M. L. O.—Please tell me in the column this week what is the matter with things? I can't ever see the man I love.

Ans: Things will continue to be wrong for this man has ended the affair that existed between you so. He doesn't care any more and it will do no good whatever to try to run after him. Forget that you ever knew him.

N. B.—I have an aunt in Missouri and I want to know why she doesn't answer my letters? Is she mad with me?

Ans: She isn't mad at any of her relatives...but she is a wise old fox. She knows that members of her family are taking an active interest in her because she has a little money and she isn't having too much to do with anyone.

T. W.—I found a note that my husband wrote. Tell me what he wanted to see these parties about? Am I right in accusing him and what must I do to stop it?

Ans: Stop nagging your husband. No, he isn't guilty of anything but you surely are accusing him of things that he isn't concerned about. It will pay you in the long run to lay off your husband for he is the now.

of Glenwood, Ia. Miss Virginia Holliday and Mrs. Louise Jackson, Mrs. Gladys Turner, Mr. Horace Goodlow, to wish Mr. Horace Goodlow, on a pleasant trip. Mr. Goodlow will leave June 5th for Colorado and I hope where he will visit a brother and other relatives.

E. A. J.—Answer this two in one question for me. Am I going to get promoted and does the boy I love care enough to marry me?

Ans: You had better get promoted for a young war will take place in your home...but you really don't have to worry for you have every chance of getting promoted. No...the boy you have in mind does not love you nor would he marry you. He won't be guilty of ROBBING ANYONE'S CRADLE.

O. T. E.—Does the old man that is trying to go with me care and will he mean anything to my future?

Ans: He will if you will allow it...but for heaven's sake why do you want some old fellow 25 years your senior, who is about ready to get down in an easy chair for the rest of his life. Turn your attentions to the young man who has been making advances to you. He is the catch of the season.

H. J. A.—I was thinking of going away. Will I get a good job? Also could I get a private reply?

Ans: You stand a mighty good chance of getting better employment by going into a larger city. Try it while you have a few months to yourself this summer. If you desire a private reply send a quarter for my new Astrology Reading and I will gladly give you my free opinions on three questions. Send full name, birthdate and correct address.
