Uncle Gil Congratulates June Graduates

Urge Graduates to Send or Bring in Photographs

On behalf of the Omaha Guide, Uncle Gil takes great pleasure in extending greeting to the boys and girls who have completed or will complete in a few days the prescribed course of study and have graduated either from elementary or high school.

For the next few weeks this department will give much space to the graduates of the various schools, so if you happen to be a June graduate from either elementary or high school drop Uncle Gil a letter giving a short story about yourself. Remember, you can send your photo along and the only charge for the publishing of it will be first the short story of yourself and if you are not already a member of the Guidite club, a filled-out application for membership in the Guidite club found on this page.

Guidite Cultural Club

Heeding the call from the echo of the Guidite club May Day Festival, two Cultural clubs were formed during the past week, one at Bethel Baptist church, the home of the May Day Queen, Miss Priscilla Gilden, and the other at Metropolitan Spiritual church, the home of the maker of the May Day Queen, Mr. C. W. Porter.

The Guidite Cultural club of South Omaha, was organized Sunday, May 25th at 2:30 o'clock. There was an election of officers at the beginning of the meeting. The officers elected are as follows: Carrie McGinty, president; Doris Brown, vice president; Marjorie Arvis, secretary; Theresa Tinker, assistant secretary; Mrs. Mildred Roberts, treasurer; and Cecil Walls, newspaper reporter.

Miss Addie Foxall and Mrs. Roberts are sponsors.

It was suggested that we have a party out to Fontenelle park, June 5th. Our regular day for our club to convene will be Thursday at 5 o'clock. Our motto is a quitter never wins; a winner never quits. Dear Uncle Gil:

We as a club do thank you very much for extending your invitation to us asking us to join the Guidite club, as a South Omaha branch. We also appreciated your cooperation, during the May Festival. We will do all we can to take an active part in the Guidite program, by obeying the rules and regulations of the club.

Yours truly,
Guidite Cultural Club

Metropolitan Guidite Cultural Club

Officers: Mrs. J. A. Crumbley, president; and Mrs. C. W. Porter, vice president; co-sponsors: Miss Aquilla Ware, secretary; Miss Romella Hatter, treasurer; Master Paul Qualls, sergeant-at-arms; Master Edward Thomas, herald and Mrs. Deloris Simmons and Mrs. Arnold, co-music directors.

Uncle Gil is highly elated over the forming of these two clubs and is looking forward to great things from them in the future.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Twenty-five centuries ago a young Greek gingerly picked up a shield and joined his fellow townsmen to stand against the invading armies of Cyrus, the great. The young Greek was no hero when the fighting became too hot he threw down his shield and staged an orderly one-man retreat out of the anger zone.

Thus, strange as it seems, the national anthem of the United States, "The Star Spangled Banner" had its beginning in history.

The young Greek was Anacreon. He lived, by reason of his discretion, and became a famous poet. He sang the praise of wine and love much to the liking of old King Polycrates of Samos, who invited the happy young bard to join his court.

Most of Anacreon's poems were lost; but the spirit of his works lived on and about two thousand years later a group of his devotees in London organized the Anacreon Club, to perpetuate his memory. Somebody wrote a drinking song for the club and called it 'Anacreon in Heaven.' The tune is believed to have been borrowed from a peasant folk song from Brittany and were it heard, you would probably stand up and take off your hat. You would swear it to be 'The Star Spangled Banner.' In a way you would be right for the words that Francis Scott Key was inspired to write while on board a British battleship, on the night of September 14, 1814, during the bombardment of Fort M'Henry, were set to this tune of 'Anacreon in Heaven.' So it comes about that apparently the national anthem of the United States is sung to a French tune which was popularized as an English drinking song honoring a Greek poet.

YOUTH MARCHES FORTH

Already the vanguard is moving through graduation exercises, and during the coming few weeks the high schools and colleges will send great legions of youth marching out into the battle of life.

They go with high hopes and high courage, these young men and women who are bidding a final fare well to the sequestered peace and carefree joyousness of school days. Naturally some disillusionments awaits them, come disciplining in the school of hard knocks. That merely tempers the steel. Now parent you must not stop at graduating your dear ones but instead put on the girdle of cooperation and help prepare a place of livelihood for them.

Jokes

Director:—My jokes have my wife rolling on the floor, too.
Dancer:—What! You mean they are so funny as all that?
Director:—No, I mean they are about her being so plump.

Goof:—I'd like to bet five dollars on this nag in the third race.
Jockey:—On the nose?
Goof:—Of course not, on the entire horse naturally.

Girl:—My brother lost his job because he was caught loafing on a park bench.
Boy:—By a park policeman, no doubt?
Girl:—No, by the manager of the bench factory where he worked.

SHE LOST 20 POUNDS OF FAT

Feel full of pep and possess the slender form you crave—you can't if you listen to gossipers. To take off excess fat light on fatty meats, butter, cream and sugary sweets—eat more fruit and vegetables and take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning to eliminate excess waste.
Mrs. Elma Verlie of Havre de Grace, Md., writes: "I took off 20 lbs.—my clothes fit me fine now."
No drastic hardships—no constipation—but blessed daily bowel action when you take your little daily dose of Kruschen.

Don't put up with useless PAIN Get relief if you can

For the functional pains of menstruation, take CARDUI. If it doesn't benefit you, consult a physician. Don't neglect such pains. They depress the tone of the nerves, cause sleeplessness, loss of appetite and wear out a woman's resistance.

Get a bottle of Cardui and find out by trying it whether it will help you like thousands of women have said it helped them.

Besides easing certain pains, Cardui aids in building up the whole system by helping women to get more strength from the food they eat.
