Beau Brummel Dance Proves Lovely Affair

The Decoration Day dance of the Beau Brummel club, Monday May 31st at the beautiful Dreamland ballroom was one which won commendation from over 500 persons who came early and danced into the wee hours of the morning to the swing music of Nat Towles and his 14 Southern Gentlemen.

The already beautiful ball room was draped in patriotic colors of red and white, which proved fitting to the day and blended perfectly with the soft lights and the beautiful gowns worn by the smiling ladies, interspersed with the sport combination of white coats and dark trousers donned by the Beau Brummel gentlemen.

Out-of-town guests were plentiful, Des Moines, Sioux City, Lincoln, Kansas City, Council Bluffs and St. Louis were well represented.

MODERN ART CLUB

The club was beautifully represented by six of its members in the coronation of the Hollis Art club of Council Bluffs, Ia., at Eagle Hall on May 27th. The duchesses from the realm of Omaha were Mesdames Nicholson, Rogers, McVay, Sterling and Jowers. All were beautiful in spring formals in pastel shades. The annual birthday party for the members of the club was scheduled for June 18th, but owing to the unexpected absence of several members the party has been postponed until their return in the fall. Mrs. Erving, Mrs. Hooper and Miss Calhoun attended the coronation as guests.

Urban League Notes

The Junior Auxiliary of the Omaha Urban League is sponsoring an all day conference on "Youth in our Community" on Monday, June 7th, for the purpose of getting an incite on the problems of youth today as they affect the young people of our community.

They plan a very interesting day. At a ten o'clock session there will be a speaker and open forum on "The Ideals of Youth." This promises to be quite a heated discussion because of the varying opinions. Miss Amelia Gearhart, who has worked with young people for over a period of years successfully as a teacher at Omaha Municipal university, will be the principle speaker.

The luncheon meeting will be spiced with community singing and an inspirational talk by Mr. Benard Squires.

At 3:30 there will be a panel discussion led by Mrs. M. Rhone on the problems of youth today, with the following persons participating: Lawrence Smith, Crismon Clark, as the boys' viewpoint; Mary Hetta Wiggins, Patricia Redd, as the girls' viewpoint, Dr. Herbert Wiggins, as a father; Mrs. Mabel Davis as a mother; and Mrs. Evelyn E. Murray, as to health and the viewpoint of an older sister. They close the conference with a lovely dancing party in the evening.

Mother Rachael Allen, High Mother of 1st Spiritual Ass'n., who has been the house guest of Daughter Marion Quinn for the past month, will leave for her home in Leavenworth, Kas., on Friday morning.

New York, May 28—Charles Weschcke of St. Paul, Minn., for many years a contributor to the work of the N. A. A. C. P., has just made his annual contribution, and with it sends the following word of appreciation for the association's work:

"My, what an amount of work you and your colleagues have put forth the past year! And more and more as the years go by, steady progress is made. Often enough discouraging indeed but men of vision never falter. I wish I could take your hand and press it to show my personal appreciation but that being impossible I enclose my usual check."

Mrs. L. A. Gardner, 2503 Grant street, prominent in civic, social and religious works, and who has lived in Omaha since 1914, received her certificate in public speaking from Central high school on June 2nd. Mrs. Gardner enters this class last September. She stated to an Omaha Guide reporter that she was very happy to receive this certificate and that since her son, the late Lararus Gardner, prominent radio artist, had passed, she, being the only one left, decided to carry on as best she could. She did not feel that she could fill his place, yet she thought that there was something she could do, so she enrolled in the public speaking class at Central high school. Mrs. Gardner is the owner of several pieces of property in Omaha and a member of St. John A.M.E. church. She is dearly loved by all who know her.

Over 200 Guests Enjoy Spring Party

One of the largest parties of this season among the younger set was held Thursday night, May 27th at the Fontenelle Pavillion, with Misses Annfelse McGee and Lovetta Hawkins appearing as the cordial co-hostesses of the evening.

The young ladies were attired in beautiful spring frocks and sport suits which was indeed in keeping with the season of spring, this was appropriately matched by smartly dressed young men.

Among those who helped make the party a gala affair were as follows: Mr. Jeffery and William Taylor, Miss Ruth Levison, Miss Lois Farthing, Mr. Leroy Broomfield, Woodson Center Ball team, Miss Mary Harris and cousins, Mr. Harold Biddieux, Mr. Huey Harper and sisters, Miss Mary Stewart, Miss Hattie Northington, Mr. Robert Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Levison, Mr. Ernest Shields, Mr. Ellis Stephens and sister, Miss Effie Manuel, Cavalier Club, Miss Lucille Kemp and brother, Miss Lulu Mae Powell. Following the close of the lovely party many journeyed to the Ritz Sweet Shop.

The chaperons for the evening were Mrs. Eva Levison, Mrs. Edna Williams and Mrs. Falls.

Summer is really here—and you'll be leaving the city for weekends, if not for a lengthy vacation. Not having the right clothes may mar your good times in the country. Being both cool and comfortable will make one's pleasure more enjoyable. The 3-piece play-suit of washable material can be worn minus the skirt. Many prefer the slacks, or trousers, for hikes, romping, etc.

A son was born Saturday, May 29th at the Clarkson hospital, to Rev. and Mrs. V. E. Holly. Mother and son are doing nicely. Mrs. Holly was the former Louise Pryor, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Pryor. The Hollies have one other son, James.

'Y' Activities

It was erroneously stated in a previous issue that Betty Davis was the first Negro girl to serve on the inter-club council of the YWCA. Miss Davis is the second, as Miss Ora Lee Britt was the first to serve.

On Saturday and Sunday of this week, two delightful events have been planned for the graduates of 1937. The Up-to-Date and Blue Triangle clubs will entertain the grade school graduates from four until six on Saturday, May 5th. The Boy and Girl Forum committee, with Rachel Covington as chairman is planning a tea in honor of the high school and college graduates.

IT WAS LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT! AND I'M STILL "THAT WAY" ABOUT MY MODERN ELECTRIC ROASTER The very first time I saw a Modern Electric Roaster . . . and learned how easily, deliciously and cheaply I could cook with it. I was sold! And now I just put my meal in the Roaster, set the temperature control, and spend the afternoon as I please. You couldn't persuade me to go back to my tiresome "pot-watching" days.
