The Rev. Victor Emanuel Holly, who assumed charge of St. Phillip's Episcopal churh following the death of the Rev. John Albert Williams, four years ago, has resigned and accepted a can to St. Phillip's church in St. Paul, Minn.. He left Thursday for his new post. Rev. Mr. Holly is a native of Haiti and is the grandson of Bishop James L. Holly, first colored bishop of the Protestant Episoopal church in America.

During his stay at St. Phillip's ,the church has progressed steadily. He prepared and presented four classes to the bishop for confirmation, totaling 72 persons. Financially, the church is better off than at any time in its history. Rev. Mr. Holly has also taken an active interest in civic affairs of the city and has endeared himself to many during his residence among us. The Omaha Guide wishes him Godspeed and success in his new work.
