastor brought another soul stirring message at 8 p. m. The members taken into the church were given the right hand of fellowship and a very helpful and necessary talk by the pastor. The rally sponsored by the church reached its goal of $121.47. Rev. Bilbrew is sparing no pains in preaching the gospel. He poured out his soul, and is doing much towards the saving of souls. Visitors are always at Salem.

FREESTONE BAPTIST CHURCH

26th and Hamilton Streets Rev. Thomas, Pastor

The beautiful weather on Mother's Day helped to bring forth the beautiful spirit of love of Mother's Day at the church. The program for the day was held Sunday night at 7:30. Sister Burton opened the program with a special prayer, after which Mrs. Joseph Lewis gave the Mother's Day address. The Freestone Mystery Four gave several numbers. Many wonderful thoughts were brought to us through papers. Papers were read by Mesdames L. Sherman, Pinky Oliver, Travis, M. White and Miss Annie Oliver. We wish to thank each and everyone for their presence and for their financial aid.

ST. BENEDICT PARISH

The following were the lucky winners in the Doll Chance contest. Mr. Vandrusky, 72nd and Center Sts., won first prize. Mrs. Jensen, 2306 Grant street, won second prize.

Mr. Ray Fox, Dowling Hall Creighton university, won third prize. Prizes for selling chances were won by Winifred Harper, Elaine Davis, Otis Keys, Edna Taylor, and Gloria J. Claxton.

Rev. Bell to Speak In South Omaha

Rev. J. C. Bell, pastor of the Quinn Chapel A. M. E. church in Lincoln, Neb., will be the guest speaker at Allen Chapel A. M. E. church in South Omaha at 3 p. m. on Sunday, May 30th, at which time the third quarterly meeting services of Allen Chapel will be held.

Rev. Bell is a former pastor of historic Bethel A. M. E. church of this city. He is well known in Omaha, as well as throughout the entire fifth Episcopal district.

Accompanying the Reverend will be the famous choir of Lincoln, Neb., that was heard on a special radio broadcast two weeks ago over station KFAB.

Rev. D. C. Stephenson of Allen Chapel church stated a great service was being planned for the visitors who shall come from Lincoln on the fifth Sunday. He is confident a large crowd will be out to hear this great gospel minister. Also the man who is acting leader of the district since the death of the Presiding Elder will be present. Let us come out and hear Rev. Bell his choir and have a grand time.

Stomach Gas So Bad Seems To Hurt Heart

"The gas on my stomach was so bad I could not eat or sleep. Even my heart seemed to hurt. A friend suggested Adlerika. The first dose I took brought me relief. Now I eat as I wish, sleep fine and never feel better."

—Mrs. Jas. Filler.

Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels while ordinary laxatives act on the lower bowels only. Adlerika gives your system a thorough cleansing, bringing out old, poisonous matter that you would not believe was in your system and that has been causing gas pains, sour stomach, nervousness and headaches for months.

Dr. H. L. Shook, New York, reports: "In addition to intestinal cleansing, Adlerika greatly reduces bacteria and colon bacilli."

Give your bowels a REAL cleansing with Adlerika and see how good you feel. Just one spoonful relieves GAS and stubborn constipation.
