M. G.—I have a desire to live a Christian life and want to be happy. Tell me if this desire will be fulfilled and will I marry the man I love?

Ans: Nothing will stand in your way of living the kind of life that you desire...and the CHURCH will mean a lot to you as you grow older. The man that you care for is just as eager to make a two-some of the affair as you are.

C. L. R.—Does my mother's foster sister mean her any good? I am undecided about the matter. Ans: The woman doesn't mean your mother any harm. It is quite true that they don't have very much in common and do not seek one-another's company but they are friends. Don't continue to worry about their relations.

R. C. O.—The man I love stays out all the time yet he tells me he loves me and I want to know if it is true.

Ans: He couldn't care very much for you and stay away all the time...he doesn't love anyone. He is very selfish and wants only to please himself, therefore he is going to live as he is now and enjoy life alone.

N. H. C.—Will I be able to visit my daddy this year? I am so anxious to see him.

Ans: If you bear all the EXPENSES then it will be possible for you to make this trip...otherwise I am afraid you won't go. Your husband isn't going to help you out. He is determined to carry on just as he has been for the past few years.

V. C. R.—Does my beau love me or does he love the girl that I accuse him of? Why does he go to her house so much?

Ans: If he didn't care for her he surely wouldn't stay at her house more than he does at home. Don't let him fool you...he does love her and just as much as it is possible for him to love anyone.

F. F. J.—Do you think that we would be acting wise to sell our little house?

Ans: Under the present circumstances it is entirely too much work for your husband to try to care for the place and it would be best to sell if you can get a GOOD PRICE FOR IT. Don't let it go for a small sum or sacrifice for it is worth a good sum.

A. E. F.—Is the wife of the man I have been corresponding with living or not?

Ans: She is...but she is in a distant city from where you are located. This woman will not in all probability ever enter his life again as she lost all love for him before she left.

D. O. D.—Will the plans that I have worked out. Could I get an Astrology Reading?

Ans: The plans that you and YOUR SISTER have in mind will work out very favorably to both concerned. If you desire a private reply and an Astrology Reading send a quarter and I will be glad to give you my free opinion on three questions.

Modern Etiquette

1. When an invitation is received over the telephone, is it all right for one to say, I shall let you know this evening, or tomorrow?

2. Should a man remove his hat when in the elevator of a hotel or an office building, when a woman enters?

3. When passing a plate for a second helping should one leave the knife and the fork on the plate?

4. Should a young man, engaged to be married, resent it if the girl's father asks him questions pertaining to his financial affairs, business position, and health?

5. Is it discourteous when one is talking with a person, for this person to show a lack of interest in what is being said?

6. When a woman and her escort enter a theater, and an usher is at the entrance of the aisle, which one should be first to follow the usher?

7. Please mention about six of the most common forms of rudeness for either husband or wife to be guilty of, when the other is entertaining friends in the home.

8. Is it poor form to use the expression "Gents"?

9. Should a hostess always rise when a guest is leaving, as well as arriving?

10. Is it all right for a man to give a woman an article of wearing apparel, as a gift?

11. How long should a hostess wait for a guest who is late for dinner?

12. Is it proper to address a wedding invitation to "Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown and Family"?

Answers

1. Never. This invitation must be accepted or declined without a moment's hesitation. A pause of even two or three seconds is bad form.

2. He should do so in a hotel elevator, but it is not necessary in an office building or shop.

3. Yes. Under no circumstances should silver be placed on the table cover.

4. Yes. The father has a perfect right to be concerned about every detail that affects the happiness of his daughter.

5. Yes. This is one of the most frequent acts of discourtesy. To be a good listener is one of the surest ways to gain friends, and is just as important as to be a good speaker.

6. The usher goes first, then the woman, and last her escort. If there is no usher, the man should go first. Refuse to talk, refuse to smile, appear bored, fall asleep, leave the room abruptly, sit and read.

7. Yes. It is very poor form. It is no more correct than "ladies" would be for "ladies."

8. Yes, always, and whether the guest be a man or woman. It is exceedingly discourteous if she does not.

9. Not unless the woman is his mother, sister, or a close relative.

10. No longer than fifteen minutes.

11. No. The words "and Family" are no longer used. An invitation should be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Brown, and a separate invitation to each member of the family.
